WHOLE BOOK
OF PSALMS:

Collected into English
Meeter, by Thomas Sternhold
John Hopkins and others.

Set forth and allowed to be sung in all Churches, of all the people together, before and after Morning and Evening Prayer; and also before & after Sermons, and moreover in private houles for their godly solace and comfort: laying apart
all ungodly songs and ballades, which tend onely to the nourishing of vice,
and corrupting of youth.

JAMES V.

¶ If any be afflicted, let him pray, and if any be merry let him sing Psalmes

COLOS. III.

¶ Let the word of God dwell plenteously
in you, wth all wisdome, teaching and exhorting one another in Psalmes, Hymns and spirituall songs, singing un-
to the Lord with grace in your hearts.

THE PSALMS OF DAVID

IN MEETER.

PSALM i. T. 5.

THe man is blest that hath not bent
to wicked read his ear:
Nor led his life as fumes do,
nor sat in scorners' chair.
But in the law of God the Lord
doth set his whole delight:
And in that law doth exercise
himself both day and night.
He shall be like the tree that grows
fast by the rivers side:
Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit
in his due time and tide:
Whose lease shall never fade or fall,
but flourish still and stand:
Even so all things shall prosper well
that this man takes in hand.
So shall not the ungodly men,
they shall be nothing so:
As the dust which from the earth
the wind drives to and fro.
Therefore shall not the wicked men
in judgement stand upright:
Nor yet the sinners with the just,
shall come in place or sight.
For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:
And the way of wicked men
shall quite be overthrown.

PSALM ii. T. 5.

Why did the Gentiles rumours raise?
what rage was in their brain?
Why did the Jewish people muse,
seeing all is but in vain?
The Kings and Rulers of the earth
conspire and are all bent:
Against the Lord and Christ his Son,
which he among us sent.
Shall we be bound to them, say they?
let all their bonds be broke:
And of their doctrine, and their law,
let us reject the yoke.
But he that in the heaven dwells,
their doings will deride:
And make them all as mocking stocks,
throughout the world so wide.
For in his wrath the Lord will say,
to them upon a day
And in his fury trouble them,
and then the Lord will say:
I have annointed him my King
upon my holy hill:
I will therefore Lord preach thy law,
and the declare thy will.

For in this wise the Lord himself;
did say to me I wor,
Thou art my dear and only Son,
to day I thee begot.
All people I will give to thee,
as heirs at thy request
The ends and coasts of all the earth
by thee shall be possest.
Thou shalt them bruise even with a
as men under foot trod (mace,
And as the potters shards shall break
them with an iron rod.
Now ye O Kings and Rulers all,
be wise therefore and learn'd:
By whom the matters of the world
be judged and discern'd.
See that ye serve the Lord above
in trembling and in fear:
See that with reverence ye rejoyce
to him in like manner.
See that ye kiss and eke embrace
his blessed Son, I say, Left in his wrath ye suddenly perish in the mid way.
If once his wrath never so small,
shall kindle in his breast:
Oh then all they that trust in Christ
shall happy be and blest.

PSALM iii. T. 5.

() Lord how are my foes increas'd,
which vex me more and more?
They kill my heart whereas they say,
God can him not restore.
But thou O Lord art my defence
when I am hard beset:
My worship and mine honour both,
and thou hold'st up my head.
Then with my voice upon the Lord,
I did both call and cry
And he our of his holy hill
did hear me by and by.
I laid me down and quietly
I slept and rose again
For why I know assuredly,
the Lord will me sustain.
If ten thousand had hem'd me in,
I could not be afraid:
For thou art still my Lord and God,
my Saviour and mine aid.
Rise up therefore, save me, my God,
for now to thee I call:
For thou hast broke the cheeks & teeth
of these wicked men all.

8 Salvation only doth belong to thee O Lord above : Thou dost bestow upon thy folk thy blessing and thy love.

PSALM liij. T. S.

() God that art my righteousness,
Lord hear me when I call,
Thou hast set me at liberty,
when I was bound and thrall.
Have mercy Lord therefore on me,
and grant me my request :
For unto thee unceasingly,
to cry I will not rest.

1 O mortall men how long will ye my glory thus despise ?
Why wander ye in vanity,
and follow after lies ?
2 Know ye that good and godly men
the Lord doth take and chuse :
And when to him I make my plaint,
he doth me not refuse.

3 Sin not, but stand in awe therefore,
examine well your heart :
And in your chamber quietly,
see you your selves convert.

4 Offer to God the sacrifice
of righteousness, I say :
And look that in the living Lord
you put your trust alway.

5 The greater sort crave worldly goods,
and riches do embrace :
But Lord grant us thy countenance,
thy favour and thy grace.
6 For thou thereby shalt make my heart
more joyfull and more glad,
Than they that of their corne and wine
full great increase have had.

7 In peace therefore lie down will I,
taking my rest and sleep :
For thou only wilt me, O Lord, alone in safety keep.

PSALM v. T. S.

I Ncline thine ears unto my words,
O Lord my plaint consider :
And hear my voice, my King, my God,
to thee I make my prayer.
8 Hear me betime, Lord tarry not,
for I will have respect,
My prayer early in the morn
to thee for to direct.

4 And I will trust through patience
in thee my God alone :
Thou art not pleas'd with wickedness
and ill with thee dwells none.

5 And in thy sight shall never stand
these furious fools O Lord :
Vain workers of iniquity,
thou hast alwaies abhor'd.

6 The liars and the flatterers
thou shalt destroy them :
And God will hate the blood-thirsty,
and the deceitfull man.

7 Therefore will I come to thine house
trusting upon thy grace :
And reverently will worship thee,
toward thine holy place.

8 Lord lead me in thy righteousness,
for to confound my foes :
And eke the way that I shall walk,
before my face disclose.

9 For in their mouches there is no truth
their heart is foul and vain :
Their throat an open sepulchre,
their tongues do glose and faine.

10 Destroy their false conspiracies,
that they may come to nought :
Subvert them in their heaps of sin,
which have rebellion wrought.

11 But those that put their trust in thee
let them be glad alwaies :
And render thanks for thy defence,
and give thy Name the praise.

12 For thou with favour wilt increase the just and righteous still :
And with thy grace as with a shield,
defend him from all ill.

PSALM vj. T. S.

I Ord in thy wrath reprove me not,
though I deserve thine ire :
Ne yet correct me in thy rage,
O Lord I thee desire.

2 For I am weak, therefore O Lord,
of mercy me forbear :
And heal me Lord, for why thou know'st
my bones do quake for fear.

3 My soul is troubled very sore,
and vexed vehemently,
But Lord how long wilt thou delay,
to cure my misery ?

4 Lord turn thee to thy wonted grace,
my silly soul up take :
O save me, nor for my deserts,
but for thy mercies sake.

5 For why ? no man among the dead
remembereth thee one whit :
Or who shall worship thee (O Lord)
in the infernal pit ?
6 So grievous is my plaint and moene,
that I wax wonderous faine :
All the night long I wail my bed
with tears of my complaint.

7 My sight is dim, and waxeth old
with anguish of my heart :
For fear of those that be my foes,
and would my soul subvert.

8 But now away from me all ye that work iniquity :
For why? the Lord hath heard the voice
of my complaint and cry.

9 He heard not only the request
and prayer of my heart :
But it received at my hands,
and took it in good part.

10 And now my foes that vexed me,
the Lord will soon defame:
And suddainly confound them all
to their rebuke and shame.

PSALM vij. T. S.

○ Lord my God, I put my trust,
and confidence in thee:
save me from them that me pursue,
and eke deliver me.

1 Left like a Lion he me tear,
and rend in pieces small,
While there is none to succour me
and rid me out of thrall.

2 O Lord my God if I have done
the thing that is not right:
Or else if I be found in fault,
or guilty in thy sight.

3 Or to my friend rewarded ill,
or left him in distress,
Which me pursu'd most cruelly,
and hated me causeless.

4 Then let my foes pursue my soul,
and eke my life down thrust Unto the earth, and also lay mine honour in the dust.

5 Start up O Lord now in thy wrath,
and put my foes to pain:
Perform the Kingdom promised
to me which wrong sustain.

6 Then shall great nations come to thee
and know thee by this thing,
If thou declare for love of them,
thy self as Lord and King.

7 And as thou art of all men Judge,
O Lord now judge thou me
According to my righteousness,
and mine integrity.

The second Parr.

8 Lord cease the hate of wicked men,
and be the just mans guide:
By whom the secreters of all hearts
are searched and descri'd.

9 I take my help to come of God
in all my pain and smart:
That doth preserve all those that be
of pure and perfect heart.

10 The just man and the wicked both
God judgeth by his power:
So that he feels his mighty hand
even every day and hour.

11 Except he change his mind, I die,
for even as he should smile,
He whets his sword, his bow he bends,
aiming where he may hit.

12 And doth prepare his mortal darts,
his arrows keen and sharp,
For them that do me persecute,
whilst he doth mischief warp.

13 But lo though he in travell be
of his devilish fore-cast:
And of his mischief once conceiv'd,
yet brings forth nought at last.

14 He digs a ditch and delves it deep.

in hope to hurt his brother:
But he shall fall into the pit
that he dig'd up for other.

15 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt
of him in whom it bred:
And all the mischief that he wrought,
shall fall upon his head.

16 I will give thanks to God therefore,
that judgeth righteously:
And with my song will praise the Name
of him that is most high.

PSALM viij. T. S.

○ God our Lord how wonderfull
are thy works every where:
Whole same surmounts in dignity,
above the heavens clear!

1 Even by the mourns of sucking babes
thou wilt confound thy foes:
For in those babes thy might is seen,
thy graces they disclose.

2 And when I see the heavens high,
the works of thine own hand:
The Sun, the Moon, and all the starres,
in order as they stand:

3 What thing is man (Lord) think I then that thou dost him remember?
Or what is mans posterity,
that thou dost it consider?

4 For thou hast made him little less than Angels in degree:
And thou hast crowned him also
with glory and dignity.

5 Thou hast prefer'd him to be Lord
of all thy works of wonder:
And at his feet hast set all things,
that he should keep them under.

6 As sheep, and neat, and all beasts else
that in the fields do feed:

7 Fowles of the ayr, fish in the sea,
and all that therein breed.

8 Therefore must I say once again,
O God that art our Lord:
How famous and how wonderfull
are thy works through the world!

PSALM ix. T. S.

W ith heart & mouth unto the Lord
will I sing laud and praise:
And speak of all thy wondrous works,
and them declare alwaies.

1 I will be glad and much rejoyce,
in thee O God most high:
And make my songs extoll thy Name
above the starry skie.

2 For that my foes are driven back,
and turned unto flight:
They fall down far, and are destroy'd
by thy great power and might.

3 Thou hast revenged all my wrong,
my grief and all my grudge:
Thou dost with justice hear my cause
most like a righteous Judge.

4 Thou dost rebuke the heathen folk,
and wicked to confound:

That afterward the memory
of them cannot be found.
6 My foes thou hast made good dispatch,
and all their towns destroyed:
Thou hast their fame with them defac'd,
through all the world so wide.

7 Know now that he which is above
for evermore shall reign,
And in the fear of equity
true judgement will maintain.

8 With justice he will keep and guide
the world and every wight:
And so will yeeld with equity
to every man his right.

9 He is protector of the poor,
what time they be oppress'd:

He is in all adversity
their refuge and their rest.

10 And they that know thy holy Name
therefore shall trust in thee:

Nor thou forsakest nor their suit
in their necessity.

The Second Part.

11 Sing Psalms therefore unto the Lord
that dwells in Zion hill:

Publish among all nations,
his noble acts and will.

12 For he is mindfull of the blood
of those that be oppress'd:
Forgetting not the afflicted heart
that seeks to him for rest.

13 Have mercy Lord on me poor wretch
whose enemies still remain:
Which from the gates of death are wont
to raise me up again.

14 In Zion that I might set forth
thy praise with heart and voice:
And that in thy salvation Lord,
my soul might still rejoyce.

15 The heathen stick fast in the pit
that they themselves prepar'd:
And in the net that they did set,
their own feet fast are snar'd.

16 God shews his judgments & were good for every man to mark:

When as ye see the wicked man
lie crap'd in his own wark.

17 The wicked and deceitfull men
go down to hell for ever:

And all the people of the world,
that will nor God remember.

18 But sure the Lord will not forget
the poor mans grief and pain:

The patient people never look for help of God in vain.

19 O Lord arise lest men prevail,
that be of worldly might:

And let the heathen folk receive,
their judgement in thy sight.

20 Lord strike such terrour, fear & dread
into the hearts of them:

That they may know assuredly,
they be but mortall men.

PSALM x. P. 2.

What is the cause that thou O Lord
art now so far from thine?

And keepest close thy countenance
from us this troublous time?

2 The poor do perish by the proud and wicked mens desire:

Let them be taken in the craft
that they themselves conspire.

3 For in the last of his own heart
th'ungodly doth delight

So doth the wicked praise himself,
and doth the Lord despight.

4 He is so proud that right and wrong
he setteth all apart:

Nay, nay, there is no God, saith he,
for thus he thinks in heart.

5 Because his wayes do prosper still,
he doth thy laws neglect:

And with a blast doth puff against such as wou'd him correct.

6 Tush, tush, saith he, I have no dread,
lest mine estate should change:

And why? for all a diversity
to him is very strange.

7 His mouth is full of cursed acts
of fraud, deceit and guile:

Under his tongue doth mischief sit,
and travaile all the while.

8 He lieth hid in waies and holes,
to slay the innocent:

Against the poor that pass him by,
his cruell eyes are bent.

9 And like a Lion privily
lies lurking in his den:

If he may snare them in his net,
to spoil poor simple men.

10 And for the nonce full craftily
he croucherh down, I say:

So are great heaps of poor men made
by his strong power his prey.

The Second Part.

11 Tush, God forgetteth this, saith he,
therefore I may be bold:

His countenance is cast aside,
he doth it not behold.

12 Arise O Lord, O God in whom the poor mans hope doth rest:

Lift up thy hand, forget not Lord
the poor that be oppress'd.

13 What blasphemy is this to thee,
Lord dost thou not abhor it?

To hear the wicked in their heart
say, tush thou canst not for it?

14 But thou seest all their wickedness
and well dost understand,

That friendless and poor fatherless
are left into thy hand.

15 Of wicked and malicious men,
then break the power for ever:

That they with their iniquity
may perish altogether.

16 The Lord shall raig for evermore,
as King and God alone :
And he will chase the heathen folk,
out of the land each one.

17 Thou heard'st (O Lord) the poor mans
their prayer and request. (plaints)
Their hearts thou wilt confirm until thine ears to hear be prest.

18 To judg the poor and fatherless,
and help them to their right :
That they may be no more oppress
by men of world y might.

PSALM xi. T. S.

Trust in God, how dare ye then
say thus my soul untill?
Fly hence as fast as any fowl,
and hide thee on poor hill.

1 Behold how thou bendst their bows,
and how thou bendest their arrows prest,
To smite in secret, and to hurt
the sound and harmless breast.

2 Of worldly hope all stays were drunk,
and clearly brought to nought :
Alas the just and righteous man,
what evil hath he wrought?

3 But he that in his Temple is,
most holy and most high :
And in the heavens hath his seat
of royal majesty.

The poor and simple mans estate
considereth in his mind :

And searcheth our full narrowly
the manners of mankind :

4 And with a cheerfull countenance
the righteous man will vie :
But in his heart he doth abhor
all such as mischief use.

5 And on the sinners casteth snares,
as thick as any rain :

Fire and brimstone & whirlwinds thick,
appointed for their pain.

6 Ye see then how a righteous God
doth righteousness embrace :
And to the just and upright men
shews forth his pleasant face.

PSALM xii. T. S.

Help Lord, for good and godly men
do perish and decay :

And faith and truth from worldly men
is parted clean away.

1 Who so doth with his neighbour talk,
his talk is all but vain ;

For every man bethinketh how to flatter, lie and faine.

2 But flattering and deceitfull lips,
and tongues that be so faine,

To speak proud words, and make great
the Lord soon curs them out. (brags)

3 For they say still, we will prevail,
our tongues shall us extoll :

Our tongues are ours, we ought to speak,
what Lord shall us controll?

But for the great complaint and cry
of poor and men oppress :
Arise will I, now faith the Lord,
and them restore to rest.

4 Gods Word is life to silver pipe,
that from the earth is tri'd :
and hath no less than seven times
in fire been purg'd.

5 Now faith thy promise is to help,
Lord keep thy promise then :
And save us now and evermore,
from this ill kind of men.

6 For now this wicked world is full of mischiefes manifold :
When vanity with worldly men
so highly is extold.

PSALM xiii. T. S.

Iow long wilt thou forget me Lord
I shall I never be remembered?

How long wilt thou thy visage hide,
as though thou wert offended?

2 In heaven and earth how long shall I with care tormented be?

How long, O Lord, shall my deadly foe
thus triumph over me?

3 Behold me now, my Lord my God,
and hear me sore oppress :

Lighen mine eyes, lest that I sleep,
as one by death posses.

4 Lest that mine enemy say to me,
behold I do prevail :

Lest they also that hate my soul,
rejoyce to see me quail.

5 But from thy mercy and goodness,
my hope shall never start :

In thy relief and saving health,
right glad shall be my heart.

6 I will give thanks unto the Lord,
and praises to him sing,

Because he hath heard my request,
and granted my wishing.

PSALM xiv. T. S.

There is no God, as foolish men
affirm in their mad mood :
Their drifts are all corrupt and vain,
not one of them doth good.

1 The Lord beheld from heaven high
the whole race of mankind :

And saw nor one that sought indeed
the living God to find.

2 They went all wide and were corrupt,
and truly there was none,

That in the world did any good,
I say, there was not one.

3 Is all their judgment so far lost,
that all work mischief still?

Eating my people even as bread,
not one to seek Gods will?

4 When they thus rage, then suddenly great fear on them shall fall :

For God doth love the righteous men,
and will maintain them all.

5 Ye mock the doings of the poor,
to their reproach and shame :

Because they put their trust in God,
and call upon his name.

7 But who shall give thy people health,
and when wilt thou fulfill Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Zion hill?

8 Even when thou shalt restore again
such as were captive led :
Then Jacob shall therein rejoice,
and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM xv. T. 5.

○ Lord within thy Tabernacle,
who shall inhabit still !
Or whom wilt thou receive to dwell
in thy most holy hill ?

1 The man whose life is uncorrupt,
whose works are just and straight :
Whose heart doth think the very truth,
whose tongue speaks no deceit.

2 Nor to his neighbour doth none ill,
in body, goods, or name :
Nor willingly doth move false tales,
which might empaine the same.

3 That in his heart regardeth not malicious wicked men :
But those that love and fear the Lord,
he maketh much of them.

4 His oath and all his promises
that keepeth faithfully :
Although he make his covenant so,
that he doth lose thereby.

5 That purrcth not to usury
his money and his coyne :
Nor for to hurt the innocent,
doth bribe or else purloine.

6 Who so doth all things as you see that here is to be done :
Shall never perish in this world,
nor in the world to come.

PSALM xvi. T. 5.

Lord keep me, for I trust in thee,
and do confess indeed

7 thou art my God, and of my goods
O Lord thou hast no need.

8 I give my goods unto the Saints
that in the world do dwell :
And namely to the faithfull flock
in vertue that excell.

9 They shall heap sorrows on their heads,
which run as they were mad
To offer to the idol gods,
alas it is too bad.

10 As for their bloody sacrifice,
and offerings of that sort,
I will not touch, nor yet thereof
my lips shall make report.

11 For why? the Lord the portion is of mine inheritance :
And thou art he that dost maintain
my rent, my lot, my chance.

12 The place wherein my lot did fall,
unbespoy did excell.

Mine heritage assign'd to me,
doth please me wondrous well.

7 I thank the Lord that caused me
to understand the right :
For by his meanes my secret thoughts
do teach me every night.

8 I set the Lord still in my sight,
and trust him over all :
For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fall.

9 Wherefore my heart and tongue also do both rejoyce together :
My flesh and body rest in hope,
when I this thing consider.

10 Thou wilt not leave my soul in grave
for Lord thou lovest me :
Nor yet wilt give thy holy one,
corruption for to see.

11 But wilt me teach the way to life,
for all treasure and store
Of perfect joy are in thy face,
and power for evermore.

PSALM xvii. T. 5.

○ Lord give ear to my just cause,
attend when I complain :
And hear the prayer that I put forth,
with lips that do not feine.

2 And let the judgment of my cause,
proceed alwaies from thee :
And let thine eyes behold and clear
this my simplicity.

3 Thou hast well tri'd me in the night,
and yet couldst nothing finde
That I have spoken with my tongue,
that was not in my minde.

4 As for the works of wicked men,
and paths perverse and ill,
For love of thy most holy Name,
I have refrained still.

5 Then in thy paths that be most pure
stay me Lord and preserve :
That from the way wherein I walk,
my steps may never swerve.

6 For I do call to thee O Lord,
surely thou wilt me aid :
Then hear my prayer & weigh right well
the words that I have said.

7 O thou the Saviour of all them
that put their trust in thee :
Declare thy strength on them that spake
against thy Majesty.

8 O keep me as thou wouldest keep
the apple of thine eye :
And under covert of thy wings
defend me secretly.

The second Part.

9 From wicked men that trouble me,
and daily me annoy :

And from my foes that go about my soul for to destroy.

10 Which wallow in their worldly wealth
so full are they and fat,

Thy

That in their pride they do not spare
to speak they care not what.

11 They lie in wait where I should pass,
with craft me to confound :

And musing mischief in their mind
to cast me to the ground.

12 Much like a Lion greedily
that would his prey embrace:
Or lurking like a Lions whelp,
within some secret place.

13 Up Lord, in haste prevent my foe,
and cast him at thy feet :

Save thou my soul from the ill man,
and with the sword him smite.

14 Deliver me Lord by thy power,
out of these tyrants hands:
Which now so long time reigned have,
and kept us in their bands.

15 I mean from worldly men, to whom
all worldly goods are rise :

That have no hope nor part of joy,
but in this present life.

16 Thou of thy store their bellies fill with pleasure to their mind:
Their children have enough and leave
to theirs the rest behinde.

17 But I shall with pure conscience
behold thy gracious face :

So when I wake I shall be full of thine image and grace.

PSALM xviii. T. S.

○ God my strength and fortitude,
of force I must love thee :

Thou art my cattle and defence
in my necessity.

1 My God my Rock in whom I trust,
the worker of my wealth :

My refuge, buckler and my shield,
the horn of all my health.

2 When I sing laud unto the Lord,
most worthy to be serv'd :

Then from my foes I am right sure,
that I shall be preserv'd.

3 The pangs of death did compass me,
and bound me every where:

The flowing waves of wickedness
did put me in great fear.

4 The flie and subtill snare of hell
were round about me set:

And for my death there was prepar'd
a deadly trapping net.

5 Thus beset with pain and grief,
did pray to God for grace :

And he forthwith did hear my plaint
out of his holy place.

6 Such is his power, that in his wrath
he made the earth to quake :

Yea the foundation of the moun
of Basan for to shake.

7 And from his nostrils came a smoke,
when kindled was his ire :

And from his mouth came kindled coles
of hot consuming fire,

9 The Lord descended from above,
and bowed the heavens high :

And underneath his feet he cast
the darkness of the sky.

10 On Cherubs and on Cherubims
full royally he rode :

And on the wings of all the winds
came flying all abroad.

The second Part.

11 And like a den most dark he made his hid and secret place :

With waters black and airy clouds
environed he was.

12 But when the presence of his face
in brightness shall appear :

Then clouds consume, and in their stead
come hail and coles of fire.

13 The fiery darts and thunder bolts
disperse them here and there :

And with his often lightnings
he purts them in great fear.

14 Lord, at thy wrath and threatnings,
and at thy chiding cheer,

The springs and the foundations
of all the world appear.

15 And from above the Lord sent down
to fetch me from below :

And pluck'd me out of waters great,
that would me overthrow.

16 And me delivered from my foes
that would have made me thrall :

Yea from such foes as were too strong
for me to deal withall.

17 They did prevent me to oppress
in time of my great grief :

But yet the Lord was my defence,
my succour and relief.

18 He brought me forth in open place,
whereas I might be free :

And kept me safe, because he had a favour unto me.

19 And as I was an innocent,
so did he me regard.

And to the cleanness of my hands
he gave me my reward.

20 For that I walked in his waies,
and in his paths have trod :

And have not sinned wickedly against my Lord and God.

The third Part.

21 But evermore I have respect
to his law and decree :

His statutes and commandment
I cast not out from me.

22 But pure and clean and uncorrupt
I appear'd before his face :

And did refrain from wickedness
and sin in any case.

23 The Lord therefore will me reward
as I have done aright :

And to the cleanness of my hands,
appearing in his sight.

24 For Lord with him that holy is,
will thou be holy too,

And with the good and vertuous men
right veruouſly wilt do.

35 And to the loving and cleſt
thy love thou wilt reſerve :
And thou wilt uſe the wicked men,
as wicked men deſerve.

36 For thou doſt ſave the ſimple folk
in trouble when they lie :
And doſt bring down the countenance
of them that look full high.

37 The Lord will light my candle ſo,
that it ſhall ſhine full bright :
The Lord my God will make alſo
my darkneſs to be light.

38 For by thy help an hoſt of men
diſcomfit Lord I ſhall :
By thee I ſcale and over-leap
the ſtrength of any wall.

39 Unſpotted are the wayes of God,
his Word is purely tri'd :
He is a ſure defence to ſuch
as in his faith abide.

40 For who is God except the Lord?
for other there is none :
Or elſe, who is omnipotent
ſaving our God alone?

The fourth Part.

41 The God that girdeth me with ſtrength
is he that I do mean :
That all the wayes wherein I walk,
did evermore keep clean.

42 That made my feet like to the Harts,
in ſwiftheſſe of my pace :
And for my ſurety brought me forth
into an open place.

43 He did in order put my hands
to battle and to fight :
To break in ſunder bars of braſs,
he gave mine arms the might.

44 Thou reacheſt me thy ſaving health,
thy right hand is my tower :
Thy love and familiarity
doth ſtill increaſe my power.

45 And under me thou makeſt plain
the way where I ſhould walk :
So that my feet ſhall never ſlip,
nor ſtumble at a balk.

46 And fiſcely I purſue and take
my foes that me annoy :
And from the field do not return,
till they be all deſtroyd.

47 So I ſuppreſs and wound my foes
that they can riſe no more :
For at my feet they fall down flat,
I ſtrike them all ſo ſore.

48 For thou doſt gird me wth thy ſtrength
to war in ſuch a wiſe :
That they be all ſcattered abroad,
that up againſt me riſe.

49 Lord thou haſt put into my hands
my mortal enemies yoke :
And all my foes thou doſt divide
in ſunder with thy ſtroke.

40 They call'd for help, but none gave ear
nor hoip the nth relief :
Yea to the Lord they call'd for help,
yet heard he nor their grief.

The ſift Part.

41 And ſtill like duſt before the wind,
I drive them under feet :

And ſweep them out like filthy clay,
that ſticketh in the ſtreer.

42 Thou keep'ſt me from ſeditious folk that ſtill in ſtriſe are led :
And thou doſt of the hearthen folk appoint me to be head

43 A people ſtrange to me unknown,
and yet they ſhall me ſerve :

And at the ſift obey my Word ;
whereas mine own will ſwerve.

44 I ſhall be irkſome to mine own,
they will not ſee my light :
But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of ſight.

45 But bleſſed be the living Lord,
moſt worthy of all praiſe :
That is my rock and ſaving health,
praiſed be he alwaies.

46 For God it is that gave me power
revenged for to be :
And with his holy Word ſubdu'd
the people unto me.

47 And from my foe deliverd me,
and ſet me above theſe
That cruel and ungodly were,
and up againſt me roſe.

48 And for this cauſe, O Lord my God
to thee give thanks I ſhall :
And ſing our praiſes to thy Name,
among the Gentiles all :

49 That gaveſt great proſperity
unto the King I ſay :
To David thine anointed King
and to his ſeed for ay.

PSALM xix. T. 5.

THe heavens and the firmament
do wondrously declare
The glory of God omnipotent,
his works and what they are.

1 The wondrous works of God appear
by every daies ſucceſs :
The nights likewiſe which their race run
the ſelf ſame thing expreſs.

2 There is no language, tongue, or ſpeech
where their found is not heard :
In all the earth and coaſts thereof
their knowledg is conſer'd.

3 In them the Lord made for the Sun
a place of great renown :
Who like a bridegroom ready trim'd,
doth from his chamber come.

4 And as a valiant champion,
who for to get a prize,
With joy doth haſte to take in hand
ſome noble enterpriſe.

6 And all the stile from end to end
he compasseth about :
Nothing can hide it from his hear ,
but he will find it out.

7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his Covenant sure :
Converting souls, and making wise
the simple and obscure ?

8 Just are the Lords commandments,
and glad both heart and mind :
His precepts pure, and giveth light to eyes that be full blind.

9 The fear of God is excellent,
and doth endure for ever :
The judgments of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether :

10 And more to be embrac'd alway,
than fined gold I say :
The honey and the honey-comb
are not so sweet as they.

11 By them thy servant is fore-warn'd
to have God in regard :
And in performance of the same,
there shall be great reward.

12 But Lord what earthly man doth know
the errors of his life ?
Then cleanse me from my secret sins,
which are in me most rife.

13 And keep me that presumptuous sins
prevail not over me :
And so shall I be innocent,
and great offences flee.

14 Accept my mouth and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one :
For my Redeemer and my strength,
O Lord thou art alone.

PSALM xx. T.S.

IN trouble and adversity,
the Lord God hear thee still :
The Majesty of Jacobs God defend thee from all ill.

2 And send thee from his holy place
his help at every need :
And so in Sion stablish thee ,
and make thee strong indeed.

3 Remembring well the sacrifice,
that now to him is done :
And so receive right thankfully thy burnt-offerings each one.

4 According to thy hearts desire,
the Lord grant unto thee :
And all thy counsel and device,
full well perform may he.

5 We shall rejoyce when thou us sav'st
and our banners display Unto the Lord, which thy requests fulfilled hath alway.

6 The Lord will his annointed save,
I know well by his grace :
And send him help by his right hand
out of his holy place.

In chariots some put confidence,
and some in horses trust :

But we remember God our Lord,
that keepeth promise just.

8 They fall down flur, but we do rise
and stand up stedfastly :

9 Now save and help us Lord and King
on thee when we do cry.

PSALM xxj. T.S.

O Lord how joyfull is the King,
in thy strength and thy power !
How vehemently doth he rejoyce
in thee his Saviour ?

2 For thou hast given unto him
his godly hearts desire :
To him nothing thou hast deny'd,
of that he did require.

3 Thou didst prevent him with thy gifts,
and blessings manifold :
And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of perfect gold.

4 And when he asked life of thee,
whereof thou mad'st him sure :
To have long life, yea such a life
as ever shall endure.

5 Great is his glory by thy help,
thy benefit and aid :
Great worship and great honour both thou hast upon him laid.

6 Thou wilt give him felicity,
that never shall decay :
And with thy cheerfull countenance
wilt comfort him alway.

7 For why, the King doth strongly trust
in God for to prevail :
Wherefore his goodness and his grace
will not that he shall quail.

8 But let thine enemies feel thy force,
and those that thee withstand ,
Find out thy foes, and let them feel
the power of thy right hand.

9 And like an oven burn them Lord,
in fiery flame and fume :
Thine anger shall destroy them all,
and fire shall them consume.

10 And thou shalt root out of the earth
their fruit that should increase :
And wot the number of thy folk
their seed shall end and cease.

11 For why, much mischief did they mat-
against thy holy Name :

Yet did they fail, and had no power
for to performe the same.

12 But as a mark thou shalt them set
in a most open place :
And charge thy bow-strings readily against thine enemies face.

13 Be thou exalted Lord therefore,
in thy strength every hour :

So shall we sing right solemnly,
praising thy might and power.

PSALM xxij. T.S.

O God my God, wherefore dost thou
for sake me utterly.

And helpest not when I do make my great complaint and cry :
2 To thee my God even all day long
I do both cry and call :
Teease not all the night, and yet
thou hearest not at all.
3 Even thou that in thy Sanctuary,
and holy place dost dwell :
Thou art the comfort and the joy,
and glory of Israel.
4 And he in whom our fathers old
had all their hope for ever :
And when they put their trust in thee,
thou didst them aye deliver.
5 They were delivered ever when they called on thy Name :
And for the faith they had in thee,
they were not put to shame.
6 But I am now become a worm,
more like than any man :
An out-cast whom the people scorn,
with all the spite they can.
7 All men despise as they behold me walking on the way : (heads
They grin, they mow, they nod their
and on this wise they say :
8 This man did glory in the Lord,
his favour and his love :
Let him redeem and help him now,
his power if he will prove.

9 But Lord out of my mothers womb,
I came by thy behest :
Thou didst preserve me still in hope,
while I did suck her breast.
10 I was committed from my birth,
with thee to have abode :
Since I was in my mothers womb,
thou hast been ere my God.

The second Part.

11 Then Lord depart not now from me,
in this my present grief :
Since I have none to be my help,
my succour and relief.
12 So many bulls do compass me,
that be full strong of head :
Yea bulls so fat, as though they had
in Bashan field been fed.
13 They gape upon me greedily,
as though they would me slay :
Much like a Lion roaring out,
and ramping for his prey.
14 But I drop down like water shed,
my joynts in sunder break :
My heart doth in my body melt,
like wax against the heat.

15 And like a porpoise drieth my (strength
my tongue it cleaveth fast
into my jaws, and I am brought to dust of death at last.
16 And many dogs do compass me,
and wicked counsell eke 17 are against me cruelly,
they pierce my hands and feet.

17 I was tormented, so that I might all my bones have sold :
Yet still upon me they do look,
and still they me behold.
18 My garments they divided eke
in parts among them all :
And for my coat they did cast lots,
to whom it might befall.
19 Therefore I pray thee be not farre
from me at my great need :
But rather sith thou art my strength,
to help me Lord make speed.
20 And from the sword Lord save my soul
by thy might and thy power :
And keep my soul, thy darling dear,
from dogs that would devour.
21 And from the Lions mouth that would
me all in sunder shiver :
And from the hornes of Unicorne
Lord safely me deliver.
22 Then shall I to my brethren all thy majesty record :
And in thy Church shall praise the Name
of thee the living Lord.

The third Part.

23 All ye that fear him, praise the Lord,
thou Jacob honour him :
And all ye seed of Israel
with reverence worship him.
24 For he despiseth not the poor,
he turneth not awry.
His countenance when they do call,
but granteth to their cry.
25 Among the folk that fear the Lord,
I will therefore proclaim Thy praise, and keep my promise made for setting forth thy Name.
26 The poor shall ear and be suffic'd
and those that do endeavour
To know the Lord, shall praise his Name
their hearts shall live for ever.
27 All coasts of th'earth shall praise the
and turn to him for grace : (Lord,
The heathen folk shall worship him
before his blessed face.
28 The Kingdom of the heathen folk the Lord shall have therefore :
And he shall be their governour,
and King for evermore.
29 The rich men of his goodly gifts,
shall feed and taste also :
And in his presence worship him,
and bow their knees full low.
30 And all that shall go down to dust,
of life by him shall taste :
My seed shall serve and praise the Lord,
while any world shall last.
31 My seed shall plainly shew to them
that shall be born hereafter,
His justice and his righteousness,
and all his works of wonder.

PSALM xxij. W. W.

THe Lord is only my support,
and he that doth me feed:
How can I then lack any thing,
whereof I stand in need?
He doth me fold in coats most safe,
the tender grass fast by:
And after drives me to the streames
which run most pleasantly.
And when I feel my self near lost,
then doth he me home take:
Conducting me in his right pathes,
even for his own Names sake.
And though I were even at deaths doer
yet would I fear none ill:
For with thy rod and shepherds crook,
I am comforted still.
Thou hast my table richly deck'd,
in despite of my foe:
Thou hast my head with balm refresh'd
my cup doth overflow.
And finally, while breath doth last,
thy grace shall me defend:
And in the house of God will I
my life for ever spend.

Another of the same by T. S.

My shepherd is the living Lord,
nothing therefore I need:
In pastures fair with waters calm,
he sets me for to feed.
He did convert and glad my soul,
and brought my mind in frame
To walk in paths of righteousness,
for his most holy Name.
Yea though I walk in vale of death,
yet will I fear none ill:
Thy rod, thy staff doth comfort me,
and thou art with me still.
And in the presence of my foes,
my table thou shalt spread:
Thou shalt (O Lord) fill full my cup,
and eke anoint my head.
Through all my life thy favour is so frankly shewed to me:
That in thy house for evermore
my dwelling place shall be.

PSALM xxiv. I. H.

The earth is all the Lords, with all
her store and furniture:
Yea his is all the world, and all that therein doth endure.
For he hath safely founded it,
above the seas to stand:
And laid a low the liquid floods,
to flow beneath the land.
For who is he O Lord that shall ascend into thy hill?
Or pass into thy holy place,
there to continue still? (heart)
Whose hands are harmful, and whose
no spot there doth defile:
His soul not set on vanity,
who hath not sworn to guile,

5 Him that is such an one, the Lord
shall place in blissfull plight:
And God his God and Saviour
shall yeeld to him his right:
6 This is the brood of travellers,
in seeking of his grace:
As Jacob did the Israclites,
in that time of his race.
7 Ye Princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state.
8 Who is the King of glorious state,
the strong and mighty Lord:
The mighty Lord in battell stout,
and triall of the sword.
9 Ye Princes ope your gates, stand ope
the everlasting gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the King of glorious state.
10 Who is the King of glorious state
the Lord of hosts it is:
The Kingdom and the royalty
of glorious state is his.

PSALM xxv. T. S.

I Lift my heart to thee,
my God and guide most just:
Now suffer me to take no shame,
for in thee do I trust.
1 Let not my foes rejoyce,
nor make a scorn of me:
And let them not be overthrown,
that put their trust in thee.
3 But shame shall them befall,
which harm them wrongfully:
Therefore thy paths and thy right waies unto me Lord direct.
4 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me, I thee pray:
Thou art my God and Saviour,
on thee I wait alway.
5 Thy mercies manifold,
I pray thee, Lord, remember,
And eke thy pity plentiful,
for they have been for ever.
6 Remember not the faults
and frailty of my youth:
Remember not how ignorant
I have been of thy truth.
Nor after my deserts
let me thy mercy find:
But of thine own benignity,
Lord, have me in thy mind.
7 His mercy is full sweet,
his truth a perfect guide:
Therefore the Lord will sinners reach,
and such as go aside.
8 The humble he will reach his precepts for to keep:
He will direct in all his waies,
the lowly and the meek.
9 For all the waies of God
are truth and mercy both:

To them that keep his Teſtament,
the witneſſes of his truth.

The ſecond Part.

Now for thy holy Name,
O Lord, I thee intreat;

To grant me pardon for my ſin,
for it is wondrous great.

Who ſo doth fear the Lord,
the Lord will him direct :

To lead his life in ſuch a way
as he doth beſt accept.

His ſoul ſhall evermore
in goodneſſe dwell and ſtand :

His ſeed and his poſterity inherit ſhall the Land.

All thoſe that fear the Lord,
know his ſecret intent :

And unto them he doth declare his Will and Teſtament.

Mine eyes and eke my heart
to him I will advance :

That pluck'd my feet out of the ſnare
of ſin and ignorance.

With mercy me behold,
to thee I make my moane :

For I am poor and deſolate,
and comfortleſſe alone.

That troubles of my heart
are multipli'd indeed :

Bring me out of this miſery,
neceſſary and need.

Behold my poverty,
mine anguiſh and my pain :

Remit my ſin and mine offence
and make me clean again.

O Lord, behold my foes
how they do ſtill increaſe :
Perſuing me with deadly hate,
that ſain would live in peace.

Preſerve and keep my ſoul,
and eke deliver me :

And let me not be overthrowne,
becauſe I truſt in thee.

Let my ſimple parenteſſe
me from my enemies ſhend :

Becauſe I look as one of thine,
that thou ſhoul'd'ſt me defend.

Deliver, Lord, thy folk,
and ſend them ſome relief,

I mean thy cho'ſen Iſrael,
from all their pain and grief,

Pſalm xxvi. T. s.

Lord be my Judge, and thou ſhalt ſee,
my paths be right and plain :

I truſt in God, and hope that he will ſtrength me to remain.

Prove me my God, I thee deſire,
my wayes to ſearch and try :

As men do prove their gold with fire,
my reins and heart eſpy.

Thy goodneſſe laid before my face,
I durſt behold alwayes :

For of thy truth I tread the trace,
and will do all my dayes.

I do not luſt to haunt or uſe,
with men whoſe deeds are vain :
To come in houſe I do reſuſe,
with the deceitfull train.

I much abhor the wicked ſort,
their deeds I do deſpiſe :

I do not once to them reſort,
that hurtfull things deviſe.

My hands I waſh and do proceed
in works to walk upright.

Then to thine altar I make ſpeed
to offer there in ſight.

That I may ſpeak and preach the praiſe
that doth belong to thee :

And ſo declare how wondrous wayes
thou haſt been good to me.

O God thy houſe I love moſt dear,
to me it doth excell :

I have delight, and would be near
whereas thy grace doth dwell.

O ſhut not up my ſoul with them,
in ſin that take their fill :

Nor yet my life among thoſe men,
that ſeek much bloud to ſpill.

Whoſe hands are heapt with craft and their lives thereof are full: (guile)

And their right hand w wrench & wile
for bribes doth pluck and pull.

But I in righteouſneſſe intend
my time and dayes to ſerve :

Have mercy Lord, and me defend,
ſo that I do not ſwerve :

My foot is ſtaid for all aſſayes,
it ſtanderh well and right :

Wherefore to God will I give praiſe
in all the peoples ſight.

Pſalm xxvii. T. H.

The Lord is both my health & light
I ſhall man make me diſmaid :

Sith God doth give me ſtrength & might
why ſhould I be afraid? (ſtrength)

While that my foes with all their begin with me to brawl :

And think to eat me up at length
themſelves have caught the fall.

Though they in camp againſt me lie,
my heart is not afraid :

In battle pight if they will try,
I truſt in God for aid.

One thing of God I do require,
that he would not deny :

For which I pray and will deſire,
till he to me apply.

That I within his holy place
my life throughout may dwell :

To ſee the beauty of his face,
and view his Temple well.

In time of dread he ſhall me hide
within his place moſt pure :

And keep me ſecret by his ſide,
as on a rock moſt ſure.

7 At length I know the Lords good grace
shall make me strong and stout,
My foes to foyl and clean deface,
that compass me about.
8 Therefore within his house will I give sacrifice of praise:
With Psalms and Songs I will apply
to laud the Lord alwayes.

The Second Part.

9 Lord hear the voice of my request,
for which to thee I call:
Have mercy Lord on me oppress,
and send me help withall.
10 My heart doth knowledge unto thee
I sue to have thy grace:
Then seek my face (saith thou to me,
Lord I will seek thy face.

11 In wrath turn not thy face away,
nor suffer me to slide:
Thou art my help still to this day,
be still my God and guide.
12 My parents both their son forsook,
and cast me off at large:
And then the Lord himself yet took
of me the care and charge.

13 Teach me, O Lord, the way to thee,
and lead me on forth right:
For fear of such as watch for me
to trap me if they might.
14 Do not betake me to the will,
of them that be my foes:
For they surmise against me still,
false witness to depose.

15 My heart would faint but that in me
this hope is fixed fast:
The Lord Gods good grace shall I see
in life that aye shall last.
16 Trust still in God whose whole thou
his will abide thou must: (art,
And he shall ease and strength thy heart
if thou in him do trust.

PSALM xxviii. T.S.

THOU art (O Lord) my strength and the succour which I crave: (stay Neglect me not, lest I be like
to them that go to grave.

1 The voice of thy suppliant heare
that unto thee doth cry:
When I lift up my hands unto thy holy Ark most high.

2 Repute me not among the sort of wicked and pervert:
That speak right fair unto their friends
but think full ill in heart.

3 According to their handy-work,
as they deserve indeed:
And after their inventions
let them receive their meed.

4 For they regard nothing Gods work,
his law ne ver his lore:
Therefore will he them and their seed,
destroy for evermore.

5 To render thanks unto the Lord,
how great a cause have I,

My voice, my prayer, and my complaint,
that heard so willingly?

7 He is my shield and fortitude,
my buckler in distress:
My hope, my help, my hearts relief,
my song shall him confess.

8 He is our strength and our defence,
our enemies to resist:
The health and the salvation
of his elect by Christ.

9 Thy people and thine heritage
Lord blesse, guide and preserve:
Increase them Lord & rule their hearts,
that they may never swerve.

PSALM xxix. T.S.

GIVE to the Lord ye Potentates
ye Rulers of the world:
Give ye all praise, honour and strength
unto the living Lord.

1 Give glory to his holy Name,
and honour him alone:
Worship him in his Majesty,
within his holy throne.

2 His voice doth rule the waters all
even as himself doth please:
He doth prepare the thunder-claps,
and governs all the seas.

3 The voice of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent:
It is most mighty in effect,
and most magnificent.

4 The voice of God doth rend and break
the Cedar-trees so long:
The Cedar-trees of Lebanon,
which are most high and strong.

5 And makes them leap like as a Calf,
or else the Unicorn:
Nor only trees, but mountains great whereon the trees are born.

6 His voice divides the flames of fire,
and shakes the wilderness:
It makes the desert quake for fear,
that called is Cadeish.

7 It makes the Hinds for fear to calve,
and makes the coverts plain:
Then in his Temple every man
his glory doth proclaim.

8 The Lord was set above the floods,
ruling the raging sea:
So shall he reign as Lord and King,
for ever and for aye.

9 The Lord will give his people power
in virtue to increase:
The Lord will bless his chosen Rock
with everlasting peace.

PSALM xxx. T.S.

ALl laud and praise with heart and O Lord I give to thee: (voice, which didst not make my foes joyce
but hast exalted me.

1 O Lord my God to thee I cry'd
in all my pain and grief:

Thou

Thou gav'st an ear and didst provide
to ease me with relief.

3 Of thy good will thou hast call'd back
my soul from hell to save:

Thou didst revive when strength did lack
and keptst me from the grave.

4 Sing praise ye Saints that prove and see the goodness of the Lord:

In memory of his Majesty
rejoyce with one accord.

5 For why? his anger but a space
doth last, and slack again:

But in his favour and his grace
alwaies doth life remain.

Though gripes of grief & pangs full sore
shall lodge with us all night:

The Lord to joy shall us restore
before the day be light.

6 When I enjoy'd the world at will,
thus would I boast and say:

Tush, I am sure to feel none ill,
this wealth shall not decay.

7 For thou O Lord of thy good grace
hast sent me strength and aid:

But when thou turn'd'st away thy face,
my mind was sore dismayd.

8 Wherefore again yet did I cry
to thee O Lord of might:

My God with plaints I did apply,
and pray'd both day and night.

9 What gain is in my blood (said I)
if death destroy my daies?

Doth dust declare thy Majesty,
or yet thy truth doth praise?

10 Wherefore my God some pity take,
O Lord I thee desire:

Do not this simple soul forsake,
of help I thee require.

11 Then didst thou turn my grief & woe
into a cheerfull voice:

The mourning weed thou took'st me fro,
and mad'st me to rejoyce.

12 Wherefore my soul unceasingly
shall sing unto thy praise:

My Lord my God to thee will I give laud and thanks alwaies.

PSALM xxxj. I. H.

○ Lord I put my trust in thee,
let nothing work me shame:

As thou art just deliver me,
and set me quit from blame.

2 Hear me O God, and that anon,
to help me make good speed:

Be thou my rock and house of stone,
my fence in time of need.

3 For why? as stones thy strength is tri'd
thou art my fort and tower:

For thy Names sake be thou my guide,
and lead me in thy power.

4 Pluck thou my feet out of the snare,
which they for me have laid:

Thou art my strength, and all my care
is for thy might and aid.

5 Into thy hands Lord I commit
my spirit which is thy due:

For why thou hast redeemed it,
O Lord my God most true.

6 I hate such folk as will not part
from things to be abhor'd:

When they on trifles set their heart,
my trust is in the Lord.

7 For I will in thy mercy joy,
I see it doth excell:

Thou seest when ought would me annoy
and knowst my soul full well.

8 Thou hast not left me in their hand,
that would me overcharge:

But thou hast set me out of band,
to walk abroad at large.

The second Part.

9 Great grief O Lord doth me assail,
some pity on me take:

Mine eyes wax dim, my sight doth fail
my womb for woe doth ache.

10 My life is worn with grief and pain
my years in woe are past:

My strength is gone, and through disdain
my bones corrupt and waste.

11 Among my foes I am a scorn,
my friends are all dismayd:

My neighbours and my kinsmen born,
to see me are afraid.

12 As men once dead are out of mind,
so am I now forgot:

As smallest in me they find,
as in a broken pot.

13 I heard the brags of all the rout,
their threats my mind did fray:

How they conspir'd, and went about
to take my life away.

14 But Lord I trust in thee for aid,
nor to be over-trod:

For I confesse and still have said,
thou art my Lord and God.

15 The length of all my life and age
O Lord is in thy hand:

Defend me from the wrath and rage
of them that me withstand.

16 To me thy servant (Lord) express,
and shew thy joyfull face:

And save me Lord for thy goodness,
thy mercy and thy grace.

The third Part.

17 Lord let me not be put to blame,
for that on thee I call:

But let the wicked bear the shame,
and in their grave to fall.

18 O Lord make dumb their lips outright
which are addit'ed to lies:

And cruelly with pride and spight
against the just devise.

19 O how great good hast thou in store
laid up full safe for them,

That

That fear and trust in thee therefore,
before the sonnes of men! (guide Thy presence shall them fence and from all proud brags and wrongs:
Within thy place thou shalt them hide
from all the strife of tongues.

11 Thanks to the Lord that hath declar'd
on me his grace so farre:

Me to defend with watch and ward,
as in a town of warre.

12 Thus did I say both day and night,
when I was sore oppress'd:

Lo I was clean cast out of sight,
yet heardst thou my request.

13 Ye Saints love ye the Lord, I say,
the faithfull he doth guide:

And to the proud he doth repay
according to their pride.

14 Be strong and God will way your heart
be bold and have a lust:

For sure the Lord will take your part,
fish ye in him do trust.

PSALM xxxii. T.S.

THe man is blest whose wickedness
the Lord hath clean remitted:

And he whose sin and wickedness
is hid and also covered.

1 And blest is he to whom the Lord
impureth not his sin:

Which in his heart hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.

2 For whilst that I kept close my sin
in silence and constraint:

My bones did wear and waste away
with daily mone and plaine.

3 For night and day thy hand on me
so grievous was and smart,

That all my blood and humours moist
to driness did convert.

4 I did therefore confess my faults,
and all my sins discover,

Then thou, O Lord, didst me forgive,
and all my sins pass over.

5 The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seek thee in due time:

So that the floods of waters great
shall have no power on him.

6 When trouble and adversity
do compass me about:

Thou art my refuge and my joy,
and thou dost rid me out.

7 Come hither and I will thee teach
how thou shalt walk aright:

I will thee guide, as I myself
have learn'd by proof and sight.

8 Be not so rude and ignorant
as is the horse and mule:

Whose mouth without a rein or bit
from harm thou canst not rule.

9 The wicked man shall manifold sorrows and griefs sustain:

But unto him that trusts in God,
his goodness shall remain.

11 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
ye just lift up your voice:
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
be glad and eke rejoyce.

PSALM xxxiiij. J. H.

YE righteous in the Lord rejoyce,
it is a seemly sight,

That upright men with thankfull voice
should praise the Lord of might.

2 Praise ye the Lord with harp and song,
in Psalms and pleasant things:

With Lute, and Instrument among,
that soundeth with ten strings.

3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage give him praise:

4 For why his word is ever true,
his works and all his waies.

5 To judgment, equity and right,
he hath a great good will:

And with his gifts he doth delight
the earth throughout to fill.

6 For by the word of God alone
the heavens all were wrought:

Their hosts and powers every one
his breath to pass hath brought.

7 The waters great gathered hath he
on heaps within the shore:

And hid them in the depth to be,
as in a house of store.

8 All men on earth both least and most fear God and keep his Law:

Ye that inhabit in each coast,
dread him and stand in awe.

9 What he commanded wrought it was at once with present speed:

What he doth will is brought to pass
with full effect indeed.

10 The counsels of the nations rude
the Lord doth bring to nought:

He doth defeat the multitude of their device and thought.

11 But his decrees continue still,
they never slack nor swage:

The motions of his mind and will take place in every age.

The second Part.

12 And blest are they to whom the Lord
as God and guide is known:

Whom he doth choise of meer accord,
to take them as his own.

13 The Lord from heaven cast his sight,
on men mortall by birth:

14 Considering from his seat of might
the dwellers on the earth.

15 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath wrought
mans heart, and doth it frame:

For he alone doth know the thoughts
and working of the same.

16 A King that trusteth in his host,
shall nought prevail at length:

The man that of his might doth boast,
shall fall for all his strength.

17 The troops of horsemen eke shall fall,
their sturdy steeds shall scive :
The strength of horse shall not prevaile,
the rider to preserve.

18 But lo the eyes of God intend and watch to aid the just :
Wish such as fear him to offend,
and on his goodness trust.

19 That he of death and great distresse
may set their souls from dread :
And if that dearth their land oppresse,
in hunger them to feed.

20 Wherefore our soul doth whole depend on God our strength and stay,
He is our shield us to defend,
and drive all darts away.

21 Our soul in God hath joy and game,
rejoycing in his might :
For why ? in his most holy Name
we hope and much delight.

22 Therefore let thy goodness, O Lord
still present with us be :
As we alwayes with one accord,
do only trust in thee.

PSALM xxxiv. T. S.

I Will give laud and honour both
unto the Lord alwayes :
And eke my mouth for evermore
shall speak unto his praise.

2 I do delight to laud the Lord
in soul and eke in voice :
That humble men and mortifi'd
may hear and so rejoyce.

3 Therefore see that ye magnifie
with me the living Lord :
And let us now exalt his Name
together with one accord.

4 For I my self besought the Lord,
he answered me again :
And me deliver'd incontrent,
from all my fear and pain.

5 Who so they be that him behold,
shall see his light most clear,
Their countenance shall not be dasht,
they need it not to fear.

6 This silly wretch for some relief,
unto the Lord did call :
Who did him hear without delay,
and rid him out of thrall.

7 The Angel of the Lord doth pitch
his tents in every place :
To save all such as fear the Lord,
that nothing them deface.

8 Taste and consider well therefore,
that God is good and just :
O happy man that maketh him
his only stay and trust.

9 Fear ye the Lord ye holy ones,
above all earthly thing :
For they that fear the living Lord,
are sure to lack nothing.

10 The Lions shall be hunger-bit,
and pin'd with famine much :

But as for them that fear the Lord,
no lack shall be to such.

The second Part.

11 Come near therefore my children deare
and to my words give ear :

I shall ye teach the perfect way,
how ye the Lord should fear.

12 Who is the man that would live long,
and lead a blessed life ?

13 See thou refrain thy tongue and lips
from all deceit and strife.

14 Turn back thy face from doing ill,
and do the godly deed :

Inquire for peace and righteousness,
and follow it with speed.

15 For why ? the eyes of God above,
upon the just are bent :

His ears likewise do hear the plaint
of the poor innocent.

16 But he doth frown and bend his brow
upon the wicked train :

And cuts away the memory,
that should of them remain.

17 But when the just do call and cry,
the Lord doth hear them so :

That out of pain and misery
forthwith he lets them go.

18 The Lord is kind and straight as hand
to such as be contrite :

He saves also the sorrowfull,
the poor and meek in spirit.

19 Full many be the miseries
that righteous men do suffer :

But out of all adversities
the Lord doth them deliver.

20 The Lord doth so preserve and keep their very bones alway :

That not so much as one of them
doth perish or decay.

21 The sin shall slay the wicked man
which he himself hath wrought :

And such as hate the righteous man,
shall soon be brought to nought.

22 But they that fear the living Lord,
the Lord doth save them sound :

And who that put their trust in him,
nothing shall them confound.

PSALM xxxv. T. S.

I Ord plead my cause against my foe
confound their force and might :

Fight on my part against all those
that seek with me to fight

1 Lay hand upon the spear and shield,
thy self in armour dress :

Stand up for me and fight the field,
to help me from distress.

2 Gird on thy sword, and stop the way
mine enemies to withstand :

That thou unto my soul maist say,
lo I thy help at hand.

4 Confound them with rebuke & blame,
that seek my soul to spill :

Let them turn back and see with shame
that think to work me ill.

Let them disperse and see abroad,
as wind doth drive the dust :

And that the Angel of our God,
their might away may thrust.

Let all their wayes be void of light,
and slippery like to fall :

And send rhine Angel with thy might,
to persecute them all.

For why? without my fault they have
in secret set their gin :

And for no cause have dig'd a cave
to take my soul therein.

When they think least and have no care
O Lord destroy them all :

Let them betray in their own snare,
and in their mischief fall.

And let my soul in heart and voice
in God have joy and wealth :

That in the Lord I may rejoyce,
and in his saving health.

And then my bones shall speak & say,
my parts shall all agree :

O Lord though they do seem full gay,
what one is like to thee?

The second Part.

Thou dost defend the weak from them
that are both stout and strong :

And rid the poor from wicked men,
that spoil and do them wrong.

My cruel foes against me rise,
to witness things untrue :

And to accuse me they devise
of things I never knew.

Where I to them did owe good will
they quit me with disdain :

That they should pay my good with ill,
my soul doth sore complain.

When they were sick I mourn'd there-
and clad my self in sack : (sore,

With fasting I did faint full sore,
to pray I was not slack.

As they had been my brethren dear
I did myself behave :

As one that maketh wofull chear
about his mothers grave.

But they at my disease did joy,
and gather on a rout :

Yea abject slaves at me did toy,
with mocks and checks full stout.

The belly-gods and flatterers traine,
that all good things deride :

At me do grin with great disdain,
and pluck their mouths aside.

Lord why wilt thou so long forbear,
why dost thou stay and pause?

O rid my soul, mine only dear,
our of these Lions claws.

And then will I give thanks to thee,
before the Church alwayes :

And where most of the people be,

there will I shew thy praise.

Let not my foes prevail on me,
which hate me for no fault :
Nor let them wink or turn their eyes,
that causeless me assault.

The third Part.

Of peace no word they think or say,
their talk is all untrue :

They still consult, and would betray
all those that peace ensue.

With open mouth they run at me,
they gape, they laugh, they leer :

Well, well, say they, our eye doth see
the thing that we desire.

But Lord thou see'st what wayes they cease not my grief to mend : (take

Be not far off, nor me forsake,
as men that fail their friend.

Awake, arise, and stir abroad,
defend me in my right :

Revenge my cause, my Lord, my God,
and aid me with thy might.

According to thy righteousness,
my Lord God set me free :

And let them not their pride express,
nor triumph over me.

Let not their hearts rejoyce and cry
there, there, all goeth trim :

Nor give them cause to say on high
we have our will on him.

Confound them with rebuke & shame
That joy when I do mourn :

And pay them home with spite & blame
that brag at me with scorn.

Let them be glad and eke rejoyce,
which love mine upright way.

And they all times with heart and voice
shall praise the Lord, and say,

Great is the Lord and doth excell,
for why he doth delight

To see his servants prosper well
that is his pleasant sight.

Wherefore my tongue I will apply,
thy righteousness to praise :

Unto my Lord my God will I sing laud and praise alwayes.

PSALM xxxvj. J.H.

The wicked with his works unjust
doth thus perswade his heart :

That of the Lord he hath no trust
his fear is set apart.

Yet doth he joy in his estate,
to walk as he began :

So long till he deserve the hate
of God and eke of man.

His words are wicked, vile & naught
his tongue no truth doth tell

Yet at no hand will he be caught
which way he may do well.

When he should sleep, then doth he his mischiefs to fulfill : (muse

No wicked wayes doth he refuse,
nor nathing that is ill.

- 5 But Lord thy goodneſſe doth aſcend
above the heavens high,
So doth thy truth it ſelf extend unto the cloudy ſkie.
6 Much more than hills ſo high and ſteep,
thy juſtice is expreſt :
Thy judgment's like to ſeaſ moſt deep,
thou ſav'ſt both man and beaſt.
- 7 Thy mercy is above all things,
O God it doth excell : -
In truſt whereof as in thy wings,
the ſonnes of men ſhall dwell.
- 8 Within thy houſe they ſhall be fed,
with plenty at their will :
Of all delights they ſhall be ſped,
and take thereof their fill.
- 9 For why? the well of life ſo pure
doth ever flow from thee :
And in thy light we are full ſure
the laſting light to ſee.
- 10 From ſuch as thee deſire to know,
let not thy grace depart :
Thy righteouſneſſe declare and ſhew
to men of upright heart.
- 11 Let not the proud on me prevail,
O Lord of thy good grace :
Nor let the wicked me aſſail,
to throw me out of place.
- 12 But they in their device ſhall fall,
that wicked works maintain :
They ſhall be overthrowen withall,
and never riſe again.

PſALM xxxvij. W. W.

- CRudge not to ſee the wicked men,
in weak toſourth ſtill :
Nor yet envy ſuch as to ill
have bent and ſet their will.
- 2 For as green graſſe and flouriſhing are cut and wither away : (herbs
ſo ſhall their great proſperity
ſoon paſſe, fade and decay.
- 3 Truſt thou therefore in God alone,
to do well give thy mind :
ſo ſhalt thou have the land as thine,
and there ſure food ſhall find.
- In God ſet all thy heart's delight,
and look what thou wouldſt have,
Or elſe canſt wiſh in all the world,
thou needſt it not to crave.
- 5 Caſt both thy ſelf and thine affairs,
on God with perfect truſt :
And thou ſhalt ſee with patience,
the effect both ſure and juſt.
- 6 Thy perfect life and godly name,
he will clear as the light :
ſo that the Sun even at noon daies,
ſhall nor ſhine half ſo bright.
- 7 Be ſtill therefore and ſtedfaſtly
on God ſee thou wait then :
Not thinking for the proſperous ſtate
of lewd and wicked men.

- 8 Shake off deſpight, envy and hate,
at leaſt in any wiſe :
Their wicked ſteps avoid and flee
and follow not their guiſe.

- 9 For every wicked man will God
deſtroy both more and leſſe :
But ſuch as truſt in him are ſure
the land for ever poſſeſſe.
- 10 Watch but a while and thou ſhalt ſee
no more the wicked train :
No nor ſo much as houſe or place
where once he did remain.

The Second Part.

- 11 But mercifull and humble men
enjoy ſhall ſea and land :
In reſt and peace they ſhall rejoyce,
for nought ſhall them withſtand.
- 12 The lewd men and malicious,
againſt the juſt conſpire :
They gnath their teeth at him as men,
which do his bane deſire.
- 13 But while ſe lewd men thus do think
the Lord laughs them to ſcorn :
For why, he ſees the term approach,
when they ſhall ſigh and mourn.
- 14 The wicked have their ſwords out,
their bowe ke have they bent : (drawn
To overthrow and kill the poor,
as they the right way went.
- 15 But the ſame ſword ſhall pierce them
which was to kill the juſt : (heart Likewiſe the bow ſhall break to ſhivers wherein they put their truſt.
- 16 Doubtleſſe the juſt mans poore eſtate
is better a great deal more :
Than all the lewd and wicked mens rich pomp and heaped ſtore.
- 17 For be their power never ſo ſtrong,
God will it overthrow :
Where contray he doth preſerve
the humble men and low.
- 18 He ſees by his great providence,
the good mens trade and way :
And will give them inheritance,
which never ſhall decay.
- 19 They ſhall not be diſcouraged,
when ſome are hard beſet :
When other ſhall be hunger bit,
they ſhall be clad and fed.
- 20 For whoſoever wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord :
Shall quail, yea melt even as lambs greaſe
or ſmoke that flies abroad.

The third Part.

- 21 Behold the wicked borrows much,
and never paies again :
Whereas the juſt by liberal gifts,
makes many glad and faine.
- 22 For they whom God doth bleſſe, ſhall
the land for heritage. (here
And they whom he doth curſe likewiſe
ſhall periſh in his rage.

33 The Lord the iust mans waies doth and gives him good success: (guide,
To every thing he takes in hand,
he sendeth good address.

34 Though that he fall, yet is he sure
not utterly to quail,
Because the Lord puts out his hand
at need and doth not fail.

35 I have been young and now am old,
yet did I never see
The iust man left, nor yet his seed
to beg for misery.

36 But gives alway most liberally,
and lends whereas is need:
His children and posterity
receive of God their meed.

37 Flee vice therefore and wickedness,
and vertue do embrace:
So shall God grant thee long to have
on earth a dwelling place.

38 For God so loveth equiry,
and shews to his such grace:
That he preserveth them alway,
but stroyes the wicked race.

39 Whereas the good and godly men
inherit shall the land:
Having as Lords all things therein
in their own power and hand.

40 The iust mans mounth shall ever speak
of matters wise and hie:
His tongue doth talk to edifie,
with truth and equity.

41 For in his heart the Law of God
his Lord doth still abide:
So that where ever he goes or walks,
his foot can never slide.

42 The wicked like a ravening Wolf,
the iust man doth beset:
By all means seeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth Part.

43 Though he should fall into his hands
yet God would succour send:
Though men against him sentence give,
God would him yet defend.

44 Wait thou on God and keep his way,
he shall preserve thee then
The earth to rule, and thou shalt see dettroid these wicked men.

45 The wicked have I seen most strong,
and plac'd in high degree:
Flourishing in all wealth and store,
as doth the Lawrell-tree.

46 But suddainly he past away,
and so he was quite gone:
Then I him sought, but could not find
the place where dwelt such one.

47 Mark and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increase:
For the iust man shall have at length
great joy with rest and peace.

48 As for transgressours, wo to them,
dettroid they shall all be:

God will cut off their budding race,
and rich posterity.

39 But the salvation of the iust
doth come from God above:
Who in their trouble sends them aid
of his meer grace and love.

40 God doth them help, save and deliver
from lewd men and unjust:
And still will save them whilst that they
in him do put their trust.

PSALM xxxviii. I. H.

Put me not to rebuke O Lord,
in thy provoked ire:
Ne in thy heavy wrath O Lord,
correct me I desire.

2 Thine arrows do stick fast in me
thy hand doth press me sore:
And in my flesh no health at all appeareth any more.

3 And all this is by reason of the wrath that I am in:
Nor any rest is in my bones,
by reason of my sinne.

4 For lo my wicked doings (Lord)
above my head are gone:
A greater load than I can bear,
they lie me sore upon.

5 My wounds stink and are festered so,
as loathsome is to see:
Which all through mine own foolishness
berideth unto me.

6 And I in carefull wise am brought
in trouble and distress:
That I go waiting all the day
in dolefull heaviness.

7 My loynes are fill'd with sore disease,
my flesh hath no whole part:
8 I feeble am and broken sore,
I rore for grief of heart.

9 Thou know'st (Lord) my desire, my are open in thy sight. (groans) 10 My heart doth pant, my strength doth mine eyes have lost their light. (sail).

11 My lovers and my wonted friends
stand looking on my wo:
And eke my kinsmen farre away
are me departed fro.

12 They that did seek my life, laid snares
and they that sought the way To do me hurt, spake lies and thought on mischief all the day.

The second Part.

13 But as a deaf man I became,
that cannot hear at all:

14 And as one dumb, that opens not his mouth to speak withall.

15 For all my confidence O Lord
is wholly set on thee:

O Lord, thou Lord that art my God,
thou shalt give ear to me.

16 This did I crave, that they my foes
triumph not over me:

For when my soul did slip, then they did joy my fall to see:

17 And truly I poor wretch am set,
in place, a wofull wight:
And eke my grievous heaviness
is ever in my sight.

18 For while that I my wickedness
in humble wise confess:

And while I for my sinfull deeds,
my sorrows do express:

19 My foes do still remain alive,
and mighty are also,
And they that hate me wrongfully,
in number hugely grow.

20 They stand against me, that my good
with evil do repay:

Because that good and honest things
I do ensue alway.

21 Forsake me not, O Lord my God,
be thou not far away:

22 Haste me to help my Lord, my God
my safety and my stay.

PSALM xxxix. J.M.

I Said I will look to my wayes,
for fear I should go wrong:
I will take heed all times that I offend not with my tongue.

2 As with a bit I will keep fast
my mouth with force and might:
Not once to whisper all the while
the wicked are in sight.

3 I held my tongue and spake no word,
but kept me close and still:
Yea from good talk I did refrain,
but sore against my will.

4 My heart waxt hot within my brest,
with musing thought and doubt:
Which did increase and stir the fire,
at last these words burst out.

5 Lord number out my life and dayes
which yet I have not past
So that I may be certifi'd,
how long my life shall last.

6 Lord thou hast pointed out my life,
in length much like a span:
Mine age is nothing unto thee,
so vain is every man.

7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth
in vain himself annoy
In getting goods, and cannot tell,
who shall the same enjoy.

8 Now Lord since things this wise do what help do I desire? (I praye)
Of truth my help doth hang on thee,
I nothing else require.

The second Part,

9 From all the sins that I have done,
Lord quit me out of hand:
And make me not a scorn to fools
that nothing understand.

10 I was as dumb, and to complain
no trouble might me move:

Because I knew it was thy work,
my patience for to prove.

11 Lord take from me thy scourge and I can them not withstand: (plague,
I faint and pine away for fear
of thy most heavy hand.

12 When thou for sin dost man rebuke,
he waxeth woe and wan:
As doth a cloath that moths have fret,
so vain a thing is man.

13 Lord hear my suit, & give good heed
regard my tears that fall:
I sojourn like a stranger here,
as did my fathers all.

14 O spare a little, give me space
my strength for to restore:
Before I go away from hence,
and shall be seen no more.

PSALM xl. J.H.

I Waited long and sought the Lord,
and patiently I did bear:
At length to me he did accord,
my voice and cry to hear.

2 He pluckt me from the lake so deep,
out of the mire and clay:
And on a rock he set my feet,
and he did guide my way.

3 To me he taught a Psalm of praise,
which I must shew abroad:
And sing new songs of thanks alwayes
unto the Lord our God.

4 When all the folk these things shall see
as people much afraid:
Then they unto the Lord will see,
and trust upon his aid.

5 O blest is he whose hope and heart
doth in the Lord remain:
That with the proud doth take no part
nor such as he and gain.

6 For Lord my God thy wondrous deed
in greatness far do pass:
Thy favour towards us exceeds all things that ever was.

7 When I intend and do devise thy works abroad to know:
To such a reckoning they do rise,
thereof no end I know.

8 Burnt offerings thou delights not in
I know thy whole desire
With sacrifice to purge his sin,
thou dost no man require.

9 Meat-offerings and sacrifice
thou wouldst not have at all:
But thou (O Lord) hast open made mine eares to heare wicall.

10 But then said I, behold and look,
I come a mean to be:
For in the volume of thy book
this is it said of me.

11 That I (O Lord) should do thy mind
which thing doth like me well:

For

For in my heart thy law I find
fast placed there to dwell.
12 Thy justice and thy righteousness
in great resorts I tell :
Behold my tongue no time dorth cease
O Lord thou knowst full well.
The second Part.
13 I have not hid within my breast,
thy goodness as by stealth
But I declare and have exprest
thy truth and saving health.
14 I kept not close thy loving mind,
that no man should it know :
The trust that in thy truth I find,
to all the Church I show.
15 Thy tender mercy (Lord) from me,
withdraw thou not away,
But let thy love and verity
preserve me still for ay.
16 For I with mischiefs many a one am sore beset about :
My sins increase, and so come on,
I cannot scape them out.
17 For why : in number they exceed the hairs upon my head :
My heart dorth faile for very dread,
that I am almost dead.
18 With speed send help and set me free
O Lord I thee require :
Make haste with aid to succour me,
O Lord at my desire 19 Let them sustain rebuke and shame,
that seek my soul to spill :
Drive back my foes, and them defame,
that wish and would me ill.
20 For their ill feats do them disery,
that would deface my name :
Alwaies at me they rail and cry,
sie on him, sie for shame
21 Let them in thee have joy and wealth
that seek to thee alwaies :
That those that love thy saving health
may say : to God be praise.
22 But as for me I am but poor,
opprest and brought full low :
Yet thou O Lord, wilt me restore
to health, full well I know.
23 For why thou art my hope and trust,
my refuge, help and stay Wherefore my God, as thou art just with me no time delay.

PSALM xlii. T. S.

THe man is blest that carefull is
the needy to consider :
For in the season perillous
the Lord will him deliver.
The Lord will make him safe & sound,
and happy in the land :
And he will not deliver him
into his enemies hand.
2 And in his bed when he lies sick,
the Lord will him restore :
And thou O Lord, wilt him to health
his sickness and his sore,

4 Then in my sickness thus said I,
have mercy Lord on me,
And heal my soul which is full woe,
that I offended thee.
5 Mine enemies with'd me ill in heart
and thus of me did say :
When shall he die, that all his name
may vanish quite away ?
6 And when they come to visit me,
they ask if I do well :
But in their hearts mischief they hatch
and to their mates it tell.
7 They bite their lips and whisper so,
as though they would me harm,
And cast their fetters how to trap
me with some deadly harm.
8 Some grievous taunt brought him to this sickness, say they plain :
He is so low, that without doubt rise can he not again.
9 The man also that I did trust,
with me did use deceit :
Who at my table ate my bread,
the same for me said wait.
10 Have mercy, Lord, on me therefore and let me be preserv'd
That I may render unto them
the things they have deserv'd.
11 By this I know assuredly
to be belov'd of thee,
When that mine enemies have no cause
to triumph over me.
12 But in my right thou hast me kept,
and maintained alway :
And in thy presence place assign'd
where I shall dwell for ay.
13 The Lord the God of Israel
be praised evermore,
Even so be it (Lord) will I say,
even so be it therefore

PSALM xlii. J. H.

Like as the hart dorth breath & bow
the well-springs to obtain,
So dorth my soul desire alway,
with thee Lord to remain.
My soul dorth thirst, & would draw near the living God of might :
O when shall I come and appear
in presence of his sight ?
3 The rews all times are my repest,
which from mine eyes do slide
When wicked men cry out so fast,
where now is God thy guide ?
4 Alas what grief is this to think what freedom once I had ?
Therefore my soul, as arrows brink,
most heavy is and sad.
When I did march in good array,
furnished with my train,
Unto the temple was our way,
with songs and beanes most gain.

5 My ſoul why art thou ſad alwaies,
and ſreſt thus in my breaſt?
Truſt ſtill in God, for him to praiſe
I hold it ever beſt.

By him I have ſuccour at need,
againſt all pain and grief:
He is my God which with all ſpeed
will haſte to ſend relief.

6 And thus my ſoul within me Lord,
doth ſaine to thinke upon
The land of Jordan, and record
the little hill Hermon.

The ſecond Parr.

7 One grief another in doth call
as clouds burit out their voice:
The floods of evil ſhar do fall,
run over me with noiſe.

8 Yet I by day felt his goodneſſe
and help at all ſeaſes:
Likewiſe by night I did not ceaſe
the living God to praiſe.

9 I am perſwaded thus to ſay
to him with pure pretence:
O Lord thou art my guide and ſtay,
my rock and ſure defence.
Why do I then in peniteneſſe,
hanging the head thus walk?
While that mine enemies me oppreſſe,
and vex me with their talk.

10 For why? they pierce my inward parts
with pangs to be abhor'd:
When they cry our with ſtubborn hearts
where is thy God thy Lord?

11 So ſoon why doſt thou faint and quail,
my ſoul with pain oppreſſed?
With thoughts why doſt thy ſelf aſſail,
ſo ſore within my breaſt?

12 Truſt in the Lord thy God alwaies,
and thou the time ſhalt ſee
To give him thanks with laud and praiſe
for health reſtor'd to thee.

PSALM xliij. T. S.

Judge and revenge my cauſe O Lord,
from them that evil be:
From wicked and deceitfull men,
O Lord deliver me.

1 For of my ſtrength thou art the God,
why purſt thou me thee fro?
And why walk I ſo heavily oppreſſed with my foe?

2 Send out thy light and eke thy truth,
and lead me with thy grace:
Which may conduſt me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling place.

3 Then ſhall I to the altar go,
of God my joy and cheer:
And on my harp give thanks to thee,
O God my God moſt dear.

4 Why art thou then ſo ſad my ſoul,
and ſreſt thus in my breaſt?
Still truſt in God, for him to praiſe
I hold it alwaies beſt.

5 By him I have deliverance

againſt all pain and grief:
He is my God which doth alwaies
at need ſend me relief.

PSALM xlii. T. S.

O ur ears have heard our fathers tell,
and reverently record
The wondrous works, that thou haſt done
in older time O Lord.

2 How thou didſt caſt the Gentiles out,
and ſtroidſt them with ſtrong hands:
Planing our fathers in their place,
and gav'ſt to them their land.

3 They conquered not by ſword nor the land of thy beſeit: (ſtrength
But by thy hand, thy arm, and grace,
becauſe thou lov'dſt them beſt.

4 Thou art my King, O God, that help
Jacob in ſundry wiſe:

5 Led with thy power, we threw down
as did againſt us riſe. (ſuch

6 I truſted not in bow nor ſword,
they could not ſave me ſound:

7 Thou keptſt us from our enemies rage,
thou didſt our foes confound.

8 And ſtill we boaſt of thee our God,
and praiſe thy holy Name:

9 Yet now thou go'ſt not with our hoſt
but leaveſt us to ſhame.

10 Thou mad'ſt us flee before our foes
and ſo were over-cro'd:
Our enemies rob'd and ſpoil'd our goods
when we were ſperſt abroad.

11 Thou haſt us given to our foes,
as ſheep for to be ſlain:
Amongſt the hearthen every where
ſcattered we do remain.

12 Thy people thou haſt ſold like ſlaves
and as a thing of nought:
For profit none thou haſt thereby,
no gain at all was ſought.

13 And to our neighbours thou haſt mad'
of us a laughing ſtock:
And thoſe that round about us dwell,
at us do grin and mock.

The ſecond Parr.

14 Thus we ſerve for none other uſe
but for a common talk:
They mock, they ſcorn, they nod their where ere they go or walk. (head

15 I am ainam'd continually
to hear theſe wicked men:
Yea ſo I bluſh that all my face
with red is covered then.

16 For why? we hear ſuch ſlanderous
ſuch falſe reports and lies: (word
That death it is to ſee their wrongs,
their threatnings and their cries.

17 For all this we forgot not thee,
nor yet thy covenant brake:

18 We turn not back our hearts from nor yet thy pathes forſake. (reſt

10 Yet thou hast trod us down to dust,
where dens of dragons be:
And covered us with shade of death,
and great adversity.
11 If we had our Gods Name forgot,
and help of Idols sought, 12 Would not God then have trid this out?
for he doth know our thought.
13 Nay, nay, for thy Names sake, O Lord, alwaies are we slain thus:
14 As sheep unto the shambles sent,
right so they deal with us.
15 Up Lord, why sleepest thou? awake,
and leave us not for all:
16 Why hidest thou thy countenance,
and dost forget our thrall.
17 For down to dust our soul is brought,
and we now at last cast:
Our belly, like as it were gl'd,
unto the ground cleaves fast.
18 Rise up therefore for our defence,
and help us (Lord) at need:
We thee beseech for thy goodnesse,
to rescue us with speed.

PSALM xlv I.H.

MY heart doth take in hand
some godly song to sing:
The praise that I shall shew therein,
pertaineth to the King.
1 My tongue shall be as quick
his honour to indite,
as is the pen of any scribe,
that useth fast to write.

2 O fairest of all men,
thy speech is pleasant, pure:
For God hath blessed thee with gifts
for ever to endure.

3 About thee gird thy sword,
O Prince of might elect:
With honour, glory, and renown
thy person pure is deckt.

4 Go forth with godly speed,
with meeknesse, truth and right:
And thy right hand shall thee intrude
in works of dreadful might.

5 Thine arrows sharp, and keen,
their hearts so sore shall sting:
That folk shall fall and kneel to thee,
yea all thy foes, O King.

6 Thy royal seat, O Lord,
for ever shall remain:
Because the Scepter of thy Realm
doth righteousness maintain.

7 Because thou lov'st the right,
and dost the ill detest:
God even thy God hath noited thee
with joy above the rest.

8 With myrrhe and savours sweet,
thy cloaches are all bespread:
When thou dost from thy palace passe,
therein to make thee glad.
9 Kings daughters do attend
in rite and rich array:

At thy right hand the Queen doth stand
in gold and garments gay.

The Second Part.

10 O daughter take good heed,
incline and give good ear:
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and fathers house most dear.

11 Then shall the King desire
thy beauty fair and trim:
For why? he is the Lord, thy God,
and thou must worship him.

12 The daughters then of Tyre,
with gifts full rich to see:
And all the wealthy of the land
shall make their suit to thee.

13 The daughter of the King
is glorious to behold:
Within her closet she doth sit
all deckt in beaten gold.

14 In robes well wrought with needle;
and many a pleasant thing:
With Virgins faire on her to wait,
she cometh to the King.

15 Thus are they brought with joy,
and mirth on every side,
Into the palace of the King,
and there they do abide.

16 Instead of parents left,
(O Queen the case so stands):
Thou shalt have sonnes whom thou must
as Princes in all lands. (It.)

17 Wherefore thy holy Name
all ages shall record:
The people shall give thanks to thee,
for evermore, O Lord.

PSALM xlvj. J.H.

THE Lord is our defence and aid,
the strength whereby we stand:
When we with wo are much dismayd,
he is our help at hand. (It.)

1 Though the earth remove we will not though hills so high and steep
Be thrust and hurled here and there,
within the sea so deep.

2 No though the waves do rage so sore,
that all the banks it spills:
And though it overflow the shore,
and bear down mighty hills.

3 For one fair flood doth send abroad
his pleasant fireames apace:
To fresh the City of our God,
and wash his holy place.

4 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
she can no whit decay:
All things against her that rebel,
the Lord will cruelly slay.

5 The heathen folk, the kingdoms fear,
the people make a noise:
The earth doth melt and not appear,
when God puts forth his voice.

6 The Lord of hosts doth take our part,
to us he hath an eye:

Our hope of health with all our heart,
on Jacobs God doth lie.
Come hear & see with mind & thought
the working of our God :
What wonders he himself hath wrought
in all the world abroad.

By him all wars are hault and gone,
which countries did conspire :
Their bows he brake & spears each one;
their chariots burnt with fire.
Leave off therefore (saith he) & know
I am a God most stout :
Amongst the heathen high and low,
and all the earth throughout.

The Lord of hosts doth us defend,
he is our strength and power :
On Jacobs God we do depend,
and on his might and power.

PSALM xlvii. I.H.

Ye people all with one accord,
clap hands and eke rejoyce ;
Be glad and sing unto the Lord,
with sweet and pleasant voice.
For high the Lord and dreadful is
with wonders manifold :
A mighty King he is cruelly,
in all the earth extold.

The people shall he make to be unto our bondage thrall :

And underneath our feet he shall
the nations make to fall :

For us the heritage he chose,
which we possess alone :

The flourishing worship of Jacobs,
his well-beloved one.

Our God ascended up on high,
with joy and pleasant noise :

The Lord goes up above the skie,
with trumpets royal voice.

Sing praises to our God, sing praise,
sing praises to our King :

For God is King of all the earth,
all skillful praises sing.

God on the heathen reigns and sits
upon his holy throne :

The Princes of the people have them joyned every one

To Abrahams people, for our God,
which is exalted high.

As with a buckler doth defend the earth continually.

PSALM xlviii. I.H.

Great is the Lord, & with great praise
to be advanced still :

Within the City of our God,
upon his holy hill.

Mount Sion is a pleasant place,
it gladdeth all the land :

The City of the mighty King
on her northside doth stand.

Within the palaces thereof;
God is a refuge known :

For so the Kings are gathered, and together they are gone.

But when they did behold it so,
they wondered and they were astonied much, and suddenly
were driven back with fear.

Great terror there on them did fall,
for very wo they cry,
As doth a woman when she shall go travel by and by.

As thou with Eastern wind the ships
upon the sea dost break :
So they were stroid, and even as
we heard our fathers speak ;

So in the City of the Lord
we saw as it was told :

Yea in the City, which our God
for ever will uphold.

O Lord, we wait and do attend
on thy good help and grace :
For which we do all times attend
within thy holy place.

O Lord, according to thy Name
for ever is thy praise :

And thy right hand, O Lord, is full of righteousness alwaies.

Let for thy judgements, Sion Mount fulfilled be with joys :

And eke of Juda grant, O Lord,
the daughters to rejoyce.

Go walk about all Sion hill,
yea round about her go :

And tell the towers that thereupon
are builded on a row.

And mark ye well her bulwarks all,
behold her towers there :

That ye may tell thereof to them
that after shall be here.

For this God is our God, our God
for evermore is he :

Yea and unto the death also our guider shall he be.

PSALM xlix. I.H.

All people hearken and give ear
to that that I shall tell :

Both high and low, both rich and poor
that in the world do dwell.

For why? my mouth shall make disclosure
of many things right wise :

In understanding shall my heart
his study exercise.

I will incline mine ears to know
the parable so dark :

And open all my doubtful speech
in meeter on my harp.

Why should I fear affliction,
or any careful toil :

Or else my foes which at my heels
are prest my life to spoil?

For as for such as riches have,
wherewith their trust is moft,

And they which of their treasures great,
themselves do brag and boast:
There is not one of them that can
his brothers death redeem,
or that can give a price to God,
sufficient for him.

It is too great a price to pay,
none can thereto attain:
or that he might his life prolong,
or not in grave remaine.

They see wise men as well as fools
subject unto deaths bands:
And being dead, strangers possesse
their goods, their rents, their lands.

Their care is to build houses fair,
and so determine sure,
To make their name right great on earth
for ever to endure.

Yet shall no man alwaies enjoy
high honour, wealth, and rest:
But shall at length taste of deaths cup
as well as the brute beast.

The second part.

And though they try their foolish
to be most lewd and vain: (thoughts
Their children yet approve their talk,
and in like sin remaine.

As sheep into the fold are brought,
so shall they into grave:
Death shall them ear, and in that day
the just shall Lordship have.

Their image and their royal port
shall fade and quite decay:
Whenas from house to pit they passe,
with wo and weale away.

But God will surely preserve me
from death and endlesse pain:
Because he will of his good grace,
my soul receive again.

If any man wax wondrous rich,
fear not I say therefore:

Although the glory of his house
increaseth more and more.
For when he dies, of all these things
nothing shall he receive:

His glory will not follow him,
his pomp will take her leave.

Yet in this life he takes himself
the happiest under Sun:

And others likewise flatter him,
saying all is well done.
And presuppose he live as long
as did his fathers old:

Yet must he needs at length give place,
and be brought to deaths fold.

Thus man to honour God brought,
yet doth he not consider:
As like brute beasts, so doth he live,
which turn to dust and powder.

PSALM L.V.V.

The mighty God,
th' Eternal hath thus spoke;

And all the world
he will call and provoke:
Even from the East,
and so forth to the West:
From towards Sion,
which place he liketh best,
God will appear
in beauty most excellent
Our God will come
before that long time be spent,

Devouring fire
shall go before his face,
A great tempest
shall round about him trace,

Then shall he call
the earth and heavens bright
To judge his folk
with equity and right.

Saying, go to,
and now my Saints assemble,
My pact they keep,
their gifts do not dissemble,

The heavens shall declare his righteousness,
For God is judge
of all things more and lesse.

Hear my people,
for I will now reveal:
Lift Israel,

I will thee nought conceal:
Thy God, thy God
am I, and will not blame thee
For giving not
all manner offerings to me.

I have no need to take of thee at all,
Goats of thy fold,
or Calf our of thy stall.

For all the beasts
are mine within the woods:
On thousand hills
cattel are mine own goods.

I know for mine
all birds that are on mountains:
All beasts are mine,
which haunt the fields and fountains.

Hungry if I were,
I would not thee it sell:
For all is mine
that in the world doth dwell.

But I the flesh
of great Bulls or Bullocks?
Or drink the blood
of Goats or of the Rocks?

Offer to God
praise and hearty thanksgiving,
And pay thy vows
unto God ever-living.

Call upon me,
when troubled thou shalt be,
Then will I help,
and thou shalt honour me.

To the wicked,
thus saith th' Eternal God.

Why dost thou preach
my laws and hefts abroad, 17 Seeing thou hast
them with thy mouth abused,
And hast to be
by discipline reformed?

My words I say,
— thou dost reject and hate.
18 If that thou see a thief, as with thy mate
Thou hast it with him,
and so your prey do seek:
And art all one
with bawds and ruffins eke.

19 Thou gavest thy self
to backbite and to slander:
And how thy tongue
deceives, it is a wonder.

20 Thou sittest musing,
thy brother how to blame:
And how to put
thy mothers son to shame.

21 These things thou didst,
and whilst I held my tongue,
Thou didst me judge,
because I staid so long,
Like to thy self:
yet though I keep long silence,
Once shalt thou feel
of thy wrongs just recompence.

22 Consider this,
ye that forget the Lord,
And fear not when he threatneth with his word
Left without help
I spoile you as a prey.
23 But he that thanks
offereth, praiseth me aye,
saith the Lord God,
and he that walketh this trace,
I will him teach
Gods saving health to embrace.

Another of the same by J.H.
The God of gods, the Lord,
hath cal'd the earth by name:
From whence the Sun doth rise, unto
the setting of the same.

2 From Sion his faire place,
his glory bright and clear:
The perfect beaurty of his grace,
from thence it did appear.

3 Our God shall come in haste,
to speak he shall not doubt:
Before him shall the fire waste,
and tempest round about.

4 The heavens from on high,
the earth below likewise,
He will call forth, to judge and try
his folk he doth devise.

5 Bring forth my Saints, saith he,
my faithful flock so dear:
which are in band and league with me,
my law to love and fear.

6 And when these things are tride,
the heavens shall record,
That God is just, and all must bide
the judgement of the Lord.

7 My people, O give heed,
Israel to thee I cry:
I am thy God, thy help at need,
thou canst it not deny.

8 I do not say to thee,
thy sacrifice is slack:
Thou offerest daily unto me
much more when I do lack.

9 Think'st thou that I do need thy cattel young or old?
Or else so much desire to feed
on Goats out of thy fold?

10 Nay, all the beasts are mine,
in woods that eat their fill:
And thousands more of neat and kine,
that run wilde on the hills.

The second Part.

11 The birds that build on high,
in hills and out of sight,
And beasts that in the fields do lie,
are subject to my might.

12 Then though I hungred sore,
what need I ought of thine?
Sith that the earth with her great store,
and all therein is mine?

13 To Bulls flesh have I minde,
to eat it dost thou think?
Or such a sweetnesse do I finde,
the blood of Goats to drink?

14 Give to the Lord his praise,
with thanks to him apply:
And see thou pay thy vows always unto the God most high.

15 Then seek and call to me,
when ought would work thee blame,
And I will sure deliver thee,
that thou mayst praise my Name.

16 But to the wicked train,
which talk of God each day,
And yet their works are foul and vain,
to them the Lord will say,

17 With what a face darrest thou
my word once speak or name?
Why dost thy talk my law allow,
thy deeds deny the same?

18 Whereas for to amend
thy life thou art so slack:
My word the which thou dost pretend is cast behind thy back.

The third Part.

19 When thou a thief dost see,
by theft to live in wealth:
With him thou runst and dost agree
likewise to thrive by stealth.

20 When thou dost them behold
that wives and maids defile:
Thou lik'st it well, and waxest bold,
to use that life most vile.

11 Thy lips thou dost apply,
so slander and defame:
Thy tongue is taught to craft and lie,
and still doth use the same.
12 Thou studi'st to revile
thy friends to thee so near.
With slander thou would'st needs defile
thy mother's son most dear.

13 Hereat while I did wink,
as though I did not see:
Thou goest on still, and so dost think that I am like to thee.

14 But sure I will not let
to strike when I begin:
Thy faults in order I will set,
and open all thy sin.

15 Mark this I you require,
that have not God in minde:
Left when I plague you in mine ire,
your help be far to finde.

16 He that doth give to me
the sacrifice of praise, Doth please me well: and he shall see
to walk in godly waies.

PSALM LI. W.W.

O Lord consider my distresse,
and now with speed some pity take,
My sin deface, my faults redresse,
good Lord for thy great mercies sake.

1 Wash me, O Lord, and make me clean
from this unjust and sinful act:
And purifie yer once again
my hateful crime and bloody fact.

2 Remorse and sorrow do constrain
me to acknowledge mine excess:
My sin alas doth still remain
before my face without release.

3 For thee alone I have offended,
committing evil in thy sight:
And if I were therefore condemned,
yet were thy judgments just & right.

4 It is too manifest alas,
that first I was conceiv'd in sin:
Yea of my mother so borne was,
and yet vile wretch remain therein.

5 Alas behold Lord thou dost love
the inward truth of a pure heart:
Therefore thy wisdom from above
thou hast reveal'd me to convert.

6 If thou with hyssop purge this blot,
I shall be cleaner then the glass:
And if thou wash away my spot,
the snow in whiteness shall I pass.

7 Therefore, O Lord, such joy me send,
that inwardly I may finde grace:
And that my strength may now amend,
which thou hast swag'd for my trespass.

8 Turn back thy face and frowning ire,
for I have felt enough thy hand:
And purge my sins I thee desire,
which do in number passe the sand.
9 Make new my heart within my breast,
and frame it to thy holy wills.

Thy constant spirit in me let rest,
which may these raging enemies kill.

The Second Part.

11 Cast me not Lord out from thy face,
but speedily my torments end:
Take not from me thy spirit of grace,
which may from dangers me defend.

12 Restore me to those joys again,
which I was wont in thee to finde:
And let me thy free spirit remain,
which unto thee may stir my minde.

13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are likewise brought low,
by mine example shall see sin.

14 O God that of my health art Lord:
forgive me this my bloody vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord
to sing thy mercies and justice.

15 Touch thou my lips, my tongue untie:
O Lord which art the onely key:
And then my mouth shall testify,
thy wondrous works and praise alway.

16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would have offered many a one:
But thou esteem'st them of no price,
and therein pleasure tak'st thou none.

17 The heavy heart, the mind oppress,
O Lord thou never dost reject:
And to speak truth it is the best;
and of all sacrifice th' effect.

18 Lord unto Sion turn thy face,
poure out thy mercies on thy hill,
And on Jerusalem thy grace,
build up the walls and love it still.

19 Thou shalt accept then our offerings
of peace and righteousness I say:
Yea calves and many other things,
upon thine altar will we lay.

Another of the same by J.H.

Have mercy on me Lord, after thy great abounding grace:
After thy mercies multitude,
do thou my sins deface.

2 Yea wash me more from mine offences
and cleanse me from my sin:
For I do know my faults, and still
my sin is in mine eyne.

3 Against thee, thee alone I have offended in this case:
And evil have I done before
the presence of thy face.

4 That in the things that thou hast done
upright thou may'st be try'd:
And eke in judgment that the doom
may passe upon thy side.

5 Behold in wickedness, my kind
and shape I did receive:
And so my sinful mother eke,
in sin did me conceive.

6 But to the truth in inward parts
is pleasant unto thee:
And secrets of thy wisdom thou
revealedst unto me.

7 With hyssop Lord besprinkle me,
I shall be cleansed so:
Yea wash thou me and so I shall be whiter then the snow.

8 Of joy and gladness make thou me
to hear the pleasant voice:
That to the bruised bones which thou hast broken, may rejoice.

9 From the beholding of my sin
Lord turn away thy face:
And all my deeds of wickedness
do utterly deface:

10 O God, create in me a heart
unfettered in thy sight:
And eke within my bowels Lord,
renew a stable spirit.

11 Ne cast me from thy sight nor take thy holy spirit away:
The comfort of thy saving health
give me again I pray.

12 With thy sweet spirit establish me,
and I will teach therefore Sinners thy ways, and wicked shall be turned to thy love.

The second Part.

13 O God that art God of my health,
from blood deliver me:
That praises of thy righteousness
my tongue may sing to thee.

14 My lips that yet fast closed be,
do thou O Lord unclose:
The praises of thy Majesty
my mouth shall so disclose.

15 I would have offered sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee:
But pleased with burnt offerings
I know thou wilt not be.

16 A troubled spirit is sacrifice delightful in Gods eyes:
A broken and an humble heart,
God thou wilt not despise.

17 In thy good will deal gently Lord,
to Sion, and withall Grant that of thy Jerusalem
spread may be the wall.

18 Burnt-offerings, gift and sacrifice
of justice in that day Thou shalt accept, and calves they shall upon thine altar lay.

PSALM liij. I.H.

Why dost thou tyrant boast abroad,
thy wicked works to praise?
Dost thou not know there is a God,
whose mercies last alwaies?

2 Why dost thou minde yet still devise
such wicked wiles to warp?
Thy tongue untrue in forging lies,
is like a razor sharp.

3 On mischief why sett thou thy mind
and wilt not walk upright?
Thou hast more lust false tales to find,
than bring the truth to light.

4 Thou dost delight in fraud and guile,
in mischief, blood and wrong:
Thy lips have learn'd the flattering stile,
O false deceitful tongue.

5 Therefore shall God for aye confound
and pluck thee from thy place:
Thy seed root out from off the ground,
and so shall thee deface.

6 The just when they behold thy fall,
with fear will praise the Lord,
And in reproach of thee withall,
cry out with one accord.

7 Behold the man that would not take
the Lord for his defence:
But of his goods his god did make,
and trust his corrupt sense.

8 But I as Olive fresh and green,
shall spring and spread abroad:
For why? my trust all times hath been upon the living God.

For this therefore will I give praise
to thee with heart and voice:
I will set forth thy name alwaies,
wherein thy Saints rejoice.

PSALM liiii. T-S.

The foolish man in that which he
within his heart hath said,
That there is any God at all,
hath utterly denied.

2 They are corrupt, and they also
a hateful work have wrought:
Among them all there is not one of good that worketh ought.

3 The Lord look'd down on sons of men
from heaven all abroad:
To see if any were that would be wise and seek for God.

4 They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all:
There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.

5 Do not all wicked workers know, that they do feed upon
My people, as they feed on bread?
the Lord they call not on.

6 Even there they were afraid, and stood with trembling all dismayd:
Whereas there was no cause at all,
why they should be afraid.

7 For God his bones that thee besieg'd
hath scattered all abroad:
Thou hast confounded them, for they rejected are of God.

8 O Lord give thou thy people health,
and thou O Lord fulfill Thy promise made to Israel
from out of Sion hill.

When God his people shall restore,
that erst were captive led :
Then Jacob shall therein reioyce,
and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM lii. I.H.

God save me for thy holy Name,
and for thy goodnesse sake :
Unto the strength (Lord) of the same,
I do my cause betake.

1 Regard, O Lord, and give an ear
to me when I do pray :
Bow down thy self to me and hear
the words that I do say.

2 For strangers up against me rise,
and tyrants vex me fill,
Which have not God before their eyes,
they seek my soul to spill.

3 But lo my God doth give me aid,
the Lord is strait at hand :
With them by whom my soul is staid,
the Lord doth ever stand.

4 With plagues repay again all those
for me that lie in wait :
And in thy truth destroy my foes
with their own snare and bait.
5 An offering of free heart and will,
then I to thee shall make :
And praise thy Name, for therein still great comfort I do take.

6 O Lord at length do set me free
from them that craft conspire :
And now mine eye with joy doth see,
on them my hearts desire.

PSALM lv. I.H.

God give ear and do apply,
to hear me when I pray :
And when to thee I call and cry,
hide not thy self away.

1 Take heed to me, grant my request
and answer me again :
With plaints I pray full sore oppress,
great grief doth me constrain.

2 Because my foes with threats and crys,
oppress me through despite :
And so the wicked for likewise
to vex me have delight.

3 For they in counsel do conspire,
to charge me with some ill :
So in their hasty wrath and ire
they do pursue me still.

4 My heart doth faint for want of breath,
it panteth in my breast :
The terrors and the dread of death,
do work me much unrest.

5 Such dreadful fear on me doth fall,
that I therewith do quake :
Such horror whelmeth me withall,
that I no shift can make.

6 But I did say, who will give me
the swift and pleasant wings
Of some fair Dove, that I may flee,
and rest me from these things I

8 Lo then I would go far away,
to flee I would not cease :
And I would hide my self and stay
in some great wilderness.

9 I would be gone in all the haste,
and not abide behinde,
That I were quit and overpast
these blasts of boisterous wind.
10 Divide them Lord, and from them part their devillish double tongue :
For I have spied their City full of rapine, strife and wrong.

11 Which things both night and day
do close her as a wall : (throughout)
In midst of her is mischief stout,
and sorrow eke withall.
12 Her inward parts are wicked plain,
her deeds are much too vile :
And in her streets there doth remain
all crafty fraud and guile.

The Second Part.

13 If that my foes did seek my shame,
I might it well abide :
From open enemies check and b'ame,
somewhere I could me hide.
14 But thou it wast, my fellow dear,
which friendship didst pretend :
And didst my secret counsel hear,
as my familiar friend :

15 With whom I had delight to talk
in secret and abroad :
And we together oft did walk
within the house of God.

16 Let death in haste upon them fall
and send them quick to hell :
For mischief raineth in the wall,
and parlour where they dwell.

17 But I unto my God will cry
to him for help I see.
The Lord will help me by and by,
and he will succour me.

18 At morning, noon, and even ryde,
unto the Lord I pray :
When I so instantly have cryde,
he doth not say me nay.

19 To peace he shall restore me yet,
though war be now at hand,
Although the number be full great,
that would against me stand.

20 The Lord that first and last doth raise
both now and evermore,
Will hear when I to him complain,
and punish them full sore.

21 For sure there is no hope that they
to turn will once accord :
For why ? they will not God obey,
nor yet do fear the Lord, (hands)

22 Upon their friends they laid their which were in covenant knit :
Of friendship to neglect the bands,
they passe or ease no whit.

43 While they have war within their
as butter are their words: (heart, Although their words were smooth as they cut as sharp as swords. (oyle, 44 Cast thou thy care upon the Lord,
and he shall nourish thee:
For in no wise will he accord
the iust in thrall to see.
45 Bar God shall cast them deep in pit,
that thirst for blood always:
He will no guileful man permit
to live our half his dayes.
46 Though such be quite destroyed and in thee O G d I trust; (gone
I shall depend thy Grace upon,
with all my heart and lust.

PSALM Lvi. J. H.

HAve mercy Lord on me I pray,
for man would me devour:
He fighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me each hour.
4 Mine enemies daily enterprife
to swallow me outright:
To fight against me many rise,
O thou most high of might.
5 When they would make me most afraid
with boasts and brags of pride:
I trust in thee alone for aid,
by thee I will abide.
6 Gods promise I do minde and praise,
O Lord I stick to thee:
I do not care at all what ailes,
what flesh can do to me.
7 What things I either did or spake,
they wretch them at their will:
And all the counsel that they take,
is how to work me ill.
8 They all consent, themselves to hide,
close watch for me to lay:
They spie my paths, and snares have tide
to take my life away.
9 Shall they thus scape on mischief set?
thou God on them wile frown:
For in his wrath he doth not let
to throw whole kingdoms down.
10 Thou seest how oft they made me flee
and on my tears dost look:
Reserve them in a glasse by thee,
and write them in thy book.
11 When I do call upon thy Name,
my foes away do start:
I well perceive it by the same,
that God doth rake my part.
12 I glory in the Word of God,
to praise it I accord:
With joy I will declare abroad
the promise of the Lord.
13 I trust in God, and yet I say,
as I before began:
The Lord he is my help and stay,
I do not care for man.
14 I will perform with heart so free,
so God my vows always

And IO Lord all times to thee,
will offer thanks and praise, 15 My soul from death thou dost defend,
and keepst my feet upright:
That I before thee may ascend
with such as live in light.

PSALM lvii. I. H.

TAke pity for thy promise sake,
have mercy Lord on me:
For why? my soul doth her betake
unto the help of thee.
2 Within the shadow of thy wings
I set my self full fast:
Till mischief, malice, and like things
be gone and overpast.
3 I call upon the God most high,
to whom I stick and stand:
I mean the God that will stand by the cause I have in hand.
4 From heaven he hath sent his aid,
to save me from their spite,
That to devour me have afraid,
his mercy, truth and might.
5 I lead my life with Lions fell,
all set on wrath and ire:
And with such wicked men I dwell,
that fret like flames of fire.
6 Their teeth are speares & arrows long,
as sharp as I have seen: (tongue
They wound and cut with their quick
like swords and weapons keen.
7 Set up and shew thy self O God,
above the heavens bright:
Exalt thy praise on earth abroad,
thy Majesty and might.
8 They lay their net and do prepare a privy cave and pit:
Wherein they think my soul to snare,
but they are false in it.
9 My heart is set to laud the Lord,
in him to joy always:
My heart I say doth well accord
to sing his laud and praise.
10 Awake my joy, awake I say,
my Lute, my Harp, and string:
For I my self before the day,
will rise, rejoyce, and sing.

11 Among the people I will tell
the goodness of my God:
And shew his praise that doth excel
in beathen lands abroad.
12 His mercy doth extend as far as heavens all are high:
His truth as high as any star,
that shineth in the skie.

13 Set forth and shew thy self O God,
above the heavens bright:
Extoll thy praise on earth abroad,
thy majesty and might.

PSALM lviii. I. H.

YE Rulers that are put in trust,
to judge of wrong and right:

Be all your judgements true and just,
not knowing meed or might:
2 Nay in your hearts ye mark and muse
in mischief to consent:
And where ye should true justice use,
your hands to bribes are bent.

3 The wicked sort from their birth-day
have eered on this wise:
And from their mothers womb alway
have used craft and lie.
4 In them the poyson and the breath
of Serpents do appear:
Yea like the Adder that is deaf,
and fast doth stop her ear.

5 Because she will not hear the voice
of one that charmeth well:
No though he were the chief of choice,
and did therein excel.

6 O God break thou their teeth at once within their mouths throughout:
The tusks that in their great jaw-bones
like lions whelps hang out.

7 Let them consume away and waste,
as waters run forthright:
The shafts that they do shoot in haste,
let them be broke in flight.

8 As snailles do waste within the shell,
and unto slime do run:
As one before his time that fell,
and never saw the Sun.

9 Before the thorns that now are young,
to bushes big shall grow:
The storms of anger waxing strong,
shall take them ere they know.

10 The just shall joy, it doth them good that God doth vengeance take:
And they shall wash their feet in blood
of them that him forsake.

11 Then shall the world shew forth & tell
that good men have reward:
And that a God on earth doth dwell,
that justice doth regard.

PSALM Lix. I. H.

Send aid and save me from my foes,
O Lord I pray to thee: Defend and keep me from all those
that rise and strive with me.

2 O Lord preserve me from those men,
whose doings are not good:
And let me sure and safe from them
that thirst still after blood.

3 For so they wait my soul to take,
they rage against me still:
Yea for no fault that I did make,
I never did them ill.

4 They run and do themselves prepare,
when I no whit offend:
Arise and save me from their snare,
and see what they intend.

5 O Lord of hosts of Israel,
arise and strike all land:
And pity none that do rebel;
and in their mischief stand.

6 At night they stir and seek about,
as hounds they howle and grin:
And all the City clean throughout
from place to place they run.

7 They speak of me with mouth alway,
but in their lips are swords:
They greed my death, and then would say,
what none doth hear our words.

8 But Lord, thou hast their ways espyed,
and laugh thereat apace:
The hearken folk thou dost deride,
and mock them to their face.

9 The strength that doth our foes wide
O Lord, doth come from thee: (stand)
My God he is my help at hand,
a fort of fence to me.

10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace;
in great abundance still:
That I may see my foes in case,
such as my heart doth will.

The second Part.

11 Destroy them not at once O Lord,
lest it from minde do fall:
But with thy strength drive them abroad,
and so consume them all.

12 For their ill words & truthless tongues
confound them in their pride:
Their wicked carth with lyes and wrongs
let all the world deride.

13 Consume them in thy wrath O Lord,
that nought of them remain:
That men may know throughout the world
that Jacobs God doth reign.

14 At evening they return apace;
as dogs they grin and cry:
Throughout the streets in every place
they run about and spie.

15 They seek about for meat I say,
but let them not be fed:
Nor finde a house wherein they may be bold to put their head.

16 But I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodnesse I will praise:
For thou art my defence and God,
at need in all affairs.

17 Thou art my strength, thou hast we-
O Lord, I sing to thee: (stand)
Thou art my fort, my fence and aid,
a loving God to me.

PSALM lx. I. H.

O Lord thou didst us clean forsake,
and scatteredst us abroad:
Such great displeasure thou didst take;
return to us O God.

2 Thy might did move the earth so sore:
that it in sunder brake:
The hurt thereof O Lord restore,
for it doth bow and quake.

3 With heavy chance thou plaguest thus
the people that are thine:
And thou hast given unto us
a drink of deadly wine.

4 But yet to such as fear thy Name,
a banner thou didst shew:

B. 5.

That they may triumph in the same
because thy word is true.

So that thy might may keep and save
thy folk that favour thee :
That they thy help at hand may have,
O Lord grant this to me.

The Lord did speak from his own place,
this was his joyful tale:
I will divide Sichem by pace,
and mete our Succor's vale.

Gilead is given to mine hand,
Manasses mine beside :
Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my law doth Juda guide.

In Moab I will wash my feet,
over Edom throw my shoe :
And thou Palestine ought'st to seek for favour me unto.

But who will bring me at this tyde
unto the City strong ?
Or who to Edom will me guide,
so that I go not wrong ?

Wilt thou nor God, which didst forsake
thy folk, their land and coasts ?
Our wars in hand thou wouldst not take,
nor walk among our hosts.

Give aid, O Lord, and us relieve
from them that us disdain:
The help that hosts of men can give,
it is but all in vain. (might)

But through our God we shall have to take great things in hand :
We will tread down and put to flight
all those that us withstand.

PSALM lxi. I. H.

Regard, O Lord, for I complain,
and make my suit to thee.

Let not my words returne in vain,
but give an ear to me.

From out the coasts, and utmost parts,
of all the earth abroad :

In grief and anguish of my heart,
I cry to thee, O God.

Upon the rock of thy great power
my woful minde repose :

Thou art my hope, my fort and tower,
my fence against my foes.

Within thy tent I lust to dwell,
for ever to endure :

Under thy wings I know right well,
I shall be safe and sure.

The Lord doth my desire regard,
and doth fulfill the same:

With goodly gifts will he reward
all those that fear his Name.

The Kings shall he in health maintain,
and so prolong his days,

That he from age to age shall reign,
for evermore alway.

That he may have a dwelling place,
before the Lord for aye.

O let thy mercy, truth and grace

defend him from decay.

8 Then shall I sing for ever still,
with praise unto thy Name:
That all my vows I may fulfill,
and daily pay the same.

PSALM lxii. I. H.

MY soul to God shall give good heed,
and him alone attend :

For why? my health and hope to spend,
doth whole on him depend.

For he alone is my defence,
my rock, my health and aid.

He is my stay that no pretence
shall make me much dismay.

O wicked folk, how long will ye
use craft? sure ye must fall:

For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tottering wall.

Whom God doth love, ye seek alwaies
to put him to the worse:

Ye love to lie, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart doth curse.

Yet still my soul doth whole depend on God my chief desire :

From all ill feats me to defend,
none but him I require.

He is my rock, my fort and tower,
my health is of his grace:

He doth support me that no power
can move me out of place.

God is my glory and my health,
my souls desire and lust:

My fort, my strength, my stay, my wealth,
God is my onely trust.

O have your trust in him alway,
ye folk with one accord.

Poure out your hearts to him and say,
Our trust is in the Lord.

The sons of men deceitful are,
on balance but a feight :

With things most vain do them compare
for they can keep no weight.

Trust not in wrong, robbery, nor stealth,
let vain delights be gone: (wealth)

Though goods well got flow in with set nor your hearts thereon.

The Lord long since one thing did sell
which here to mind I call :

He spake it oft, I heard it well,
that God alone doth all.

And that thou Lord art good & kind,
thy mercy doth exceed :

So that all sorts with thee shall finde,
according to their deed.

PSALM lxiii. I. H.

O God my God, I warch betime
to come to thee in haste:

For why my soul and body both
do thirst of thee to taste.

And in this barren wilderness,
where waters there are none,

My flesh is parcht for thought of thee,
for thee I wish alone.

That I might see yet once again
thy glory, strength and might,
As I was wont it to behold
within thy Temple bright:
For why? thy mercies far surmount
this life and wretched dayes:
My lips therefore shall give to thee
due honour, laud and praise.
4 And whilst I live I will not fail
to worship thee alway:
And in thy name I shall lift up
my hands when I do pray.
5 My soul is filld as with marrow,
which is both far and sweet:
My mouth therefore shall sing such song
as are for thee most meet.
6 When as in bed I think on thee,
and eke all the night tyde:
7 For under cover of thy wings
thou art my joyfull guide.
8 My soul doth surely stick to thee,
thy right hand is my power:
9 And those that seek my soul to stroy,
them death shall soon devour.
10 The sword shall them devour each one
their carcases shall feed:
The hungry foxes, which do run
their prey to seek at need.
11 The King and all men shall rejoyce,
that do professe Gods Word:
For lyars mouths shall then be stoppt,
which have the truth disturbd.

PSALM lxiv. J. H.

Lord unto my voice give ear,
with plaint when I do pray:
And rid my life and soul from fear
of foes that threat to slay.
2 Defend me from that sort of men
which in deceit do lurk:
And from the frowning face of them
that all ill feats do work.
3 Who when their tongues as we have seen
men when their sharp their swords:
They shoot abroad their arrows keen,
I mean most bitter words.
4 With privy sleights shoot they their
the upright men to hit; (shaft,
The just unwares to strike by craft,
they care or fear no whit.
5 A wicked work they have decreed;
in counsel thus they cry:
To use deceit let us not dread;
what? who can it espie?
6 What way to hurt they take and muse
all times within their hearts:
They all consult what feats to use,
each doth invent his part.
7 But yet all this shall not prevail,
when they think least upon,
God with his dart shall sure assail,
and wound them every one.
8 Their crafts and their ill tongues whichal
shall work themselves such blame,

That they which then behold their fall,
shall wonder at the same.
9 Then all that see shall know right well
that God the thing hath wrought:
And praise his wirtie works and tell what he to pass hath brought.
10 Yet shall the just in God rejoyce,
still trusting in his might;
So shall they joy with mind and voice,
whose hearts are pure and right.

PSALM lxv. J. H.

Thy praise alone, O Lord, doth raise
in Zion thine own hill:
Their vows to thee they do maintain,
and their benefits fulfill.
2 For that thou dost their prayers hear,
and dost thereto agree:
The people all both far and near
with trust shall come to thee.
3 Our wicked life so far exceeds,
that we shall fall therein:
But Lord forgive our great misdeeds,
and purge us from our sin.
4 The man is blest whom thou dost chuse
within thy courts to dwell:
Thy house and Temple he shall use
with pleasures that excell.
5 Of thy great Justice hear us God,
Our health of thee doth rise:
The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the sea coasts likewise.
With strength thou art bester abour,
and compass with thy power:
Thou makst the mountains strong and to stand in every shower. (flow 7 The swelling seas thou dost assuage and make their streams full still:
Thou dost restrain the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will.
8 The folk that dwell full far on earth,
shall dread thy signs to see,
Which morn and evening in great mirth
do pass with praise to thee.
9 When that the earth is chapt and drie,
and thirterth more and more:
Then with thy drops thou dost supply,
and much increase her store.
10 The flood of God doth overflow,
and so doth cause to spring
The seed and corn which men do sow,
for he doth guide the thing.
11 With wet thou dost her furrows fill,
whereby her clods do fall:
Thy drops on her thou dost distill,
and blesse her fruit whichal.
12 Thou deckst the earth of thy good with fair and pleasant crop: (grace Thy clouds distill their dew apace,
great plenty they do drop.
13 Whereby the desert shall begin full great increase to bring:

The

The little hills shall joy therein,
much fruit in them shall spring.
13 In places plaine the flocks shall feed,
and cover all the earth:
The vales with corn shall so exceed,
that men shall sing for mirth.

PSALM lxvj. T. S.

YE men on earth in God rejoyce,
with praise set forth his Name:
Extol his might with heare and voice,
give glory to the same.

1 How wonderful O Lord, say ye,
in all thy works thou art?
Thy foes for fear shall seek to thee,
full sore against their heart.

2 All men that dwell the earth throughout shall praise the Name of God:
The laud thereof the world about
is shew'd and set abroad.

3 All folk come forth, behold and see what things the Lord hath wrought:
Mark well the wondrous works that he
for man to passe hath brought.

4 He laid the sea like heape on high,
therein a way they had
On foot to passe both fair and drie,
whereof their hearts were glad.

5 His might doth rule the world alway,
his eyes all things behold:
All such as would him disobey,
by him shall be contrould.

6 Ye people give unto our God,
due laud and thanks alwaies:
With joyfull voice declare abroad,
and sing unto his praise.

7 Which doth endue our soul with life
and it preserve withal:
He stayes our feet, so that no strife
can make us slip or fall.

8 The Lord doth prove our deeds with
if that they will abide: (fire)
As workmen do when they desire to have their metals tride.

9 Although thou suffer us so long
in prison to be cast:
And there with chains and fetters strong
to lie in bondage fast.

The second Part.

10 Although I say thou suffer men
on us to ride and raige:
Though we through fire and water run
of very grief and pain.

11 Yet sure thou dost of thy good grace
dispose it to the best:
And bring us out into a place,
to live in wealth and rest.

12 Unto thy house resort will I
to offer and to pray:
And there I will my self apply
my vows to thee to pay.

13 The vows that with my mouth I spake
in all my grief and smart:

The vows I say which I did make
in dolour of my heart.

14 Burnt-offerings I will give to thee
of Oxen fat and Rams: Yea this my sacrifice shall be of Bullocks, Goats and Lambs.

15 Come forth and hearken here full soon
all ye that fear the Lord:
What he for my poor soul hath done,
to you I will record.

16 Full oft I call so minde his grace,
this mouth to him doth cry:
And thou my tongue make speed space,
to praise him by and by.

17 But if I feel my heart within,
in wicked works rejoyce:
Or if I have delight to sin,
God will not hear my voice.

18 But surely God my voice hath heard,
and what I do require:
My Prayer he doth well regard,
and granteth my desire.

19 All praise to him that hath not put,
nor cast me out of minde:
Nor yet his mercy from me shut,
which I do ever finde.

PSALM lxvij. I. H.

HAve mercy on us Lord,
and grant to us thy grace:
To shew to us do thou accord,
the brightnesse of thy face.

2 That all the earth may know
the way to godly wealth:
And all the nations on a row,
may see thy saving health.

3 Let all the world O God,
give praise unto thy Name:
O let the people all abroad,
extol and laud the same.

4 Throughout the world so wide
let all rejoyce with mirth:
For thou with truth & right dost guide
the nations of the earth.

5 Let all the world O God,
give praise unto thy name:
O let the people all abroad,
extol and laud the same.

6 Then shall the earth encrease,
great store of fruit shall fall:
And then our God the God of peace shall blesse us eke withal.

7 God shall us blesse I say,
and then both far and near,
The folk throughout the earth alway,
of him shall stand in fear.

PSALM lxviii. T. S.

Let God arise, and then his foes
will turn themselves to flight:
His enemies then will run abroad,
and scatter out of sight.

2 And as the fire doth melt the wax,
and winde blows smoke away:

56 in the presence of the Lord
the wicked shall decay.

8 But righteous men before the Lord,
shall heartily rejoyce
They shall be glad and merry all,
and cheerful in their voice.

9 Sing praise, sing praise unto the Lord,
who rideth on the skie:
Extol the Name of Jah our God,
and him do magnifie.

9 The same is he that is above,
within his holy place:
Thar father is of fatherlesse,
and judge of widows case.

6 Houses he gives, and issue both,
unto the comfortlesse:
He bringeth bondmen out of thrall,
and rebels to distresse.

7 When thou didst march before thy folk
th' Egyptians from among: [nes
And broughtst them through the wilder-
which was both wide and long. (down

8 The earth did quake, the rain pow'd heard were great claps of thunder:
The mount Sinai shook in such sort,
as it would break in sunder.

9 Thine heritage with drops of rain
abundantly was waith:
And if so be it barren waxt,
by thee it was refresh'd.

10 Thy chosen flock doth there remain,
thou hast prepar'd that place:
And for the poor thou dost provide
of thine especial grace.

The second Part.

11 God will give women causes just,
to magnifie his Name:
When as his people triumphs make,
and purchase bruit and fame.

12 For pusilliant kings for all their power
shall see and take the foile:
And women which remain at home
shall help to part the spoile.

13 And though you were as black as porp,
your hue shall passe the Dove:
Whose wings and feathers seem to have silver and gold above.

14 When in this land God shall triumph
on Kings both high and low:
Then shall it be like Salmon hill,
as white as any snow.

15 Though Basan be a fruitful hill,
and in height others passe:
Yer Sion Gods most holy hill
doth far excel in grace.

16 Why brag ye thus, ye hills most high,
and leap for pride together?
The hill of Sion God doth love,
and there will dwell for ever.

17 Gods army is two millions of warriors good and strong
The Lord also in Sinai

is present them among.

Thou didst (O Lord) ascend on high,
and captives ledst them all:
Which in times past thy chosen flock
in bondage kept and thrall.

18 Thou madst them tribute for to pay,
and such as did repine,
Thou didst subdue that they might dwell
in thy Temple divine.

19 Now praised be the Lord for that he poures on us such grace:
From day to day he is the God
of our health and solace.

The third Part.

20 He is the God from whom alone
salvation cometh plaine:
He is the God by whom we scape
all dangers, death and pain.

21 Thus God wil wound his enemies head
and break the hairy scalpe
Of those that in their wickednesse continually do walk.

22 From Basan will I bring said he,
my people and my sheep:
And all mine own as I have done,
from dangers of the deep.

23 And make them dip their feet in blood
of those that hate my Name:
And dogs shal have their tongues imbrued
with licking of the same.

24 All men may see how thou O God
thine enemies dost deface:
And how thou goest as God and King
into thine holy place.

25 The fingers go before with joy,
the minstrels follow after:
And in the midst the damels play,
with timbrel and with taber.

26 Now in the Congregation,
O Israel, praise the Lord.
And Jacobs whole posterity,
give thanks with one accord.

27 Their chief was little Benjamin,
but Judah made their host:
With Zebulon and Nephthali,
which dwelt about their coast.

28 As God hath given power to thee,
so Lord make firm and sure
The thing that thou hast wrought in us,
for ever to endure.

29 And in thy Temple gifts will we give unto thee O Lord:
For thine unto Jerusalem,
sure promise made by word.

The fourth Part.

Yea, and strange Kings to us subdu'd,
shall do like in those dayes:
I mean to thee they shall present
their gifts of laud and praise.

30 He shall destroy the spearmens ranks
the calves and bulls of might:
And cause them tribute, pay, and daunt
all such as love to fight.

1 Then sh all the Lords of Egypt come,
and presents with them bring :
The Moors moist black shall stretch their unto their Lord and King. [bands, 2 Therefore the Kingdoms of the earth,
give praise unt^o the Lord :
Sing Psalms to God with one consent,
thereto let all accord.
3 Who though he ride and ever hath
above the heavens bright :
Yet by the fearful thunder claps
men may well know his might.
4 Therefore the strength of Israel
ascribe to God on hie :
Whose might and power doth far extend
above the cloudy skie.
5 O God thy holinesse and power
is dread for evermore :
The God of Israel gives us strength,
praised be God therefore.

P S A L. lxix. I. H.

S AVE me O God, and that with speed,
the waters flow full fast :
So nigh my soul do they proceed,
that I am sore agast.
1 I stick full deep in mire and clay,
whereas I feel no ground :
I fall into such floods I say,
that I am like be drown'd.
2 With crying oft I faint and quail,
my throat is hoarse and drie :
With looking up my sight doth fail,
for help to God on high.
3 My foes that guilelesse do oppresse
my soul, with hate are led :
In number sure they are no lesse
then haïres are on my head.
4 Though for no cause they vex me sore,
they prosper and are glad :
They do compel me to restore the things I never had.
5 What I have done for want of wit,
thou Lord all times canst tell :
And all the faults that I commit
to thee are known full well.
6 O God of Hosts defend and stay
all those that trust in thee :
Let no man doubt or shrink away,
for ought that chanceth me.
7 It is for thee and for thy sake,
that I do bear this blame :
In sight of thee they would me make
to hide my face for shame.
8 My mothers sons, my brethren all forsake me on a row :
And as a stranger they me call,
my face they will not know.
9 Unto thy house such zeal I bear,
that it doth pine me much :
Their checks and raunts at thee to hear,
my very heart doth grutch.

The second Part.

11 Though I do fast my heile to chaff,
if I do weep and mone :
Yet in my teeth this thing is cast,
they passe not thereupon.
12 If I for pain and grief of heart
in sackcloth use to walk :
Then they anon will in pervert,
thereof they jest and talk.
13 Both high and low and all the throng
that sit within the gate,
They have me ever in their tongue,
of me they talk and prate.
14 The drunkards which in wine delight
it is their chief pastime,
To seek which way to work me spight,
of me they sing and time.
15 But thee the while, O Lord, I pray,
that when it pleaseth thee,
For thy great truth thou wilt alway
send down thine aid to me.
16 Pluck thou my feet out of the mire,
from drowning do me keep,
From such as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deep.
17 Left with the waves I should be drown'd
and depth my soul devour.
And that the pit should me confound,
and shut me in her power.
18 O Lord of hosts to me give ear,
as thou art good and kind.
And as thy mercy is most dear,
Lord have me in thy mind.
19 And do not from thy servant hide,
nor turn thy face away :
I am oppress'd on every side,
in hast give ear I say.
20 O Lord unto my soul draw nigh,
the same wish aid repose :
Because of their great tyrannie,
acquitt me from my foes.
The third part.
21 That I abide rebuke and shame,
thou knowest and thou canst tell :
For those that seek and work the same,
thou seest them all full well.
22 When they with brags do break my
I seek for help anon : (heart
But find no friends to ease my smart :
to comfort me not one.
23 But in my meat they gave me gall,
too cruel for to think :
And gave me in my thirst withal
strong vinegar to drink.
24 Lord turn their table to a snare,
to take themselves therein :
And when they think full well to fare,
they trap them in the gin.
25 And let their eyes be dark and blind
that they may nothing see :
Bow down their backs and do them bind
in thraldom for to be.
26 Pour out thy wrath as hot as fire,
that it on them may fall :
Let

Let thy displeasure in thine ire,
take hold upon them all.

17 As deserts dry their house disgrace,
their off-spring eke expell:
That none thereof possesse their place,
nor in their tents do dwell.

18 If thou dost strike the man to tame,
on him they lay full sore:
And if that thou dost wound the same,
they seek to hurt him more.

19 Then let them heap up mischief still,
(such they are all pervers)
That of thy favour and good will they never have a part.

20 And raze them clean out of thy book
of life, of hope, of trust:
That for their name they never look
in number of the just.

The fourth Part.

21 Though I, O Lord, with wo and grief
have been full sore oppress'd:
Thy help shall give me such relief,
that all shall be redress'd.

22 That I may give thy Name the praise
and shew it with a song:
I will extol the same alwaies,
with hearty thanks among.

23 Which is more pleasant unto thee,
(such minde thy grace hath born)
Then either ox or calf can be,
that hath both hoof and horn.

24 When simple folk do this behold,
it shall rejoyce them sure:
All ye that seek the Lord, behold
your life for aye shall dure.

25 For why? the Lord of hosts doth hear
the poor when they complain:
His prisoners are to him full dear,
he doth them not disdain.

26 Wherefore the skie and earth below,
the sea with flood and stream,
His praise they shall declare and shew,
with all that live in them.

27 For sure our God will Sion save,
and Judas Cities build:
Much folk possession there shall have,
her streets shall all be fill'd.

28 His servants seed shall keep the same,
all ages out of minde:

29 And there all they that love his Name,
a dwelling place shall finde.

PSALM lxx. J.H.

O God to me take heed,
of help I thee require:
O Lord of hosts with haste make speed,
help, help, I thee desire.

3 With shame confound them all:
that seek my soul to spill:

Rebuke them back with blame to fall,
that think and wish me ill.

4 Confound them that apply,
and seek to work me shame:

And at my harm do laugh and cry,
so so, there goes the game.

4 But let them joyfull be,
in thee with joy and wealth:
Which only trust and seek to thee
and to thy saving health.

5 That they may say alwaies,
in mirth and one accord:
All glory, honour, laud and praise,
be given to thee O Lord.

6 But I am weak and spoor,
come Lord thine aid I lack.
Thou art my stay and help, therefore make speed and be not slack.

PSALM lxxi. J.H.

MY Lord my God, in all distresse,
my hope is whole in thee:
Then let no shame my soul oppress,
nor once take hold on me.

1 As thou art just defend me Lord,
and rid me out of dread:
Give eare and to my suit accord,
and send me help at need.

2 Be thou my rock, to whom I may
for aid all times resort:
Thy promise is to help alway,
thou art my fence and fort.

3 Save me my God from wicked men,
and from their strength and power,
From folk unjust, and eke from them
that cruelly devour.

4 Thou art the stay wherein I trust,
thou Lord of Hosts art he:
Yea from my youth I had a just,
still to depend on thee:

5 Thou hast me kept even from my birth
and I through thee was born:
Wherefore I will thee praise with mirth
both evening and at morn.

6 As to a monster seldom seen,
much folk about me throng:
But thou art now, and still hast been my fence and aid so strong.

7 Wherefore my mouth no time shall lack thy glory and thy praise:
And eke my tongue shall not be slack
to honour thee alwaies.

8 Refuse me not, O Lord, I say,
when age my limbs doth take:
And when my strength doth waste away
do not my soul forsake.

9 Among themselves my foes enquire,
to take me through deceit,
And they against me do conspire,
that for my soul laid wait.

The second Part.

11 I lay hand and take him now, they said
for God from him is gone:

Dispatch him quire, for to his aid,
(I wis) there cometh none.

12 Do not absent thy self away,
O Lord, when need shall be:

But that in time of grief thou may in haste give help to me.

13 With shame confound and overthrow
all those that seek my life :
Oppresse them with rebuke also,
that saine would work me strife.

14 But I will patiently abide thy help at all assaies :
Still more and more each time and ryde,
I will set forth thy praise.

15 My mouth thy justice shall record,
that daily help doth send :
But of thy benefits O Lord,
I know no count nor end.

16 Yet will I go and seek forth one with thy good help O God :
The saving health of thee alone,
to shew and set abroad.

17 For of my youth thou tookst the care,
and dost instruct me still :

Therefore thy wonders to declare,
I have great minde and will.

18 And as in youth from wanton rage,
thou didst me keep and stay :
Forake me not unto mine age,
and till my head be gray.

The third Part.

19 That I thy strength & might may show
to them that now be here :

And that our seed thy power may know
hereafter many a year.

20 O Lord thy justice doth exceed,
thy doings all may see :

Thy works are wonderful indeed,
O who is like to thee ?

21 Thou mad'st me feel affliction sore,
and yet thou didst me save :

Yea thou didst help and me restore,
and tookst me from the grave.

22 And thou mine honour dost increase,
my dignity maintaine :

Yea thou dost make all strife to cease,
and comfort'st me again.

23 Therefore thy faithfulness to praise,
I will with viol sing,

My harp shall sound thy praise alwaies,
O Israels holy King.

24 My mouth will joy with pleasant voice
when I shall sing to thee.

And eke my soul will much rejoyce,
for thou hast made me free.

25 My tongue thy uprightness shall sound,
and speak it daily still :

For grief and shame do them confound,
that seek to work me ill.

PSALM Lxxii. I.H.

Lord, give thy judgments to the King,
therein instruct him well :

And with his son that princely thing,
Lord let thy justice dwell.

That he may govern uprightly,
and rule the folk aright.

And so defend through equity,
the poor that have no might.

3 And let the mountains that are hie,
unto thy folk give peace :
And eke let little hills apply,
in justice to increase.

4 That he may help the weak and poor
with aid and make them strong :
And eke destroy for evermore,
all those that do them wrong.

5 And then from age to age shall they regard and fear thy might :
So long as Sun doth shine by day,
or else the Moon by night.

6 Lord make the King unto the just,
like raine to fields new mown :
And like to drops that lay the dust,
and fresh the land new sowne.

7 The just shall flourish in his time,
and all shall be at peace :
Unril the Moon shall leave to prime,
waste, change and to increase.

8 He shall be Lord of sea and land,
from shore to shore throughout :
And from the floods within the land,
through all the earth about.

9 The people that in deserts dwell,
shall kneel to him full thick :
And all his enemies that rebel,
the earth and dust shall lick.

10 The Lords of all the isles thereby,
great gifts to him shall bring :
The Kings of Saba and Arabie,
give many a costly thing.

The second Part.

11 All Kings shall seek with one accord,
in his good grace to stand :

And all the people of the world,
shall serve him at his hand.

12 For he the needy sort doth save,
that unto him do call :

And eke the simple folk that have no help of man at all.

13 He taketh pity on the poor,
that are with need oppress :

He doth preserve them evermore,
and bring their souls to rest.

14 He shall redeem their lives from dread
from fraud, from wrong, from might :
And eke the blood that they shall bleed
is precious in his sight.

15 But he shall live and they shall bring to him of Sabaes gold :
He shall be honoured as a King,
and daily be extold.

16 The mighty mountaines of his land
of corn shall bear such throng :
That it like Cedar-trees shall stand,
in Libanus full long.

17 Their Cities eke full well shall speed,
the fruits thereof shall passe :

10 plenty it shall far exceed,
and spring as green as grass.
11 For ever they shall praise his Name,
while that the Sun is light:
And think them happy through the same
all folk shall bleſſe his might.

12 Praise ye the Lord of hoſts, and ſing
to Iſraels God each one:
For he doth every wondrous thing,
yea he himſelf alone.
13 And bleſſed be his holy Name,
all times eternally:
That all the earth may praise the ſame,
Amen, Amen, ſay I.

PSALM lxxiiij. T. 5.

HOW ever it be, yet God is good
and kind to Iſrael:
And to all ſuch as ſafely keep their conſcience pure and well.
1 Yet like a fool I almoſt ſlept,
my ſees began to ſlide:
And ere I wiſt, even at a pinch
my ſteps awry gan glide.
2 For when I ſaw ſuch fooliſh men,
I grudg'd and did diſdain,
That wicked men all things ſhould have without curſe or pain.
3 They never ſuffer pangs nor grief,
as if death ſhould them ſmite:
Their bodies are both ſtout and ſtrong,
and ever in good plight.
4 And free from all adverſity,
when other men be ſhent:
And with the reſt they take no part of plague or puniſhment.
5 Therefore preſumption doth embrace their necks, as doth a chaine:
And are even wrapt as in a robe,
with rapine and diſdain.
6 They are ſo fed, that even for ſat
their eyes oft-times out-part:
And as for worldly goods, they have more then can wiſh their heart.
7 Their life is moſt licentious,
boasting much of their wrong,
Which they have done to ſimple men,
and ever pry'd among.
8 The heavens and the living Lord
they ſpare not to blaſpheme:
And prate they do of worldly things,
no wight they do eſteem.
9 The people of God oft-times turn back to ſee their prosperous ſtare:
And almoſt drink the ſelf ſame cup,
and follow the ſame rate.

The ſecond Part.

11 How can it be that God (ſay they)
ſhould know or underſtand Theſe worldly things, ſith wicked men
be Lords of ſea and land?
12 For we may ſee how wicked men
in riches ſtill increaſe:
Rewarded well with worldly goods,
and live in reſt and peace.

13 Then why do I from wickedneſſe
my fantaſie refrain?
And waſh my hands with innocents,
and cleanſe my heart in vain?

14 And ſuffer ſcourges every day,
as ſubject to all blame:
And every morning from my youth
ſuffaine rebuke and ſhame?

15 And I had almoſt ſaid as they,
miſtaking mine eſtate:
But that I ſhould thy children judge
as folk unfortunate.

16 Then I berought me how I might
this matter underſtand:
But yea the labour was too great
for me to take in hand.

17 Until the time I went into thy holy place, and then;
I underſtood right perfectly
the end of all theſe men.

18 And namely how thou ſetteſt them
upon a ſlippery place:
And at thy pleaſure and thy will thou doſt them all deſace.

19 Then all men muſe at that ſtrange ſight
to ſee how ſuddenly
They are deſtroy'd, diſpatcht, conſum'd,
and dead ſo horribly.

20 Much like a dream when one awakes,
ſo ſhall their wealth decay:
Their famous names in all mens ſight,
ſhall ebbe and paſſe away.

The third Part.

21 Yet thus my heart was grieved then,
my mind was much oppreſt:

22 So fond was I, and ignorant,
and in this point a beaſt.

23 Yet nevertheleſſe by thy right hand
thou hold'ſt me alwayes faſt:

24 And with thy counſel doſt me guide
to glory at the laſt.

25 What thing is there that I can wiſh,
but thee in heaven above?

And in the earth there is nothing,
like thee that I can love.

26 My fleſh and eke my heart doth fail,
but God doth ſail me never:
For of my health God is the ſtrength,
my portion eke for ever.

27 And lo all ſuch as thee forſake,
thou ſhalt deſtroy each one:

And thoſe that truſt in any thing,
ſaving in thee alone.

28 Therefore I will draw near to God,
and ever wiſh him dwell:

In God alone I put my truſt,
thy wonders I will tell.

PSALM lxxiv. J. H.

WHY art thou (Lord) ſo long from us,
in all this danger deep?

Why doth thine anger kindle thus,
at thine own paſture ſheep?

2 Lord call thy people to thy thoughts,
which have been thine ſo long:

The

The which thou hast redeemed & brought from bondage fore and strong.

Have mind therefore and think upon
remember it full well :

Thy pleasant place, thy mount Sion,
where thou wast wont to dwell.

4 Lift up thy feet and come in haste,
and all thy foes deface :

Which now at pleasure rob and waste
within thy holy place.

5 Amid thy congregations all,
thine enemies roar, O God :

They set as signs on every wall,
their banners sp laid abroad.

6 As men with axes hew down trees,
that on the hills do grow :

So thine the hills and swords of these within thy Temple now.

7 The feeling sawd, the carved boards,
the goodly graven stones,

With axes, hammers, bills and swords,
they beat them down at once.

8 Thy places they consume with flame,
and eke in all this toile,

The house appointed to thy Name,
they raze down to the soile.

9 And thus they say within their heart,
dispatch them our of hand :

Then burnt they up in every part
Gods houses through the land.

10 Yet thou no sign of help dost send,
our Prophets all are gone :

To tell when this our plague shall end,
among us there is none.

11 When wilt thou (Lord) once end this and cease thine enemies strong? (shame

shall they alwaies blaspheme thy Name,
and rail on thee so long?

12 Why dost thou draw thy hand aback,
and hide it in thy lap?

O pluck it out and be not slack
to give thy foes a rap.

The second part.

13 O God thou art our King and Lord,
and evermore hast been :

Yea thy good grace throughout the world
for our good help hath seen.

14 The seas that are so deep and dead,
thy might did make them drie,

And thou didst break the Serpents head
that he therein did die.

15 Yea thou didst break the head so great
of Whales that are so fell :

And gavst them to the folk to eat,
that in the deserts dwell. (rise

16 Thou madst a spring with streams to
from rock both hard and high :

And eke thy hand hath made likewise
deep rivers to be drie.

17 Both day and eke the night are thine
by thee they are begun :

Thou sett to serve us with their shine
the light and eke the Sun,

18 Thou didst appoint the ends and coasts
of all the earth about :

Both summer-heats, and winter-frosts,
thy hand hath found them out.

19 Think on (O Lord) no time forget
thy foes that thee defame :

And how the foolish folk are set
to rail upon thy Name.

20 O let no cruel beasts devour
the Turtle that is true;

Forget not alwaies in thy power
the poor that much do rue,

21 Regard thy Covenant and behold
thy foes possess the land :

All sad and dark, forlorn and old,
our Realm as now doth stand.

22 Let not the simple go away,
nor yet return with shame :

But let the poor and needy aye
give praise unto thy Name.

23 Rise (Lord) let baby thee maintraine
the cause that is thine own :

Remember how that thou blasphem'd
art by the foolish one.

24 The voice forget not of thy foes,
for the presumption hie

Is more and more increast of those that hate thee spitefully.

PSALM lxxv. L.H.

Unto thee God will we give thanks,
we will give thanks to thee :

Sich thy name is so near, declare thy wondrous works will we.

2 I will uprightly judge, when get convenient time I may :

The earth is weak, and all therein,
but I her pillars stay.

3 I did to the mad people say,
deal not so furiously :

And unto the ungodly ones,
set not your horns on hie.

4 I said unto them, set not up
your raised horns on hie :

And see that you do with stiff neck
not ipeak presumptuously.

5 For neither from the eastern parts,
nor from the western side :

Nor from forsaken wilderness
promotion doth proceed.

6 For why? the Lord our God he is the righteous judge alone: set,

He putteth down the one and another in the Throne.

7 For why? a cup of mighty wine
is in the hand of God :

And all the mighty wine therein,
himself doth pour abroad.

8 As for the lees and filthy dregs that do remain of it :

The wicked of the earth shall drin
and suck them every whit.

9 But I will talk of God, I ſay,
of Jacobs God therefore:

And will not ceaſe to celebrate his praiſe for evermore.

10 In ſunder break the horns of all ungodly men will I:

But then the horns of righteous men
ſhall be exalted high.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son and holy Ghoſt,
all glory be therefore:

As in beginning was, is now,
and ſhall be evermore.

Pſalm Lxxvi. I.H.

TO all that now in jury dwell,
the Lord is clearly known:

His Name is great in Iſrael,
a people of his own.

2 At Salem he his tents hath pight,
to tarry there a ſpace:

In Sion eke he hath delight
to make his dwelling place.

3 And there he brake both ſhaft, and bow,
the ſword, the ſpear, and ſhield:

And brake the ray to overthrow
in battel on the field.

4 Thou art more worthy honour Lord,
more might in thee doth lie,

Than in the ſtrongest of the world,
that rob on mountains high.

5 But now the proud are ſpoil'd through and they are ſaln on ſleep: (thee,

Through men of war no help can be,
themſelves they could not keep.

6 At thy rebuke, O Jacobs God,
when thou diſt them reprove

As half on ſleep their chariots ſtood,
no horſemen once did move.

7 For thou art dreadful, Lord, indeed,
what man the courage hath

To bide thy fight, and doth not dread
when thou art in thy wrath? (heard

8 When thou doſt make thy judgements
from heaven through the ground,

Then all the earth full ſore afraid,
in ſilence ſhall be found.

9 And that when thou O God doſt ſtand
in judgement for to ſpeak,

To ſave th afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weak.

10 The fury that in man doth reign
ſhall turn unto thy praiſe:

Heteafter (Lord) do thou reſtrain
their wrath and threats alwaies.

11 Make vows, and pay them to our God
ye folk that nigh him be:

Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadful ſure is he.

12 For he doth take both life and might
from Princes great of birth;

And full of terrour is his fight
to all the Kings on earth.

Pſalm Lxxvii. I.H.

I With my voice to God do cry,
with heart, and hearty cheer:

My voice to God I liſt on hie,
and he my ſuit doth hear.

2 In time of grief I fought to God,
by night no reſt I took:

But ſtretcht my hands to him abroad,
my ſoul comfort forſook.

3 When I to think on God intend,
my trouble then is more:

I ſpake, but could not make an end,
my breath was ſtopt ſo ſore.

4 Thou holdſt mine eyes alwaies from reſt
that I alwaies awake:

With fear I am ſo ſore oppreſt,
my ſpeech doth me forſake.

5 The dayes of old in minde I caſt,
and oft did think upon

The times and ages that are paſt
full many years agoe.

6 By night my ſongs I call to minde,
once made thy praiſe to ſhow:

And with my heart much talk I finde,
my ſpirits do ſearch to know.

7 Will God, ſaid I, at once for all caſt off his people thus:

So that henceforth no time he ſhall
be friendly unto us?

8 What, is his goodneſſe clean decayd
for ever and a day?

Or is his promiſe now delayd,
and doth his truth decay?

9 And will the Lord our God forget his mercies manifold?

Or ſhall his wrath increaſe ſo hot,
his mercies to wiſh-hold?

10 At laſt I ſaid, my weakneſſe is the cauſe of this miſtruſt,

Gods mighty hand can help all this,
and change it when he liſt.

The ſecond Part.

11 I will regard and think upon
the working of the Lord:

Of all his wonders paſt and gone,
I gladly will record.

12 Yea all his works I will declare,
and what he did deviſe:

To tell his facts I will not ſpare,
and eke his counſel wiſe.

13 Thy works (O Lord) are all upright,
and holy all abroad:

What one hath ſtrength to match thy might
of thee O Lord our God?

14 Thou art a God that doſt forth ſhow
thy wonders every hour:

And ſo doſt make the people know
thy vertue and thy power.

15 And thine own folk thou doſt defend with ſtrength and ſtretched arm:

The ſons of Jacob that deſcend,
and Joſephs ſeed from harm,

16 The warri Lord perceived thee,

the

the waters saw thee well:
And they for fear away did flee,
the depths on trembling fell.

17 The clouds that were both thick and did rain full plentifully: (black,
The thunder in the aire did crack,
thy shafts abroad did flie.

18 Thy thunder in the aire was heard,
thy lightnings from above,
With flashes great made men afraid,
the earth did quake and move.

19 Thy waies within the sea do lie,
thy paths in waters deep:
Yet none can there thy steps espie,
nor know thy paths to keep:
20 Thou ledst thy folk upon the land,
as sheep on every side:
Through Moses and through Aarons hand
thou didst them safely guide.

PSALM Lxxliij. I. H.

A Tread my people to my law,
and to my words incline:
1 My mouth shall speak strange parables
and sentences divine.
2 Which we our selves have heard and even of our fathers old: (learn'd
And which for our instruction
our fathers have us told.

3 Because we should not keep it close from them that should come after:
Who should Gods power to their race
and all his works of wonder. (praise

4 To Jacob he commandment gave,
how Israel should live:
Willing our fathers should the same
unto their children give.

5 That they and their posterity,
that were not sprung up tho.
Should have the knowledge of the law,
and teach their seed also.

6 That they might have the better hope
in God that is above:
And not forget to keep his laws,
and his precepts in love.

7 Nor being as their fathers were,
rebellin in Gods sight:
And would not frame their wicked hearts
to know their God aright.

8 How went the people of Ephraim their neighbours for to spoil:
Shooting their darts in day of war,
and yet they took the foil?

9 For why they did not keep with God
the covenant that was made:
Nor yet would walk or lead their lives
according to his trade.

10 But put into oblivion,
his counsel and his will:
And all his works most magnifque
which he declared still.

The second Part.

11 What wonders to our fore-fathers
did he himself disclose:

In Egypt land within the field
that call'd is Thaneos?

12 He did divide and cut the sea,
that they might passe at once:
And made the waters stand as still
as doth an heap of stones.

13 He led them secret in a cloud
by day when it was bright:
And in the night when dark it was,
with fire he gave them light.

14 He brake the rocks in wilderness,
and gave the people drink:
As plentiful as when the deeps
do flow up to the brink.

15 He drew our rivers out of rocks
that were both drie and hard:
Of such abundance, that no floods
to them might be compar'd.

16 Yet for all this against the Lord
their sin they did encrease:
And stirred him that is most high
to wrath in wilderness.

17 They temptred God within their hearts
like people of mistrust, Requiring such a kind of meat,
as served to their lust.

18 Saying with murmuration,
in their unfaithfulness:
What can this God prepare for us
a feast in wilderness?

19 Behold he strake the stony rocks,
and floods forthwith did flow:
But can he now give to his folk both bread and flesh also?

20 When God heard this, he waxed wroth
with Jacob and his seed:
So did his indignation
on Israel proceed.

The third Part.

21 Because they did not faithfully believe and hope that he,
Could always help and succor them
in their necessity.

22 Wherefore he did command the cloud
forthwith they brake in tunder:
23 And rain'd down Manna for them to a food of mickle wonder. (eat

24 When earthly men with Angels food
were fed at their request:

25 He bad the east winde blow away,
and brought in the South-West.

26 He rain'd down flesh as thick as dust,
and fowle as thick as sand:

27 Which he did cast amid the place,
where all their tents did stand.

28 Then did they eat exceedingly,
and all men had their fill:
Yet more and more they did desire,
to serve their lusts and wills.

29 But as the meat was in their mouths,
his wrath upon them fell:

30 And slew the flower of all their youth,
and choice of Israel.

83 Yet fell they to their wonted sin,
and still they did him grieve :
For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him not believe.
84 Their days therefore he shortened,
and made their honour vain :
Their years did waste and passe away,
with terroure and with pain.

85 But ever when he plagued them,
they sought him by and by :
86 Remembering that he was their strength
their help and God most high.
87 Though in their mouths they did but
and flatter with the Lord: (close And with their tongues & in their hearts
dissembled every word.

The fourth Part.

88 For why their heart were nothing bent
to him nor to his trade :
Nor yet to keep or to performe
the covenant that was made.
89 Yet was he still so mercifull,
when they deserv'd to die :
That he forgave them their misdeeds,
and would not them destroy.

Yes, many a time he turn'd his wrath,
and did himself advise :
And would not suffer all his whole displeasure to arise.
90 Considering that they were but flesh,
and even as a waide,
That passeth away and cannot well
return by his own kind.

91 How oftentimes in wilderness
did they the Lord provoke ?
How did they move and stir the Lord
to plague them with his stroke ?
92 Yet did they turn again to sin,
and tempted God efr-soone:
Prescribing to the holy Lord,
what things they would have done.

93 Nor thinking of his hand and power
nor of the day when he Delivered them out of the hands
of their fierce enemy.

94 Nor how he wrought his miracles,
(as they themselves beheld)
In Egypt and the wonders that he did in Zoan field.

95 Nor how he turned by his power,
their waters into blood :
That no man might receive his drink
at river nor at flood.
96 Nor how he sent them swarms of flies,
which did them sore annoy :
And filld their countrey full of frogs
which did their land destroy.

The fifth Part.

97 Nor how he did commit their fruits
unto the caterpillar :
And all the labour of their hands
be gave to the grasshopper. (vines, 98 With hail-stones he destroyd their
so that they were all lost :

And not so much as wild fig-trees,
but he consum'd with frost.

99 And yet with hailstones once again
the Lord their carrel smore:
And all their flocks and herds likewise
with thunderbolts full bore.

100 He cast upon them in his ire,
and in his fury strong,
Displeasure, wrath and evil spirits,
to trouble them among.

101 Then to his wrath he made a way,
and spared not the least :

But gave unto the pestilence
the man and eate the beast.

102 He struck also the first-borne all,
that up in Egypt came :
And all the chief of men and beasts
within the tents of Ham.

103 But as for all his own dear folk,
he did preserve and keep:
And carried them through wilderness,
even like a flock of sheep.

104 Without all fear both safe and sound
he brought them out of thrall:
Whereas their foes with rage of seas
were overwhelmed all.

105 And brought them out into the coasts
of his own holy land :

Even to the mount which he had got
by his strong arm and hand.

106 And there cast out the heathen folk,
and did their land divide:
And in their tents he sets the Tribes
of Israel to abide.

107 Yet for all this, their God most high they stir'd and tempted still:

And would not keep his Testaments,
nor yet obey his will.

108 But as their fathers turned back,
even so they went astray :
Much like a bowe that would not bend,
but slip and start away.

The sixth Part.

109 And griev'd him with their hill-altars,
with offerings and with fire:
And with their idols vehemently
provoked him to ire.

110 Therewith his wrath began again
to kindle in his breast :
The naughtinesse of Israel
he did so much detest.

111 Then he forsook the Tabernacle of Shilo where he was Right conversant with earthly men,
even as his dwelling place.

112 Then suffered he his might and power
in bondage for to stand :
And gave the honour of his Ark
into his enemies hand.

113 And did commit them to the sword
wroth with his heritage :

63 Their

63 Their young men were devour'd with maids had no marriage. (fire,

64 And with the sword the Priests also did perish every one:

And not a widow left alive,
their death for to be none.

65 And then the Lord began to wake,
like one that slept a time:

And like a valiant man of war,
refreshed after wine.

66 With Emrods in the hinder parts
he strake his enemies all:

And put them then unto a shame
that was perpetual.

67 Then he the tent and tabernacle
of Joseph did refuse:

As for the Tribe of Ephraim,
he would in no wise chuse.

68 But chose the Tribe of Jehuda,
whereas he thought to dwell:

Even the noble mount Sion,
which he did love so well.

69 Whereas he did his Temple build,
both sumptuously and sure:

Like as the earth which he hath made
for ever to endure.

70 Then chose he David, him to serve,
his people for to keep:

Whom he took up and brought away,
even from the folds of sheep.

71 As he did follow th'Ewes with young,
the Lord did him advance:

To feed his people Israel,
and his inheritance.

72 Thus David with a faithful heart
his flock and charge did feed:

And prudently with all his power,
did govern them indeed.

PSALM LXXIX. I.H.

O God, the Gentiles do invade
thine heritage to spoil:

Jerusalem an heap is made,
thy Temple they desile.

1 The bodies of thy Saints most dear
abroad to birds they cast,

The flesh of them that do thee fear,
the beasts devour and waste.

2 Their blood throughout Jerusalem,
as waters spilt they have:

So that there is not one of them
to lay their dead in grave.

3 Thus are we made a laughing stock,
almost the world throughout:

The enemies at us jest and mock,
which dwell our coasts about.

4 Wilt thou O Lord thus in thine ire
against us ever fume.

And shew thy wrath as hot as fire,
thy folk for to consume?

5 Upon those people pour the same,
which did thee never know:

All Realms which call not on thy Name,
consume and overthrow.

7 For they have got the upper hand,
and Jacobs seed destroyed:

His habitation and his land,
they have left waste and void.

8 Bear not in minde our former faults,
with speed some pity show:

And aid us Lord in all assaults,
for we are weak and low.

The second Part.

9 O God that giv'it all health and grace
on us declare the same:

Weigh not our works, our sins desace,
for honour of thy Name.

10 Why shall the wicked still away,
to us as people dumb,

In thy reproach rejoyce and say,
where is their God become?

Require (O Lord) as thou see'st good,
before our eyes in sight,

Of all these folk thy servants blood,
which they spilt in despight.

11 Receive into thy sight in haste,
the clamours, grief and wrong,

Of such as are in prison cast,
sustaining irons strong.

Thy force and strength to celebrate,
Lord set them out of band,

Which unto death are destinate,
and in thine enemies hand.

12 The nations which have been so bold
as to blaspheme thy Name:

Into their laps with seven-fold
repay again the same.

13 So we thy folk and pasture sheep
will praise thee evermore.

And teach all ages for to keep
for thee like praise in store.

PSALM LXXX. I.H.

Thou herd that Israel dost keep,
give ear and take good heed:

Which ledest Joseph like a sheep,
and dost him watch and feed.

2 Thou Lord, I say, whose fear is set on Cherubims most bright:

Shew forth thy self and do not let,
send down thy beams of light.

3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin,
Manasses eke likewise:

To shew thy power do thou begin,
come help us Lord arise.

4 Direct our hearts unto thy grace,
convert us, Lord, to thee:

Shew us the brightness of thy face,
and then full safe are we.

5 Lord God of hosts of Israel,
how long wilt thou I say,

Against thy folk in anger swell,
and wilt not hear them pray?

6 Thou dost them feed with sorrows deep,
their bread with tears they eat:

And drink the tears that they do weep,
in measure full and great.

Thou hast made a very strife
to those that dwell about.
And that our foes do love a life,
they laugh and jest it out.
O take us (Lord) unto thy grace,
convert our hearts to thee:
Shew forth to us thy joyful face,
and we full safe shall be.

From Egypt where it grew not well,
thou broughtst a vine full dear:
The heathen folk thou didst expel,
and thou didst plant it there.
Thou didst prepare for it a place,
and set her roots full fast:
That it did spring and grow apace,
and filld the land at last.

The second part.

11 The hills were covered about with shade that from it came:
And eke the Cedars strong and stout,
with branches of the same.
12 Why then didst thou her wals destroy?
her hedge pluck up thou hast:
That all the folk that passe thereby,
thy vine may spoil and wait.

13 The boar out of the wood so wilde,
doth dig and root it out:
The furious beasts out of the field
devour it all about.

14 O Lord of hosts, return again,
from heaven look betime:
Behold, and with thy help sustain
this poor vineyard of chine.

15 Thy plant, I say, thine Israel,
whom thy right hand hath set,
The same which thou didst love so well,
O Lord do not forget.

16 They lop and cut it down apace,
they burn it eke with fire:
And through the frowning of thy face,
we perish in thine ire.

17 Let thy right hand be with them now
whom thou hast kept so long:
And with the son of man whom thou
to thee hast made so strong.

18 And so when thou hast set us free,
and saved us from shame:
Then will we never fall from thee,
but call upon thy Name.

19 O Lord of hosts through thy good cruwert us unto thee: (grace)
Behold us with a pleasant face,
and then full safe are we.

PSALM lxxxi. I.H.

Be light and glad, in God rejoyce,
which is our strength and stay:
Be joyful and lift up your voice,
to Jacobs God I say.

Prepare your instruments most meet
some joyful Psalm to sing:
Strike up with harp and lute so sweet,
on every pleasant string.

3 Slow as it were in the new Moon,
with trumpets of the best:
As it is used to be done
at any solemn feast.

4 For this is unto Israel,
a statute and a trade:

A law that must be kept full well,
which Jacobs God hath made.

5 This clause with Joseph was decreed,
when he from Egypt came:

That as a witness all his seed
should still observe the same.

6 When God, I say, had so prepared to bring him from that land:
Whereas the speech which he had heard,
he did not understand.

7 I from his shoulders took (saith he)
the burthen clean away:

And from the furnace quit him free
from burning brick of clay.

8 When thou in grief didst cry and call,
I helpt thee by and by:

And I did answer thee withal
in thunder secretly.

9 Yea at the waters of discord,
I did thee tempt and prove:
Whereas the goodnesse of the Lord,
with muttering thou didst move.

10 Hear, O my folk, O Israel,
and I assure it thee:
Regard and mark my words full well,
if thou wilt cleave to me.

The second part.

11 Thou shalt no God in thee reserve,
of any land abroad:

Nor in no wise to bow or serve
a strange or foreign god.

12 I am the Lord thy God, and I
from Egypt set thee free:

Then ask of me abundantly,
and I will give it thee.

13 And yet my people would not hear
my voice when that I spake:

Nor Israel would not obey,
but did me quire forsake.

14 Then did I leave them to their will
in hardnesse of their heart,
To walk in their own counsels still,
themselves they might pervert.

15 O that my people would have heard
the words that I did say:

And eke that Israel would regard
to walk within my way!

16 How soon would I confound their foes
and bring them down full low:
And turn my hand upon all those
that would them overthrow!

17 And they that at the Lord do rage,
as slaves should seek him ill:

But of his folk the time and age,
should flourish ever still.

18 I would have fed them with the crop
and finest of the wheat:

And made the rock with honey drop,
that they their fills should eat.

PSALM lxxxij. I.H.

A Mid the prete with men of might
the Lord himself doth stand
To plead the cause of truth and right,
with Judges of the land.

a How long (saith he) will you proceed
false judgement to award,
And have respect for love of meed,
the wicked to regard?

g Whereas of due you should defend
the fatherless and weak:
And when the poore man doth contend,
in judgement justly speak.

4 If ye be wise, defend the cause
of poore men in their right:
And rid the needy from the claws
of tyrants force and might.

5 But nothing will they know or learn,
in vain to them I talk:
They will not see, or ought discern,
but still in darkness walk.

6 For lo, even now the time is come,
that all things fall to nought:
And likewise laws both all and some,
For gain are sold and bought.

I had decreed it in my sight,
as gods to take you all:
And children to the most of might,
for love I did you call.

7 But notwithstanding ye shall die
as men, and so decay:
O tyrants I shall you destroy,
and pluck you quite away.

8 If Lord, and let thy strength be known,
and judge the world with might:
For why all nations are thine own
to take them as thy right.

PSALM lxxxiii. I.H.

DO not (O God) refrain thy tongue,
in silence do not stay:
Withhold not, Lord, thy self so long,
and make no more delay.

a For why, behold thy foes, and see how they do rage and cry:
And those that bear an hate to thee,
hold up their heads on high.

3 Against thy folk they use deceit,
and craftily they enquire:
For thine elect to lie in wait,
their counsel doth conspire.

4 Come on, say they, let us exel,
and pluck these folk away:
So that the Name of Israel
may utterly decay.

They all conspire within their heart,
how they may thee withstand:
Against the Lord to take a part,
they are in league and band.

6 The tents of all the Edomites,
the Ishmaelites also:

The Hagarens and Moabites,
with divers others mo.

7 Gebal with Ammon, and likewise
doth Amalek conspire:

The Philistims against thee rise,
with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 And Ashur eke is well appaid,
with them in league to be:
And doth become a fence and aid
to Lons posterity.

9 As thou didst to the Midianites,
so serve them Lord each one:

As to Siser and to Jabin,
beside the brook Kison.

10 Whom thou in Endor didst destroy,
and waste them through thy might:
That they like dung on earth did lie,
and that in open fight.

The Second Part.

11 Make them now & their Lords appear like Zeb and Oreb than:

As Zeba and Zalmunna were the Kings of Midian.

12 Which said, let us throughout the land
in all the coasts abroad
Possesse and take into our hand
the faire houses of God.

13 Turn them O God with storms as fast,
as wheels that have no stay:
Or like the chaff which men do cast,
with windes to flie away.

14 Like as the fire with rage and fume,
the mighty forests spile,
And as the flame doth quite consume
the mountains and the hills.

15 So let the tempest of thy wrath
upon their necks be laid:
And of thy stormy winde and showre,
Lord make them all afraid.

16 Lord bring them all I thee desire,
to such rebuke and shame,
That it may cause them to enquire
and learn to seek thy Name.

17 And let them evermore daily
to shame and slander fall:
And in rebuke and obloquie,
to perish eke withal.

18 That they may know and feel full well
that thou art called Lord:
And that alone thou dost excel,
and reigns throughout the world.

PSALM lxxxiv. I.H.

How pleasant is thy dwelling place,
O Lord of hosts to me!
The Tabernacles of thy grace
how pleasant Lord they be!

2 My Soul doth long full sore to go into thy courts abroad:
My heart doth lust, my flesh also,
in thee the living God.

3 The Sparrows finde a roome to rest,
and save themselves from wrong:
And eke the swallow hath a nest
wherein to keep her young.

4 That

4 These birds full nigh thine Altar may have place to sit and sing:
O Lord of hosts, thou art I say,
my God and eke my King.

5 O they be blessed that may dwell
within thy house always:
For they all times thy facts do tell,
and ever give thee praise.

6 Yea happy sure likewise are they whose stay and strength thou art:
Which to thy house do minde the way,
and seek it in their heart.

As they go through the vale of tears,
they dig up fountains still:
That as a spring it all appears,
and thou their pits dost fill.

7 From strength to strength they walk full no faintness there shall be: (last
And so the God of gods at last in Sion they do see.

8 O Lord of hosts to me give heed,
and hear when I do pray:
And let it through thine ears proceed,
O Jacobs God, I say.

9 O Lord our shield, of thy good grace regard, and so draw near:
Regard, I say, behold the face
of thine anointed dear.

10 For why? within thy Courts one day
is better to abide,
Then other where to keep or stay,
a thousand days beside.

Much rather would I keep a door
within the house of God,
Than in the tents of wickednesse
to fertile mine abode.

11 For God the Lord, light and defence,
will grace and worship give:
And no good thing shall he with-hold
from them that purely live.

12 O Lord of hosts, that man is blest,
and happy sure is he,
That is perswaded in his brest,
to trust all times in thee.

P S A L M Lxxxv. J. H.

Thou hast been merciful indeed,
O Lord unto thy land:
For thou restoredst Jacobs seed,
from thraldome out of hand.

13 The wicked ways that they were in thou didst them clean remit:
And thou didst hide thy peoples sin,
full close thou coveredst it.

14 Thine anger eke thou didst assuage,
that all thy wrath was gone:
And so didst turn thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.

15 O God our health do now convert thy people unto thee:
Put all thy wrath from us apart,
and angry cease to be.

16 Why? shall thine anger never end,
but still proceed on us?
And shall thy wrath it self extend upon all ages thus?

6 Wilt thou not rather turn therefore,
and quicken us, that we,
And all thy folk may evermore
be glad and joy in thee?

7 O Lord on us do thou declare
thy goodness to our wealth:
Shew forth to us, and do not spare
thine aid and saving health.

8 I will heark what God saith, for he speaks to his people peace,
And to his Saints, that never they return to foolishness.

9 For why? his help is still at hand
to such as do him fear:
Whereby great glory in our land shall dwell and flourish there.

10 For truth and mercy there shall meet,
in one to take their place:
And peace shall justice with kisse greet,
and there they shall embrace.

11 As truth from earth shall spring apace
and flourish pleasantly:
So righteousness shall shew her face,
and look from heaven high.

12 Yea God himself doth take in hand
to give us each good thing:
And through the coasts of all the land
the earth her fruit shall bring.

13 Before his face shall justice go,
much like a guide or stay:
He shall direct his steps also,
and keep them in the way.

P S A L M Lxxxvi. J. H.

I Ord bow thine ear to my request,
and hear me by and by:
With grievous pain and grief oppress,
full poor and weak am I.

2 Preserve my soul, because my ways
and doings holy be:
And save thy servant, O my Lord,
that puts his trust in thee.

3 Thy mercy (Lord) on me expresse,
defend me eke withall:
For through the day I do not cease
on thee to cry and call.

4 Comfort (O Lord) thy servants soul,
that now with pain is pin'd:
For unto thee (Lord) I extoll
and lift my soul and mind.

5 For thou art good and bountiful,
thy gifts of grace are free:
And eke thy mercy plentiful
to all that call on thee.

6 O Lord likewise when I do pray,
regard and give an ear:
Mark well the words that I do say,
and all my prayers hear.

7 In time when trouble doth me move,
to thee I do complain.
For why? I know and well do prove,
thou answerest me again.

8 Among the gods (O Lord) none
with thee to be compared.

And none can do as thou alone,
the like hath not been heard.

The second Part.

9 The Gentiles and the people all,
which thou didst make and frame,
Before thy face on knees shall fall,
and glorifie thy Name.

10 For why? thou art so much of might,
all power is thine own:

Thou workest wonders still in fight,
for thou art God alone.

11 O teach me, Lord, the way, and I shall in thy truth proceed:

O joyn my heart to thee so nigh,
that I thy Name may dread.

12 To thee my God will I give praise,
with all my heart: O Lord:

And glorifie thy Name always,
for ever through the world.

13 For why? thy mercy shew'd to me
is great, and doth excell:

Thou sett'st my soul at liberty,
out from the lower hell.

14 O Lord, the proud against me rise,
and heaps of men of might:

They seek my soul, and in no wise
will have thee in their fight.

15 Thou Lord art mercifull and meek,
full slack and slow to wrath:

Thy goodness is full great, and eke
thy truth no measure hath.

16 O turn to me, and mercy grant,
thy strength to me apply:

O help and save thine own servant,
thy handmaids son am I.

17 On me some signe of favour show:
that all my foes may see,

And be ashamed, because (Lord) thou
do'st help and comfort me.

PSALM Lxxxvii. J. H.

Thar City shall full well endure,
her ground-work still doth stay
Upon the holy hills full sure,
it can no time decay.

18 God loves the gates of Sion best,
his grace doth there abide:

He loves them more then all the rest of Jacobs tents beside.

19 Full glorious things reported I
in Sion and abroad:

Great things, I say, are said of thee,
thou City of our God.

20 On Rahab I will cast an eye,
and bear in mind the same:

And Babylon shall eke apply,
and learn to know thy Name.

21 Lo, Paletie and Tyre also,
with Ethiopia likewise:

A people old, full long ago
were born, and there did rise.

22 Of Sion they shall say abroad,
that divers men of fame

Have there sprung up, and the high God
hath founded fast the same.

7 In their records to them it shall through Gods device appear

Of Sion, that the chief of all had his beginning there.

8 The trumpetters, with such a sing,
there in great plenty be:

My fountains and my pleasant springs
are compact all in thee.

PSALM Lxxxviii. J. H.

Lord God of health, the hope and stay
thou art alone to me:

I call and cry throughout the day,
and all the night to thee.

2 O let my prayer soon ascend unto thy sight on hie:

Incline thine ear, O Lord, attend,
and hearken to my cry.

3 For why? with wo my heart is fill'd,
and doth in trouble dwell:

My life and breath almost doth yield,
and draweth nigh to hell.

4 I am esteem'd as one of them
that in the pit do fall,

And made as one among those men
that have no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead, and free
from things that here remain:

It were more ease for me to be
with them the which are slain.

6 As those that lie in grave, I say,
whom thou hast clean forgot:

The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regard'st them not.

7 Yea like to one shut up full sure
within the lower pit,

In places dark and all obscure,
and in the depth of it.

8 Thine anger and thy wrath likewise
full sore on me do lie:

And all thy storms against me rise,
my soul to vex and trie.

9 Thou putt'st my friends far off from me
and mak'st them hate me sore:

I am shut up in prison fast,
and can come forth no more.

10 My fight doth fail through griefe,
I call to thee O God:

Throughout the day my hands also
to thee I stretch abroad.

The second Part,

11 Dost thou unto the dead declare
thy wondrous works of fame?

Shall dead to life again repair,
and praise thee for the same?

12 Or shall thy loving kindness, Lord
be preached in the grave?

Or shall with them that are destroy'd
thy truth her honour have?

13 Shall they that lie in dark full lost
of all thy wonders wot?

Or there shall they thy justice know where all things are forgot?

14 But I, O Lord, to thee always do cry and call apace:

My prayer eke ere it be day,
shall come before thy face.

15 Why dost thou, Lord, abhor my soul
in grief that seeketh thee?

And now, O Lord, why dost thou hide
thy face away from me?

16 I am afflicted, dying still,
from youth, this many a year:

Thy terrors which do vex me ill,
with troubled mind I bear.

17 The furies of thy wrathful rage
full sore upon me fall:

Thy rebuffs eke do not allwage,
but me oppress withall.

18 All day they compass me about,
as waters at the tide:

And all at once with streams full stout
beset me on each side.

19 Thou settest far from me my friends
and lovers every one:

Yea and mine old acquaintance all
out of my sight are gone.

PSALM LXXXIX. J. H.

TO sing the mercies of the Lord,
my tongue shall never spare:

And with my mouth from age to age,
thy truth I will declare.

20 For I have said, that mercy shall
for evermore remain:

In that thou dost the heavens stay,
thy truth appeareth plain.

21 To mine elect, saith God, I made a covenant and behest:

My servant David to persuade,
I swore and did protest.

22 Thy seed for ever I will stay,
and stablish it full fast:

And still uphold thy Throne alway,
from age to age to last.

23 The heavens shew with joy and mirth
thy wondrous works, O Lord:

Thy saints within thy Church on earth,
thy faith and truth record.

24 Who with the Lord is equal then,
in all the clouds abroad?

Among the sons of all the gods,
what one is like our God?

25 God in assembly of his Saints
is greatly to be dread:

And over all that dwell about,
in terror to be had.

26 Lord God of hosts, in all the world,
what one is like to thee?

On every side, most mighty Lord,
thy truth is seen to be.

27 The raging sea by thine advice, thou ruler at thy will:

And when the waves thereof arise,
thou mak'st them calm and still.

28 And Egypt (Lord) thou hast subdued,
and thou hast it destroyed:

Yea, thou thy foes with mighty arm
hast scatter'd all abroad.

The second Part.

21 The heavens arching, & still have been
likewise the earth and land:

The world, and all that is therein,
thou foundedst with thy hand:

22 Both North & South, with East & West
thy self didst make and frame:

Both Tabor mount, and eke Hermon,
rejoyce and praise thy Name.

23 Thine arm is strong and full of power
all might therein doth lie:

The strength of thy right hand each hour
thou liftest up on high:

24 In righteousness and equity
thou hast thy seat and place:

Mercy and truth are still with thee,
and go before thy face.

25 That folk is blest that knows aright
thy present power O God:

For in the favour of thy sight
they walk full safe abroad.

26 For in thy Name throughout the day
they joy and much rejoyce:

And through thy righteousness have they
a pleasant fame and noise.

27 For why? their glory, strength and aid,
in thee alone doth lie:

Thy goodness eke that hath us staid,
shall lift our horn on high.

28 Our strength that doth defend us well
the Lord to us doth bring:

The holy One of Israel,
he is our guide and King.

29 Sometimes thy will unto thy Saints
in visions thou didst show:

And thus then didst thou say to them,
thy mind to make them know:

30 A man of might I have erect,
your King and guide to be:

And set him up whom I elect,
among the folk to me.

The third Part.

31 My servant David I appoint,
whom I have searched out:

And with my holy oyl anoint
him King of all the rout.

32 For why? my hand is ready still
with him for to remain:

And with my arm also I will
him strengthen and sustain.

33 The enemies shall not him oppress,
they shall him not devour:

Ne yet the sons of wickedness
on him have any power.

34 His foes likewise I will destroy
before his face in fight:

And those that hate him I will plague,
and strike them with my might.

35 My truth and mercy eke withall,
shall still upon him lie:

And in my name his horn eke shall be lifted up on high.

26 His Kingdom I will set to be upon the sea and land:
And eke the running floods shall he embrace with his right hand.

27 He shall depend with all his heart
on me, and thus shall say:

My Father and my God thou art,
my rock of health and stay.

28 As my first-born I will him take,
of all on earth that springs:

His might and honour I will make above all earthly Kings.

29 My mercy shall be with him still,
as I my self have told:

My faithful covenant to fulfill,
my mercy I will hold.

30 And eke his seed I will sustain
for ever strong and sure:

So that his seed shall still remain
while heaven doth endure.

The fourth Parr.

31 If that his sons forsake my Law,
and so begin to swerve:

And of my judgements have none awe,
nor will not them observe.

32 Or if they will not use aright
my statutes to them made:

And set all my commandments light,
and will not keep my made:

33 Then with the rod will I begin,
their doings to amend:

And so will scourge them for their sin,
if that they do offend.

34 My mercy yet and my goodnesse,
I will not take him fro:

Nor handle him with craftinesse,
and so my truth forgo.

35 But sure my covenant I will hold,
with all that I have spoke:

No word the which my lips have told,
shall alter or be broke.

36 Once sware I by my holinesse,
and that perform will I:

With David I shall keep promise,
to him I will not lie.

37 His seed for evermore shall reign,
and eke his throne of might,

As doth the Sun, it shall remain
for ever in my fight.

38 And as the Moon within the skie
for ever standeth fast:

A faithful witness from on hie,
so shall his kingdome last.

39 But now, O Lord, thou dost reiect,
and now thou changest cheer:

Yea thou art wroth with thine elect,
thine own anointed dear.

40 The covenant with thy servant made,
Lord thou hast quite undone:

And down upon the ground also hast cast his royal crown.

The fifth Parr.

41 Thou pluck'st his hedges up with his walls thou dost confound: fighers,

Thou beatest eke his bulwarks down,
and break'st them to the ground:

42 That he is sore destroy'd and torn,
of comers by thorough:

And so is made a mock and scorn
to all that dwell about.

43 Thou their right hand hast lifted up,
that him so fore annoy:

And all his foes that him devour,
so thou hast made to joy.

44 His sword's edge thou dost take away
that should his foes withstand:

To him in war no victory
thou giv'st, nor upper hand.

45 His glory thou dost also waste;
his throne, his joy, his mirth,

By thee are overthrown, and cast
full low upon the earth.

46 Thou hast cut off and made full short
his youth and lusty days,

And rais'd of him an ill report,
with shame and great dispraise.

47 How long away from me, O Lord,
for ever wilt thou turn?

And shall thine anger still away,
as fire consume and burn?

48 O call to minde, remember then,
my time consumeth fast:

Why hast thou made the formes of men
as things in vain to waste?

49 What man is he that liveth here,
and death shall never see?

Or from the hand of Hell his soul
shall he deliver free?

50 Where is (O Lord) thine old goodnesse
so oft declar'd before,

Which by thy truth and uprightness
to David thou hast swore?

51 The great rebukes to minde I call,
that on thy servant lie:

The railings of the people all
borne in my brest have I:

52 Wherewith (O Lord) thine enemies
blasphemed have thy Name:

The steps of thine anointed One
they cease nor to defame.

53 All praise to thee, O Lord of hosts,
both now and eke for aye:

Through skie and earth, and all the end
Amen, Amen, I say.

PSALM xc. I. H.

Thou Lord hast been our sure defence
our place of ease and rest:

In all times past, yea so long since,
as cannot be exprest.

54 Ere there was made mountain or
the earth and world abroad:

From age to age, and always still,
for ever thou art God.

55 Thou grindest man through grief
to dust, or clay, and then,

And then thou saist, again, Return
again ye sonnes of men.

4 The lasting of a thousand years,
what is it in thy sight?
As yesterday it doth appear,
or as a watch by night.
5 So soon as thou dost scatter them,
then is their life and trade
All as a sleep, and like the grass,
whose beauty soon doth fade.
6 Which in the morning shines full but fadeth by and by: (bright
And is cut down ere it be night,
all withered, dead and drie.

7 For through thine anger we consume,
our might is much decayd:
And of thy seruent wrath and fume
we are full sore afraid.
8 The wicked works that we have wrought
thou setst before thine eye:
Our privy faults, yea eke our thoughts
thy countenance doth spie.
9 For through thy wrath our days do thereof doth nought remain: (waste,
Our years consume as words or blasts,
and are not cal'd again.
10 Our time is threescore years and ten,
that we do live on mold:
If one see fourscore, surely then,
we count him wondrous old.

The second Parr.

11 Yet of this time the strength & chief
the which we count upon,
is nothing else but painfull grief,
and we as blasts are gone. (there 12 Who once doth know what strength is what might thine anger hath:
Or in his heart who doth thee fear,
according to thy wrath?

13 Instruct us, Lord, to know and try,
how long our daies remain:
That then we may our hearts apply
true wisdom to attain.
14 Return, O Lord, how long wilt thou forth on in wrath proceed?
Shew favour to thy servants now,
and help them at their need.

15 Refresh us with thy mercy soon,
and then our joy shall be,
All times so long as life doth last,
in heart rejoyce will we.
16 As thou hast plagued us before,
now also make us glad:
And for the years wherein full sore affliction we have had.

17 O let thy work and power appear
and on thy servants light:
And shew unto thy children dear,
thy glory and thy might.

18 Lord let thy grace and glory stand on us thy servants thus:
Confirm the works we take in hand,
Lord prosper them to us.

PSALM xci. J. H.

19 That within the secret place
of God most high doth dwell.

19 In shadow of the mightiest grace,
at rest shall keep him well.
2 Thou art my hope and my strong hold
I to the Lord will say:
My God is he in him will I
my whole affiance stay.

3 He shall defend thee from the snare,
the which the hunter laid:
And from the deadly plague and care,
whereof thou art afraid.

4 And with his wings shall cover thee,
and keep thee safely there:
His faith and truth thy fence shall be,
as sure as shield and spear.

5 So that thou shalt not need, I say,
to fear or be affright:
Of all the shafts that die by day,
nor terrors of the night.

6 Nor of the plague that privily
doth walk in dark so fast:
Nor yet of that which doth destroy,
and at noon day doth waste.

7 Yea at thy side as thou dost stand,
a thousand dead shall be,
Ten thousand eke at thy right hand,
and yet shalt thou be free.

8 But thou shalt see it for thy part,
thine eyes shall well regard:
That even like to their desert
the wicked have reward.

9 For why? O Lord, I only trust,
to stay my hope on thee:
And in the high it I put my trust,
my sure defence is he.

10 Thou shalt not need none ill to fear,
with thee it shall be well:
Nor yet the plague shall once come near
the house where thou dost dwell.

11 For why? unto his Angels all,
with charge commanded he:
That still in all thy ways they shall preserve and prosper thee.

12 And in their hands shall bear thee up,
still waiting thee upon:
So that thy foot shall never chance
to spurn at any stone.

13 Upon the Lions thou shalt go,
the Adder fell and long:
And tread upon the Lions young,
with Dragons stout and strong.

14 For he that trusteth unto me,
I will acquit him quite:
And him defend, because that he doth know my Name aright.

15 When he for help on me doth cry,
an answer I will give:
And from his grief take him will I
in glory for to live.

16 With length of yeares and dayes of
I will fulfil his time: (wealth
The goodnesse of my saving health
I will declare to him.

PSALM xciii. J. 9.

17 It is a thing both good and meet,
to praise the highest Lord:

A id to thy Name, O thou most High,
 to sing with one accord.
 To shew the kindnesse of the Lord,
 became ere day be light :
 And eke declare his truth abroad,
 when it doth draw to night.
 Upon ten-stringed instruments,
 on Lute and Harp so sweet :
 With all the mirth you can invent,
 of instruments most meet.
 For thou hast made me to rejoyce
 in things so wrought by thee :
 And I have joy in heart and voice,
 thy handy-works to see.
 O Lord, how glorious and how great,
 are all thy works so stout ?
 So deeply are thy counsels set,
 that none can try them out.
 The man-unwise hath not the wit,
 these things to pass to bring :
 And all such fools are nothing fit
 to understand this thing.
 When so the wicked at their will,
 as grass do spring fall fast :
 They when they flourish in their ill,
 for ever shall be waste.
 But thou art mighty, Lord, most High,
 yea thou dost reign therefore :
 In every time eternally,
 both now and evermore.
 For why ? O Lord behold and see,
 behold thy foes I say :
 How all that work iniquity,
 shall perish and decay.
 But thou like as an Unicorn
 shalt lift mine horn on high :
 With fresh and new prepared oyle,
 thine oyled King am I.
 And of my foes before mine eyes
 shall see the fall and shame :
 Of all that up against me rise,
 mine ears shall hear the same.
 The just shall flourish up on high,
 as Date-trees bud and blow :
 And as the Cedars multiply,
 in Libanus that grow.
 For they are planted in the place,
 and dwelling of our God :
 Within his courts they spring apace,
 and flourish all abroad.
 And in their age much fruit shall bring
 both far and well be seen :
 And pleasantly both bud and spring,
 with boughs and branches green.
 To shew that God is good and just,
 and upright in his will :
 He is my rock, my hope, and trust,
 in him there is none ill.
 PSALM xciii. J. H.

The Lord as King aloft doth reign,
 with glory goodly dight :
 And he to shew his strength most main,
 hath girt himself with might.

The Lord likewise the earth hath made
 and shap'd it so sure ;
 No might can make it move or fade,
 at stay it doth endure.
 Ere that the world was made or wrought
 thy seat was set before :
 Beyond all time that can be thought
 thou hast been evermore.
 The floods, O Lord, the floods do rise,
 they roar and make a noise :
 The floods (I say) did enterprize,
 and lifted up their voice.
 Yea, though the storms arise in fight,
 though seas do rage and swell :
 The Lord is strong and more of might,
 for he on high doth dwell.
 And look what promise he doth make,
 his household to defend :
 For just and true they shall it take,
 all times without an end.
 PSALM xciv. J. H.
 O Lord thou dost revenge all wrong,
 that office 'longs to thee :
 Sith vengeance doth to thee belong,
 declare that all may see,
 Set forth thy self, for thou of right
 the earth dost judge and guide :
 Reward the proud and men of might
 according to their pride,
 How long shall wicked men bear sway,
 with lifting up their voice ?
 How long shall wicked men, I say,
 thus triumph and rejoyce ?
 How long shall they with brags burst
 and proudly prate their fill ?
 Shall they rejoyce that be so stout,
 whose works are ever ill ?
 Thy flock, O Lord, thine herirage,
 they spoil and vex full sore :
 Against thy people they do rage
 still daily more and more.
 The widows which are comfortless,
 and strangers they destroy :
 They slay the children fatherlesse,
 and none doth put them by.
 And when they take those things in hand
 this talk they have of thee :
 Can Jacobs God this understand ?
 nash, no, he cannot see.
 O folk unwise and people rude,
 some knowledge now discern :
 Ye fools among the multitude,
 at length begin to learn.
 The Lord which made the ear of man,
 he needs of right must hear :
 He made the eye, all things must then before his sight appear.
 The Lord doth all the world correct
 and make them understand :
 Shall he not then your deeds detect ?
 how can you scape his hand ?
 The second Part (ms)
 The Lord doth know the thoughts of his heart he sees full plain :

The Lord (I say) mans thoughts doth scan
and findeth them but vain.

12 But Lord that man is happy sure,
whom thou dost keep in awe :
And through correction dost procure
to teach him in thy Law.

13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest
in time of trouble sit :
When wicked men shall be suppress'd,
and fall into the pit.

14 For sure, the Lord will not refuse
his people for to take :
His heritage whom he did chuse,
he will no time forsake.

15 Until that judgment be decreed
to justice to convert :
That all may follow her with speed,
that are of upright heart.

16 But who upon my part shall stand against the cursed train ?

Or who shall rid me from their hand
that wicked works maintain ?

17 Except the Lord had been mine aid,
mine enemies to repell :

My soul and life had now been laid
almost as low as hell.

18 When I did say my foot did slide
I now am like to fall :

Thy goodness, Lord, did so provide
to stay me up withall.

19 When with my self I mused much,
and could no comfort find :

Then Lord thy goodness did me touch,
and that did ease my mind.

20 Wilt thou inhaunt thy self and draw with wicked men to sit ?

Which with pretence instead of law,
much mischief do commit.

21 For they consult against the life
of righteous men and good :

And in their counsels they are ripe,
to shed the guiltless blood.

22 But yet the Lord he is to me
a strong defence or lock :

He is my God, to whom I flee,
he is my strength and rock.

23 And he shall cause their mischiefs all themselves for to annoy :

And in their malice they shall fall,
our God shall them destroy.

PSALM xc. J. H.

○ Come let us lift up our voice,
and sing unto the Lord :

In him our rock of health rejoice
let us with one accord.

2 Yea let us come before his face,
to give him thanks and praise :

In singing Psalms unto his grace,
let us be glad always.

3 For why ? the Lord he is no doubt
a great and mighty God :

A King above all gods, throughout
in all the world abroad.

4 The secrets of the earth so deep
and corners of the land :
The tops of hills that are so steep,
he hath them in his hand.

5 The sea and waters all are his,
for he the same hath wrought :
The earth and all that therein is,
his hand hath made of nought.

6 Come let us bow and praise the Lord,
before him let us fall :
And kneel to him with one accord,
the which hath made us all.

7 For why ? he is the Lord our God,
for us he doth provide :

We are his flock, he doth us feed,
his sheep, and he our guide.

8 To day if ye his voice will hear,
then harden not your heart :

As ye with grudging many a year
provok'd me in desert.

9 Whereas your fathers tempted me,
my power for to prove :

My wondrous works when they did see
yet still they would me move.

10 Twice twenty years they did me grieve
and I to them did say,

They erre in heart, and not believe,
they have not known my way.

11 Wherefore I sware, when that my wrath
was kindled in my brest,

That they should never tread the path
to enter in my rest.

PSALM xcvi. J. H.

Sing ye with praise unto the Lord,
new songs with joy and mirth :

Sing unto him with one accord,
all people on the earth.

2 Yea sing unto the Lord, I say,
praise ye his holy Name :

Declare and shew from day to day
salvation by the same.

3 Among the heathen eke declare his honour round about :

To shew his wonders do not spare,
in all the world throughout.

4 For why, the Lord is much of might
and worthy praise alway :

And he is to be dread of right,
above all gods, I say.

5 For all the gods of heathen folk
are idols that will fade :

But yet our God, he is the Lord
that hath the heavens made.

6 All praise and honour eke do dwell
for aye before his face :

Both power and might likewise excell
within his holy place.

7 Ascribe unto the Lord alway,
ye people of the world :

All might and worship eke I say,
ascribe unto the Lord.

8 Aſcribe unto the Lord alſo,
the glory of his Name :
And eke unto his courts do go,
with gifts unto the ſame.

The ſecond Part.

9 Fall down and worſhip ye the Lord,
within his Temple bright :

Let all the people of the world
be fearfull at his fight.

10 Tell all the world, be not aſt,
the Lord doth raign above :
Yea, he hath ſet the earth ſo faſt,
that it can never move.

11 And that it is the Lord alone that rules with princely might :

To judge the nations every one
with equity and right.

12 The heavens ſhall great joy begin,
the earth eke ſhall rejoyce :

The ſea and all that is therein,
ſhall ſhout and make a noiſe.

13 The field ſhall joy, and every thing
that ſpringeth on the earth :

The wood and every tree ſhall ſing
with gladneſs and with mirth.

14 Before the preſence of the Lord,
and coming of his might :

When he ſhall juſtly judge the world,
and rule his folk with right.

PſALM xcviij. J. H.

THe Lord doth raign, whereat ſ earth
may joy with pleaſant voice :

And eke the Iſtes with joyfull mirth
may triumph and rejoyce.

1 Both clouds and darkneſs eke do ſwell
and round about him bear :

Yea right and juſtice ever dwell,
and hide about his ſeat.

2 Yea ſee and hear at once do run,
and go before his face :

Which ſhall his foes and enemies burn abroad in every place.

3 His lightnings eke full bright did blaze
and to the world appear :

Whereat the earth did looke and gaze,
with dread and deadly fear.

4 The hills like wax did melt in fight
and preſence of the Lord :

They fled before that Rulers might,
which guideth all the world.

5 The heavens eke declare and ſhow
his juſtice forth abroad :

That all the world may ſee and know
the glory of our God.

6 Confuſion ſure will come to ſuch
as worſhip idols vain :

And eke to thoſe that glory much,
dumb pictures to maintain.

7 For all the idols of the world
which they as gods do call,

ſhall ſee the power of the Lord,
and down to him ſhall fall:

8 With joy ſhall ſion hear this thing,
and juda ſhall rejoyce.

For at thy judgments they ſhall ſing,
and make a pleaſant noiſe:

10 That thou, O Lord, art ſet on high,
in all the earth abroad :

And art exalted wondrously
above each other god.

11 All ye that fear the Lord, do this,
hate all things that are ill :

For he doth keep the ſouls of his
from ſuch as would them ſpill.

12 And light doth ſpring up to the juſt,
with pleaſure for his part :

Great joy with gladneſs, mirth, and luſt,
to them of upright heart.

13 Ye righteous in the Lord rejoyce,
his holineſs proclaim :

Be thankfull eke with heart and voice,
and mindfull of the ſame.

PſALM xcviij. J. H.

O Sing ye now unto the Lord,
a new and pleaſant ſong, (world)

For he hath wrought throughout the his wonders great and ſtrong.

2 With his right hand full worthily,
he doth his foes devour :

And get himſelf the victory,
with his own arm and power.

3 The Lord doth make his people know
his ſaving health and might :

The Lord doth eke his juſtice ſhow,
in all the heathens fight.

4 His grace and truth to Iſrael,
in mind he doth record :

That all the earth hath ſeen right well
the goodneſs of the Lord.

5 Be glad in him with joyfull voice,
all people of the earth :

Give thanks to God, ſing and rejoyce,
to him with joy and mirth.

6 Upon the harp unto him ſing,
give thanks to him with Pſalmes :

Rejoyce before the Lord our King,
with Trumpets and with Shalmes.

7 Yea let the ſea with all therein
for joy both roar and ſwell :

The earth likewiſe let it begin,
with all that therein dwell.

8 And let the floods rejoyce their ſil,
and clap their hands apace :

And eke the mountains and the hills
before the Lord his face.

9 For he ſhall come to judge and trie
the world and every wight :

And rule the people mightily
with juſtice and with right.

PſALM xcix. J. H.

THe Lord doth raign, although at it
the people rage full fore :

Yea he on Cherubims doth ſit,
though all the world doth roar.

2 The Lord that doth in ſion dwell,
is high and wondrous great :

Above all folk he doth exell,
and he aloft is ſet.

3 Let all men praise thy mighty Name,
for it is fearfull sure:
And let them magnifie the same,
that holy is and pure.

4 The princely power of our King
doth love iudgment and right:
Thou rightly rulest every thing
in Jacob through thy might.

5 To praise the Lord our God devise,
all honour to him doe:
Before his footstool worship him,
for he is holy too.

6 Moses, Aaron, and Samuel,
as Priests on him did call:
When they did pray he heard them wel,
and gave them answer all.

7 Within the cloud to them he spake,
then did they labour still,
To keep such laws as he did make,
and pointed them untill.

8 O Lord our God thou didst them hear,
and answeredst them again:
Thy mercy did on them appear,
their deeds didst not maintain.

9 O laud and praise our God and Lord
within his holy hill:
For why? our God throughout the world
is holy ever still.

PSALM C. J. H.

Al people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with cheerful voices:
a Him serve with fear, his praise forth tel,
come ye before him and rejoyce.

3 The Lord ye know is God indeed, without our aid he did us make:
We are his flock, he doth us feed,
and for his sheep he doth us take.

4 O enter then his gates with praise,
approach with joy his courts unto:
Praise, laud, and blefs his Name alwaies,
for it is seemly so to do.

5 For why? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for ever sure:
His truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same by J. H.

IN God the Lord he glad and light,
praise him throughout the earth:
Serve him and come before his sight
with singing and with mirth.

a Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did us make and keep:
Not we our selves, for we are his own flock and pasture sheep.

3 O go into his gates alwaies,
give thanks within the same:
Within his courts set forth his praise,
and laud his holy Name.

4 For why? the goodness of the Lord
for evermore doth reign:
From age to age throughout the world,
his truth doth still remain.

PSALM cii. N.

1 Mercy will and judgment sing,
O Lord God unto thee:

a And wisely do in perfect way,
untill thou come to me.
And in the midst of my house walk,
in pureness of my spirit:

3 And I no kind of wicked thing,
will set before my sight.

I hate their works that fall away,
it shall not cleave to me:

4 From me shall part the froward heart;
none evil will I see.

5 Him will I stroy that slandereth
his neighbour privily:
The lousy heart I cannot bear,
nor him that looketh hie.

6 Mine eyes shall be on them within,
the land that faithfull be:
In perfect way who walketh shall be servant unto me.

7 I will no guilfull person have
within my house to dwell:
And in my presence he shall not remain that lies doth tell.

8 Betimes I will destroy even all
the wicked of the land:
That I may from Gods City cut,
the wicked workers hand.

PSALM cii. N.

O Hear my prayer, Lord, and let
my cry come unto thee:

a In time of trouble do not hide
thy face away from me.

3 Incline thine ear to me, make haste
to hear me when I call:
For as the smoke doth fade, so do
my days consume and fall.

4 And as an hearth my bones are burnt,
my heart is smitten dead:
And withers like the grass, that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of my groaning voice,
my bones cleave to my skin:

6 As Pelican in wilderness,
such case now am I in.

7 And as an Owle in desert is,
so I am such an one:

I watch, and as a Sparrow on
the house top am alone.

8 Lo daily in reproachfull wise,
mine enemies do me scorn:
And they that do against me rage,
against me they have sworn.

9 Surely with ashes as with bread,
my hunger I have filld:
And mingled have my drink with tears,
that from mine eyes have filld.

10 Because of thy displeasure Lord,
thy wrath and thy disdain:
For thou hast lifted me above,
and cast me down again.

11 The daies wherein I passe my life,
are like the fleeting shade:
And I am withered like the grass,
which soon away doth fade.
12 But thou O Lord for ever dost
remain in steady place:
And thy remembrance ever doth abide from race to race.

The second Part.

13 Thou wilt arise, and mercy thou
to Sion wilt extend:
The time of mercy, now the time
forever is come to end.
14 For even in the stones thereof
thy servants do delight:
And on the dust thereof they have compassion in their spite.
15 Then shall the heathen people fear
the Lords most holy name:
And all the Kings on earth shall dread,
thy glory and thy fame.
16 Then when the Lord the mighty God again shall Sion rear:
And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appear.
17 To prayer of the desolate,
when he himself doth bend:
When he shall nor disdain unto their prayers to attend.
18 This shall be written for the age
that after shall succeed:
The people yet uncreased
the Lords renown shall spread.
19 For he from his high Sanctuary
hath looked down below:
And out of heaven hath the Lord
beheld the earth also.
20 That of the mourning captive he might hear the woful cry:
And that he might deliver those
that damned are to dy.
21 That they in Sion may declare
the Lords most holy Name:
And in Jerusalem set forth
the praises of the same.
22 Then when the people of the lands
and kingdoms with accord,
shall be assembled for to do their service to the Lord.

The third Part.

23 My former force of strength he hath abated in the way:
And shorter he hath cut my daies;
thus I therefore did say:
24 My God in midst of all my daies
now take me not away:
Thy years endure eternally,
from age to age I say.
25 Thou the foundations of the earth
before all times hast laid:
And Lord, the heavens are the work
which thine own hands have made.

26 Yet they shall perish and decay;
but thou shalt tarry still:
And they shall all in time wax old,
even as a garment will.
27 Thou as a garment shalt them change
and changed they shall be:
But thou dost still abide the same,
thy years do never see.
28 The children of thy servants shall continually endure:
And in thy fight their happy seed
for ever shall stand sure.

PSALM ciii. T. 5.

MY soul give laud unto the Lord,
my spirit shall do the same:
And all the secrets of my heart,
praise ye his holy Name.
2 Give thanks to God for all his gifts,
shew not thy self unkind:
And suffer not his benefits
to slip out of thy mind.
3 That gave thee pardon for thy fault,
and thee restor'd again,
For all thy weak and frail disease,
and heal'd thee of thy pain.
4 That did redeem thy life from death,
from which thou couldst not see:
His mercy and compassion both
he did extend to thee.
5 That fill'd with goodness thy desire,
and did prolong thy youth:
Like as the Eagle casts her bill,
whereby her age renew'd.
6 The Lord with justice doth repay
all such as be oppress:
So that their sufferings and their wrong
are turned to the best.
7 His ways and his commandments
to Moses he did show:
His counsels and his valiant acts
the Israelites did know.
8 The Lord is kind and mercifull
when sinners do him grieve:
The slowest to conceive a wrath,
and readiest to forgive.
9 He chides us not continually,
though we be full of trife:
Nor keeps our faults in memory,
for all our finfull life.
10 Nor yet according to our sins
the Lord doth us regard:
Nor after our iniquities
he doth not us reward.
11 But as the space is wondrous great
twixt earth and heaven above;
So is his goodness much more large
to them that do him love.
12 God doth remove our sins from us,
and our offences all,
As far as is the Sun rising
full distant from his fall.

The second Part.

- 2 And look what pity parents dear
unto their children bear:
Like pity beareth God so such as worship him in fear.
- 4 The Lord that made us knows our
our mould and fashion just: (shape)
How weak and frail our nature is,
and how we are but dust.
- 15 And how the time of mortal men
is like the withering hay:
Or like the flower right fair in field,
that fades full soon away.
- 16 Whose gloſs & beauty stormy winds
do utterly disgrace:
And make that after their assaults
such blossoms have no place.
- 17 But yet the goodness of the Lord
with his shall ever stand:
Their childrens children shall receive
his righteousness at hand.
- 18 I mean, which keep his covenant
with all their whole desire:
And not forget to do the thing
that he doth them require.
- 19 The heavens high are made the seat
and foot-stool of the Lord:
And by his power imperiall
he governs all the world.
- 20 Ye Angels which are great in power,
praise ye and bleſs the Lord:
Which to obey and do his will,
immediately accord.
- 21 Ye noble host and ministers,
cease not to laud him still:
Which ready are to execute
his pleasure and his will.
- 22 Yea all his works in every place
praise ye his holy Name:
My heart, my mind, and eke my soul
praise ye also the same.

PSALM. civ. W. K.

MY soul praise the Lord,
speak good of his Names
O Lord our great God,
how dost thou appear
So passing in glory,
that great is thy fame!
Honour and Majesty
in thee thine most clear.

2 With light as a robe
thou hast thee beclad:
Whereby all the earth
thy greatness may see:
The heaven in such sort
thou also hast spread,
That it to a curtain
compared may be.

3 His chamber-beams lie
in the clouds full sure Which as his chariot
are made him to bear

And there with much swiftness
his course doth endure,
Upon the wings riding
of winds in the air.

4 He maketh his spirits
as Heralds to go:
And lightnings to serve,
we see also prest:
His will to accomplish,
they run to and fro,
To save or consume things,
as seemeth him best.

5 He groundeth the earth
so firmly and fast,
That it once to move
none shall have such power:
6 The deep a fair covering
for it made thou hast:
Which by his own nature
the hills would devour.

7 But at thy rebuke
the waters do flie:
And so give due place
thy word to obey:
At thy voice of thunder
so fearful they be:
That in their great rage,
they haste soon away.

8 The mountains full high
they then up ascend:
If thou dost but speak,
thy word they fulfill:
So likewise the vallies
most quickly descend,
Where thou them appointed remain they do still.

9 Their bounds thou hast set,
how far they shall run:
So that in their rage
not that pass they can:
For God hath appointed
they shall not return
The earth to destroy more,
which it late was for man.

The second Part.

10 He sendeth the Springs
to strong streams or lakes,
Which run do full swift
among the huge hills.

11 Where both the wild asses
their thirst oft times slake,
And beasts of the mountains
thereof drink their fill.

12 By these pleasant springs
of fountains full fair,
The fowls of the Air
abide shall and dwell
Who moved by nature
to hop here and there, Among the green branches
their songs shall excel.

23 The mountains to moist
the clouds he doth use :
The earth with his works
is wholly repleat.

24 So as the bruir cattle
he doth not refuse :
But graſs doth provide them,
and herb for mans meat.

25 Yea bread, wine, and oyle
he made for mans sake :
His face to refresh,
and heart to make strong.

26 The Cedars of Liban
this great Lord did make :
Which trees he doth nourish
that grow up so long.

27 In these may birds build,
and make there their nest:
In firre-trees the Storks remain and abide.

28 The high hills are succours
for wild goats to rest :
And eke the rocks stony for Conies to hide.

29 The Moon then is set
her season to run :
The daies from the night
thereby to discern :
And by the descending
also of the Sun,
The cold from heat alway
thereby we do learn.

30 When darkness doth come
by Gods will and power:
Then creep forth do all
the beasts of the wood.

31 The Lions range roaring their prey to devour :
But yet it is thou Lord
which givest them food.

32 As soon as the Sun
is up, they retire :
To couch in their dens
then are they full faire.

33 That man to his work may
as right doth require :
Till night come and call him,
to take rest again.

The third Part.

34 How sundry O Lord,
are all thy works found ?
With wisdom full great
they are indeed wroughts :
So that the whole world
of thy praise doth found :
And as for thy riches,
they pass all mens thought.

35 So is the great sea,
which large is and broad :
Where things that creep swarm,
and beasts of each sort.

36 There both mighty ships sail,
and some lie at road :

The Whale huge and monstrous
there also doth sport.

27 All things on thee wait,
thou dost them relieve :
And thou in due time
full well dost them feed.

28 Now when it doth please thee
the same for to give :
They gather full gladly
those things which they need.

Thou openest thy hand,
and they find such grace,
That they with good things
are filled we see.

29 But sore are they troubled,
if thou turn thy face,
For if thou their breath take,
vile dust then they be.

30 Again when thy Spirit
from thee doth proceed
All things to appoint,
and what shall ensue :
Then are they created,
as thou hast decreed :
And dost by thy goodness
the drie earth renew.

31 The praise of the Lord
for ever shall last :
Who may in his works
by right well rejoyce.

32 His looks can the earth make to tremble full fast :
And likewise the mountains
to smock at his voice.

33 To this Lord and God,
sing will I alway :
So long as I live,
my God praise will I.

34 Then am I most certain
my words shall him please :
I will rejoyce in him,
to him will I cry.

35 The sinners, O Lord,
consume in thine ire :
And eke the perverse,
them root out with shame :
But as for my soul now,
let it still desire,
And say with the faithful,
praise ye the Lords Name.

PSALM cv. N.

Give praises unto God the Lord,
and call upon his Name :
Among the people eke declare his works to spread his fame.

2 Sing ye unto the Lord I say,
and sing unto his praise:
And talk of all his wondrous works
that he hath wrought alway.

3 In honour of his holy Name
rejoyce with one accord :
And let the heart also rejoyce
of them that seek the Lord.

4 Seek ye the Lord, and seek the strength of his eternal might :
And seek his face continually,
and pretence of his fight.

5 The wondrous works that he hath done
keep still in mindfull heart :
Ne let the judgments of his mouth
out of your mind depart.

6 Ye that of faithfull Abraham
his servant are the seed :
Ye his elect, the children that of Jacob do proceed.

7 For he, he onely is I say,
the mighty Lord our God :
And his most rightfull judgments are through all the earth abroad.

8 His promise and his covenant
which he hath made to his,
He hath remembered evermore,
to thousands of degrees.

The second Parr.

9 The covenant which he hath made
with Abraham long ago :
And faithfull oath which he hath sworn to Isaac also.

10 And did confirm the same for law,
that Jacob should obey :
And for eternal covenant
to Israel for aye.

11 When thus he said, Lo, I to you all Canaan land will give :
The lot of your inheritance,
wherein your seed shall live.

12 Although the number at that time
did very small appear :
Yea very small, and in the land
they then but strangers were.

13 While yet they walk'd from land to without a sure abode : (land)
And while from sundry kingdoms they did wander all abroad.

14 And wrong at no oppressors hand
he suffered them to take :
But even the great and mighty Kings
reprieved for their sake.

15 And thus he said, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be :
Ne do the Prophets any harm
that do pertain to me.

16 He call'd a dearth upon the land,
of bread he frozd the store :
But he against the time of need
had sent a man before.

The third Parr.

17 Even Joseph which had once been sold
to live a slave in wo :
Whose feet they hurr in stocks, whose soul
the irons peirc'd also.

18 Until the time came when his cause
was known apparcarly :
The mighty word of God the Lord
his faultless truth did cry.

19 The King sent and delivered him
from prison where he was :
20 The ruler of the people then
did freely let him pass.

21 And over all his house he made him Lord to bear the sway :
And of his substance made him have
the rule and all the stay.

22 That he might to his will instruct the Princes of the land :
And wisdoms lore his ancient men
might cause to understand.

23 Then into the Egyptian land came Israel also :
And Jacob in the land of Ham
did live a stranger tho.

24 His people he exceedingly
in number made to flow,
And over all their enemies
in strength he made them grow.

25 Whose heart he turn'd that they with his people did entreat : (have)
And did his servants wrongfully abuse with false deceit.

The fourth Parr.

26 His faithfull servant Moses then,
and Aaron whom he chose,
He did command to go to them,
his message to disclose.

27 The wondrous meage of his sign
among them he did shew :
And wonders in the land of Ham
then did they work also.

28 Darkness he sent, and made it dark
instead of brighter day :
And unto his commission
they did not disobey.

29 He turn'd their waters into blood,
he did their fishes slay : (place) 30 Their land brought frogs even in the where their King Pharaoh lay.

31 He spake, and at his voice there came great swarms of noisom flies,
And all the quarters of the land
were fill'd with crawling lice.

32 He gave them cold and stony hail
in stead of milder rain :
And fiery flames within their land
he sent unto their pain.

33 He smote their vines and all their trees
whereon their figs did grow :
And all their trees within their coasts
down did he overthrow.

34 He spake, then Caterpillars did
and Grasshoppers abound :
35 Which ate the grafs in all their land,
and fruct of all their ground.

The fifth Parr.

36 The first-begotten in their land
eke deadly he did smite :
Yea the beginning and first fruit
of all their force and might :

37 With gold & silver he them brought from Egypt land to pass :

And in the number of their Tribes
no feeble one there was.

88 Egypt was glad and joyfull then
when they did thence depart :
For terrour and the fear of them
was faim upon their heart.

89 To throude them from the parching heat
a cloud he did display:
And fire he sent to give them light,
when night had hid the day.

90 They asked, and he caused Quails
to rain at their request :
And fully with the bread of heaven
their hunger he reposit :

91 He opened the stony rock,
and waters gush'd our :
And in the dry and parched ground
like rivers ran about.

92 For of his holy covenant
aye mindfull was he tho :

Which to his servant Abraham
he plight'd long ago. (milt)

93 He brought his people forth with
and his elect with joy,
Our of the cruel land, where they had liv'd in great annoy.

94 And of the heathen men he gave to them the fruitfull lands :
The labours of the people eke
they took into their hands.

95 That they his holy statutes might observe for evermore :
And faithfully obey his laws :
praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSA L M cvi. N.

PRaise ye the Lord, for he is good,
his mercy dures for aye :

1 Who can expresse his noble acts,
or all his praise display ?

3 They blessed are that judgment keep,
and justly do alway :
With favour of thy people (Lord)
remember me I pray.

4 And with thy saving health (O Lord)
vouchsafe to visit me :

That I the great felicity
of thine elect may see,

5 And with thy peoples joy I may
a joyfull mind possesse :
And may with thine inheritance
a glorying heart expresse.

6 Both we, and eke our fathers all,
have sinned every one :
We have committ'd wickednesse,
and lewdly we have done.

7 The wonders great which thou (O Lord)
hast done in Egypt land :
Our fathers though they saw them all yet did not understand.

Nor yet thy mercies multitude
did keep in thankful mind :
But at the sea, yea the red sea,
rebell'd most unkind.

8 Nevertheless he saved them
for honour of his Name :
That he might make his power known
and spread abroad his fame.

9 The red sea he did then rebuke,
and forthwith it was dry'd :
And as in wilderness, so through the deep he did them guide.

10 He sav'd them from the cruel hand
of their despitefull foe :
And from the enemies hand he did deliver them also.

The second Part.

11 The waters their oppressours whelm'd
nor one was left alive :

12 Then they believ'd his word, & praise
in song they did him give.

13 But by and by unthankfully
his works they clean forgat :
And for his counsel and his will
they did neglect to wait.

14 But lusted in the wilderness,
with fond and greedy lust :
And in the desert tempt'd God,
the stay of all their trust.

15 And then their wanton mindes desire
he suffer'd them to have :
But wasting leanness chere-wichall unto their souls he gave.

16 Then when they lodg'd in their tents
at Moses they did grutch :
-so did they envy much.

17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devour :
And all Abiram's company
did cover in that hour.

18 In their assembly kindled was,
the hot consuming fire :
And wasting flame did then burn up
the wicked in his ire.

19 Upon the hill of Horeb they
an idol-calf did frame :
And there the molten image they did worship of the same.

20 Into the likeness of a Calf,
which feedeth on the grasse.

Thus they their glory turn'd, and all their honour did deface.

21 And God their only Saviour
unkindly they forgot :
Which many great and mighty things
in Egypt land had wrought.

The third Part.

22 And in the land of Ham for them
most wondrous works had done :
And by the red sea dreadfull things
performed long ago.

23 Therefore for their so shewing them
forgetfull and unkind :

To bring destruction on them all
he purposed in his mind :

Had not his chosen Moses stood before him in the break
To turn his wrath, lest he on them
with laughter should him wreak.
44 They did despise the pleasant land,
that he behight to give:
Yea and the words that he had spoke
they did no whit believe.

45 But in their tents with grudging heart
they wickedly repin'd:
Nor to the voice of God the Lord
they gave an hearkeing mind.
46 Therefore against them lifted he
his strong revenging hand:
Them to destroy in wilderness,
ere they should see the land.

47 And to destroy their seed among
the nations with his rod:
And through the countries of the world
to scatter them abroad.

48 To Baal-Peor then they did adjoyn themselves also:
And ate the offerings of the dead,
so they forsook him tho.

49 Thus with their own inventions
his wrath they did provoke:
And in his fore inkinded wrath
the plague upon them broke.

50 But Rhinew stood up with zeal,
the sinners vile to slay:
And judgement he did execute,
and then the plague did stay.

The fourth Part.

51 It was imputed unto him
for righteousness that day:
And from thenceforth so counted is,
from race to race, I say.

52 At waters eke of Meribah
they did him angry make:
Yea, so far forth, that Moses was then punish'd for their sake.

53 Because they vex'd his spirit so fore,
that in impatient heart
His lips spake unadvisedly,
his seruour was so great.

54 Nor as the Lord commanded them
they slew the people tho.

55 But were among the heathen mix'd and learn'd their works also.

56 And did their idols serve, which were their ruine and decay:

57 To fiends their sons and daughters they did offer up and slay:

58 Yea with unkindly murdering knife
the guiltless blood they spilt:
Yea their own sons and daughters blood,
without all cause of guilt.

Whom they to Canaan idols then
offred with wicked hand:

And so with blood of innocents
defiled was the land.

59 Thus were they stained with the works
of their own filthy way:

And with their own inventions
a whoring they did stray.

40 Therefore against his people was the Lords wrath kindled sore:
And even his own inheritance
he did abhor therefore.

41 Into the hands of heathen men
he gave them for a prey:
And made their foes their Lords, whom were forced to obey. (they)

The fifth Part.

43 Yea and their hateful enemies
oppress them in the land:
And they were humbly made to stoop
as subject to their hand.

43 Full oftentimes from thrall had he delivered them before:
But with their counsels they to wrath
provok'd him evermore.

Therefore they by their wickednesse
were brought full low to lie:

44 Yet when he saw them in distresse
he hearkned to their cry.

45 He call'd to minde his covenant,
which he to them had swore:
And by his mercies multitude repented him therefore.

45 And favour he them made to find
before the sight of those That led them captive from their land
when erit they were their foes.

47 Save us O Lord that art our God,
save us (O Lord) we pray:
And from among the heathen folk
Lord gather us away.

48 That we may spread the noble praise
of thy most holy Name:

That we may glory in thy praise,
and sounding of thy fame.

49 The Lord the God of Israel
be blest for evermore:

Let all the people say, Amen,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSALM. cvii. W. K.

GIVE thanks unto the Lord our God,
for gracious is he:

And that his mercy hath no end
all mortal men may see.

2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath,
with thanks shall praise his Name:
And shew how they from foes were freed
and how he wrought the same.

3 He gathered them forth of the lands
that lay so far about:
From East to West, from North to South
his hand did finde them out.

4 They wandred in the wilderness,
and strayed from the way.

And found no city where to dwell,
that serve might for their stay.

5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great
in these deserts so void:

That

That faintness did them sore assault,
and eke their souls annoy'd.

6 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid :
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they prayd.

7 And by that way which was most right,
he led them like a guide :
That they might to a City go,
and there also abide.

8 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his goodness then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.

9 For he the empty soul sustain'd whom thirst had made to faint :
The hungry soul with goodness fed,
and did them eke acquain.

10 Such as do dwell in darkness deep,
where they on death do wait,
Fast bound to taste such troublous forms
as iron chains do threat.

The second part.

11 For that against the Lords own words
they fought for to rebel :
Esteeming high, his counsell high,
which do so far excell.

12 But when he humbled them full low,
they then fell down with grief :
And none was found so much to help,
whereby to get relief.

13 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid :
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they prayd.

14 For he from darkness out them brought
and from deaths dreadful shade :
Bursting with force the iron bands
which them before did lade :

15 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.

16 For he threw down the gates of brass
and brake them with strong hand :
The iron bars he smote in two,
nothing could him withstand.

17 The foolish folk great plagues do feel
and cannot from them wend :
But heap on more to those they have,
because they do offend.

18 Their souls so much did loath al meat
that none they could abide :
Whereby death had them almost caught,
as they full truly tri'd.

19 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid :
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they prayd.

20 For then he sent to them his word
which health did soon restore :

And brought them from those dangers
wherein they were before,

(leap

The third Part.

21 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.

22 And let them offer sacrifice
with thanks and also fear :
And speak of all his wondrous works
with glad and joyfull cheer.

23 Such as in ships and brittle barks
into the seas descend :
Their merchandise through fearful floods
to compass and to end.

24 Those men are forced to behold
the Lords works what they be :
And in the dangerous deep the same,
most marvellous they see.

25 For at his word the stormy wind
ariseh in a rage :
And stirreth up the surges so,
that nought can them aswage.

26 Then are they lifted up so high,
the clouds they seem to gain :
And plunging down the depth untill
their souls consume with pain.

27 And like a drunkard to and fro,
now here, now there they reel :
As men with fear of wit bereft,
or had of sense no feel.

28 Then did they cry in their distress
unto the Lord for aid :
Who did remove their troublous state
according as they prayd.

29 For with his word the Lord doth make the sturdy storms to cease :
So that the great waves from their rage
are brought to rest and peace.

30 Then are men glad when rest is come
which they so much did crave :
And are by him in haven brought,
which they so fain would have.

The fourth Part.

31 Let men therefore before the Lord
confess his kindness then :
And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sons of men.

32 Let them in presence of the folk :
with praise extoll his Name :
And where the Elders do consent,
there let them do the same.

33 For running floods to drie deserts
he doth oft change and turn :
And drieth up as it were dust
the springing well and bourn.

34 A fruitfull land with pleasures deck'd
full barren he doth make,
When on their sins that dwell therein
he doth just vengeance take.

35 Again, the wilderness full rude
he maketh fruit to bear :
With pleasant springs of waters clear,
though none before were there.

36. Whence

35 Wherein such hungry souls are set,
as he doth freely chuse:
That they a City might them build,
to dwell in for their use.

37 That they may sow their pleasant land
and vineyards also plant,
To yeild them fruit of such increase,
as none may seem to want.

38 They multiply exceedingly,
the Lord doth bless them so:
Who doth also the bruis beats make
by numbers great to grow.

39 But when 7 faithfull are low brought
by the oppressors scour:
And minish do through many plagues
that compass them about.

40 Then doth he Princes bring to shame
which did them sore oppress:
And likewise caused them to erre
within the wilderness.

41 But yet the poor he raiseth up out of their troubles deep:
And oft times doth his train augment
much like a flock of sheep.

42 The righteous shall behold this fight,
and also much joyce:
Whereas the wicked and perverse
with grief shall stop their voice.

43 But who is wise, that now full well
he may these things record:
For certainly such shall perceive
the kindness of the Lord.

PSALM cxiii. J. H.

O God my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is so:
I will advance my voice in song,
and giving thanks also:

1 Awake my violl and my harp,
sweet melody to make:
And in the morning I my self
right early will awake.

2 By me among the people, Lord,
still praised shalt thou be:
And I among the heathen folk
will sing, O Lord, to thee.

3 Because thy mercy, Lord, is great,
above the heavens he:
And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds
within the lofty skie.

4 Above the starry heavens high exalt thy self O God:
And Lord display upon the earth
thy glory all abroad.

5 That thy dearly beloved may be set at liberty:
Help O my God with thy right hand,
and hearken unto me.

6 In his holiness hath spoke,
wherefore my joys abound:
Sichem I will divide, and mete
the vale of Succoth ground.

7 And Gilead shall be mine own, Manasse mine shall be:

My head-strength Ephraim, and law
shall Iuda give for me.

8 Moab my wash-pot, and my shoe
on Edom will I throw:
Upon the land of Palestine
in triumph will I go.

9 Who shall into the City strong
be guide to conduct me?
Or how by whom to Edom land conveyed shall I be?

10 Is it not thou O Lord which late hast us forsaken quite?
And thou O Lord which with our host
didst not go forth to fight.

11 Give us O Lord thy saving aid,
when troubles do assail:
For all the help of man is vain,
and can no whit avail.

12 Through God we shall do valiant acts
and worthy of renown:
He shall subdue our enemies,
yea he shall tread them down.

PSALM cix. N.

I N speechless silence do not hold
O God thy tongue always:
O God even thou I say that art
the God of all my praise.

1 The wicked and the gullfull mouth
on me disclosed be:
And they with false and lying tongues
have spoken unto me.

2 They did beset me round about
with words of hatefull spight:
Without all cause of my desert
against me they did fight.

3 For my good will they are my foes,
but then gan I to pray:
My good with ill, my friendliness
with hate they did repay.

4 Set thou the wicked over him,
to have the upper hand:
At his right hand eke suffer thou
his hatefull foe to stand.

5 When he is judged, let him then condemned be therein:
And let the prayer that he makes,
be turned into sin.

6 Few be his days, his charge also let thou another take:
His children let be fatherless,
his wife a widow make.

7 Let his off-spring be vagabonds,
to beg and seek their bread:
Wandering out of the wasted place
where ere they have been fed.

8 Let covetous extortioners
catch all his goods and store:
And let the strangers spoil the fruit
of all his toyl before.

9 Let there be none to pity him,
let there be none at all:

Thou

That on his children fatherless
will let their mercy fall.

The second Part.

23 And so let his posterity
for ever be desir'd :
Their name our-blotter'd in the age
that after shall succeed.

14 Let not his fathers wickedness
from Gods remembrance fall :
And let not thou his mothers sin
be done away at all.

15 But in the presence of the Lord
let them remain for aye :
That from the earth their memory
he may cut clean away.

16 Sith mercy he forgot to shew,
but did pursue with spight
The troubled man, and fought to slay
the wofull-hearted wight.

17 As he did cursing love, it shall betide unto him so :

And as he did not blessing love,
it shall be far him fro.

18 As he with cursing clad himself,
so it like water shall flow his bowels, and like oyl
into his bones besfall.

19 As garments let it be to him
to cover him for aye :
And as a girdle wherewith he may girded be alway.

20 Lo let the same be from the Lord
the guerdon of my foe :
Yea, and of those that evil speak against my soul also.

21 But thou O Lord, which art my God,
deal thou (I say) with me
After thy Name, deliver me,
for great thy mercies be.
22 Because in depth of great distress
I needy am and poor :
And eke within my pained breast
my heart is wounded sore.

The third Part.

23 Even so do I depart away,
as doth declining shade :

And as the Grasshopper, so I am shaken off and fade.

24 With fasting long from needfull food
enfeebled are my knees :
And all her farnesse hath my flesh
enforced been to leave.

25 And I also a vile reproach
to them am made to be :
And they that did upon me look,
did shake their heads at me.

26 But thou O Lord, that art my God,
mine aid and succour be :
According to thy mercy Lord,
save and deliver me.

27 And they shall know thereby, that this (Lord) is thy mighty hand :

And that thou, thou hast done it, Lord,
so shall they understand.

28 Although they curse & spite, yet thou shalt blest with loving voice :

They shall arise and come to shame,
thy servant shall rejoyce,

29 Let them be clothed all with shame
that enemies are to me :

And with confusion as a cloke
eke covered let them be.

30 But greatly I will with my mouth
give thanks unto the Lord :

And I among the multitude
his praises will record.

31 For he with help at his right hand will stand the poor man by :

To save him from the man that would condemn his soul to die.

PSALM cx. N.

THE Lord did say unto my Lord,
sit thou at my right hand :

Till I have made thy foes a stool
whereon thy feet shall stand.

2 The Lord shall out of Sion send the Scepter of thy might :

Amid thy mortal foes be thou
the ruler in their fight.

3 And in the day on which thy might
and power they shall see :

Then hereby free-will-offerings shall
the people offer thee,

Yea with an holy worshipping
then shall they offer all :

Thy births-dew is the dew that doth
from womb of morning fall.

4 The Lord hath sworn, and never will repent what he doth say :

By th order of Melchisedech,
thou art a Priest for aye.

5 The Lord thy God, on thy right hand shalt standest for thy stay,

Shall wound for thee the starry Kings
upon his wrathfull day.

6 The heathen he shall judge, and fill
the place with bodies dead :

And over divers countries shall
in sunder smite the head.

7 And he shall drink out of the brook
that runneth in the way :

Wherefore he shall lift up on high
his royall head that day.

PSALM cxii. N.

WITH heart I do accord,
To praise and laud the Lord

In presence of the just.

2 For great his works are found,
To search them such are bound,

As him do love and trust.

3 His works are glorious
Also his righteousness

It doth endure for ever.

4 His wondrous works he would
We still remember should :

His mercy faileth never

3 Such as to him love bear,
A portion full fair
He hath up for them laid,
For this they shall well finde,
He will them have in minde,
And keep them as he said.
4 For he did not disdain
His works to shew them plain,
By lightnings and by thunders:
When he the heathens land
Did give into their hand,
Where they beheld his wonders.

7 Of all his works enſuch
Both judgment, right and truth,
Whereto his statutes tend:

8 They are decreed ſure
For ever to endure
Which equity doth end:

Redemption he gave
His people for to ſave:

9 And hath alſo required,
His promiſe not to faile,
But always to prevail,
His holy Name be feared.

10 Who ſo with heart full ſaie
True wiſdom would attain,

The Lord fear and obey:
Such as his laws do keep
Shall knowledge have full deep,
His praiſe ſhall laſt for aye.

PSALM cxii. W. K.

THE man is bleſt that God doth fear
And that his law doth love indeed:

1 His ſeed on earth God will uprear,
And bleſs ſuch as from him proceed,

2 His houſe with good he will fulfill,
His righteousneſſe endure ſhall ſtill,

4 Unto the righteous doth ariſe
In trouble joy, in darkneſſe light:
Compaſſion is in his eyes,
And mercy always in his ſight:

5 Yea pety moveth ſuch to lend
He doth by judgment things expend.

6 And ſurely ſuch ſhall never fail:
For in remembrance had is he:

7 No tidings ill can make him quail,
Who in the Lord ſure hope doth ſee.

8 His heart is firm, his fear is paſt,
For he ſhall ſee his foes down caſt.

9 He did well for the poor provide.
His righteousneſſe ſhall ſtill remain:

And his eſtate with praiſe abide,
Though that the wicked man diſdain,

10 Yea gnath his teeth thereat ſhall he
And ſo conſume his ſtate to ſee,

PSALM cxiii. W. K.

YE children which do ſerve the Lord,
Praiſe ye his Name with one accord:

1 Yea bleſſed be always his Name.

2 Who from the riſing of the Sun,
Till it return where it begun,

Is to be praiſed with great fame,

4 The Lord all people doth ſurmounr,
As for his glory we may count,

Above the heavens high to be,

5 With God the Lord who may compare Whoſe dwellings in the heavens are?

Of ſuch great power and force he has

6 He doth abaſe himſelf we know,
Things to behold both here below,
and alſo in heaven above.

7 The needy out of duſt to draw,
And eke the poor which help none ſaw,

His only mercy did him move.

8 And ſo him ſet in high degree,
With Princes of great dignity.

That rule his people with great fame,

9 The barren he doth make to bear,
And with great joy her fruit to rear,

Therefore praiſe ye his holy Name.

PSALM cxiv. W. W.

WHEN Iſrael by Gods addreſſe,
from Tharachs land was bent

And Jacobs houſe the ſtrangers left,
and in the ſame train went.

1 In Juda God his glory ſhewd,
his holineſſe moſt bright:

So did the Iſraelites declare his kingdom, power, and might.

3 The ſea it ſaw, and ſuddenly
as all amaz'd did ſie:

The roaring ſtreams of Jordans flood
recoiled backwardly.

4 As Rams afraid the mountains ſlept,
their ſtrength did them forſake:

And as the ſilly trembling Lambs
their tops did bear and ſhake.

5 What aild the ſea as all amaz'd,
ſo ſuddenly to ſie?

Ye rolling waves of Jordans flood,
why ran ye backwardly?

6 Why ſhook ye hills as Rams afraid?
why did your ſtrength ſo ſhake?

Why did your tops as trembling Lambs
for fear quiver and quake?

7 O earth confeſs thy Sovereign Lord,
and dread his mighty hand:

Before the face of Jacobs God,
fear ye, both ſea and land.

8 I mean the God which from hard rocks
doth cauſe main floods appear:

And from the ſtony ſint doth cauſe,
gush out the fountains clear.

PSALM cxv. N.

NOT unto us, Lord, nor to us,
but to thy Name give praiſe:

Both for thy mercy and thy truth,
that are in thee always.

2 Why ſhall the heathen ſcorners ſay
where is their God become?

3 Our God in heaven is, and what he will, that hath he done.

4 Their idols ſilver are, and gold,
works of mens hands they be:

5 They have a mouth, and do not ſpeak,
and eyes, and do not ſee.

6 And they have ears joynd to their heads
and do not hear at all:

And noſes eke they formed have,
and do not ſmell withall,

7 And hands they have, and handle not,
and feet, and do not go :
A throat they have, yet through the ſmoke
they make no ſound to blow.

8 Thoſe that make them are like to them and thoſe whoſe truſt they be :

9 O Iſrael truſt in the Lord,
their help and ſhield is he.

10 O Aarons houſe truſt in the Lord,
their help and ſhield is he :

11 Truſt ye the Lord that fear the Lord,
their help and ſhield is he.

12 The Lord hath mindfull been of us,
and will us bleſſe alſo :

On Iſrael and on Aarons houſe,
his bleſſings he will ſhow.

13 Them that be fearers of the Lord,
the Lord will bleſſe them all :
Even he will bleſſe them every one,
the great and eke the ſmall.

14 To you (I ſay) the living Lord
will multiply his grace :
To you and to the children that
ſhall follow of your race.

15 Ye are the bleſſed of the Lord,
even of the Lord, I ſay:
Which both the heaven and the earth,
hath made and ſet in Ray.

16 The heavens, yea the heavens high,
beſong unto the Lord :
The earth unto the ſons of men,
he gave of ſce accord :

17 They that be dead do not wiſh praiſe,
ſet forth the Lords renown :
Nor any that into the place,
of ſilence do go down.

18 But we will praiſe the Lord our God
from henceforth and for aye :
Sound ye the praiſes of the Lord,
praiſe ye the Lord, I ſay.

PSALM cxvi. N.

I Love the Lord, becauſe my voice,
and prayer heard hath he :

2 When in my days I cal'd on him,
he bow'd his ear to me.

3 Even when the ſnares of cruel death
about beſet me round :

When pains of hell me caught, and when I wo and ſorrow found.

4 Upon the Name of God my Lord
then did I call, and ſay, Deliver thou my ſoul, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.

5 The Lord is very mercifull,
and juſt he is alſo :
And in our God compaſſion
doth plentifully flow.

6 The Lord in ſafety doth preſerve
all thoſe that ſimple be :
I was in wofull miſery,
and he delivered me.

7 And now my ſoul, ſith thou art ſafe,
return unto thy reſt :

For largely, ſo, the Lord to thee
his bounty hath expreſt.

8 Becauſe thou haſt delivered
my ſoul from deadly thrall :
My moiſtned eyes from mournfull tears,
my ſliding feet from fall.

9 Before the Lord I in the land of life will walk therefore :

10 I did believe, therefore I ſpoke,
for I was troubled ſore.

The ſecond Part.

11 I ſaid in my diſtreſs and ſear
that all men lyars be :

12 What ſhall I pay the Lord for all his benefits to me ?

13 The wholeſome cup of ſaving health
I thankfully will take :

And on the Lords blame I will call,
when I my prayers make.

14 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I to him beſight :

Yea, even at this preſent time
in all his peoples fight.

15 Right dear and precious in his fight
the Lord doth aye eſteem
The death of all his holy ones,
what ever men do deem.

16 Thy ſervant Lord, thy ſervant, ſo,
I do my ſelf confeſs,
Son of thy handmaid : thou haſt broke
the bonds of my diſtreſs.

17 And I will offer up to thee
a ſacrifice of praiſe :

And I will call upon the Name
of God the Lord always.

18 I to the Lord will pay the vows
that I have him beſight :

Yea even at this preſent time,
in all his peoples fight.

19 Yea in the courts of Gods own houſe,
and in the miſt of thee,

O thou Jeruſalem, I ſay,
wherefore the Lord praiſe ye.

PSALM cxvii. N.

O All ye nations of the world,
praiſe ye the Lord alwaies :

And all ye people every where
ſet forth his noble praiſe.

2 For great his kindneſs is to us
his truth endures for aye :

Wherefore praiſe ye the Lord our God,
praiſe ye the Lord, I ſay.

PSALM cxviii. N.

O Give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he :

Becauſe his mercy doth endure
for ever towards thee.

2 Let Iſrael confeſs and ſay,
his mercy dures for aye :

3 Now let the houſe of Aaron ſay,
his mercy dures for aye.

4 Let all that fear the Lord our God
even now confeſs and ſay :

The mercy of the Lord our God
endureth still for aye.

5 In trouble and in heaviness
unto the Lord I cri'd:
Which lovingly heard me at large,
my suit was not deny'd.

6 The Lord himself is on my side,
I will not stand in doubt:
Nor fear what man can do to me,
when God stands me about.

7 The Lord doth take my part with them
that help to succour me:
Therefore I shall see my desire
upon mine enemy.

8 Better it is to trust in God,
than in mans mortal seed:

9 Or to put confidence in Kings,
or Princes in our need.

10 All nations have inclosed me,
and compassed me round:
But in the name of God shall I mine enemies confound.

11 They kept me in on every side,
they kept me in I say:
But in the Lords most mighty Name
I shall work their decay.

12 They came about me all like Bees,
but yet in the Lords Name
I quenched their thorns that were on fire
and will destroy the same.

The second Part.

13 Thou hast with force thrust sore at me
that I indeed might fall:
But through the Lord I found such help
that they were vanquish'd all.

14 The Lord is my defence and strength
my joy, my mirth, my song:
He is become for me indeed,
a Saviour most strong.

15 The right hand of the Lord our God
doth bring to pass great things:
He causeth voice of joy and health
in righteous mens dwellings.

16 The right hand of the Lord doth bring most mighty things to pass:
His hand hath the preeminence,
his force is as it was.

17 I shal' not die, but ever live
to utter and declare
The Lord his might & wondrous power,
his works and what they are.

18 The Lord himself hath chastened,
and hath corrected me:
But hath not given me over yet
to death, as ye may see.

19 Set open unto me the gates of truth and righteousness:
That I may enter into them,
the Lords praise to express.

20 This is the gate even of the Lord,
wh'ch shall not so be shut:
But good and righteous men alway
shall enter into it.

The third Part.

21 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord,
because thou hast heard me;
And art become most lovingly
a Saviour unto me.

22 The stone which ere this time among
the builders was refused:
Is now become the corner stone,
and chiefly to be used.

23 This was the mighty work of God,
this was the Lords own fact:
And it is marvellous to behold
with eyes that noble act.

24 This is the joyful day indeed
which God himself hath wrought
Let us be glad and joy therein,
in heart, in minde, and thought.

25 Now help us, Lord, and prosper us,
we wish with one accord:

26 Blessed is he that comes to us
in the name of the Lord.

27 God is the Lord that shews us light,
binde ye therefore with cord
Your sacrifice to the Altar,
and give thanks to the Lord.

28 Thou art my God, I will confesse
and render thanks to thee.
Thou art my God, and I will praise
thy mercy towards me.

29 O give ye thanks unto the Lord,
for gracious is he:
Because his mercy doth endure
for ever towards me.

PSALM Cxix. W. W.

A L E P H.

Blessed are they that perfect are,
and pure in minde and heart:
Whose lives and conversations
from Gods laws never part.

2 Blessed are they that give themselves
his statutes to observe:
Seeking the Lord with all their hearts,
and never from him swerve.

3 Doubtlesse such men go not astray,
nor do no wicked thing:
Which stedfastly walk in his way
without any wandring.

4 It is thy will and commandment
that with attentive heed
Thy noble and divine precepts,
we learn and keep indeed.

5 O would to God it might thee please
my ways so to address:
That I might both in heart and voice
thy laws keep and confesse.

6 So should no shame my life attain,
whilst I thus set mine eyes:
And bend my minde always to muse
on thy sacred decrees.

7 Then will I raise with upright heart
and magnifie thy Name;
When I shall learn thy judgments just,
and likewise prove the same.

8 And

8 And wholly will I give my self
to keep thy lawes most right.
Forlake me not for ever Lord,
but shew thy grace and might.

B E T H. The second Part.

9 By what means may a young man best
his life learn to amend?

If that he mark and keep thy word,
and therein his time spend.

10 Unfeignedly I have thee sought,
and thus seeking abide:

O never suffer me, O Lord,
from thy precepts to slide.

11 Within my heart and secret thoughts
thy words I have hid still:

That I might not at any time offend thy godly will.

12 We magnifie thy Name O Lord,
and praise thee evermore:

Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
O Lord teach me therefore.

13 My lips have never ceas'd to preach,
and publish day and night.

The judgments all, which did proceed
from thy mouth full of night.

14 Thy testimonies and thy waies,
please me no less indeed,

Then all the treasures of the earth,
which worldlings make their meed.

15 Of thy precepts I will still muse,
and thereto frame my talk:

As at a mark so will I aim,
thy waies how I may walk.

16 My only joy shall be so fix'd,
and on thy lawes so set:

That nothing can me so far blind,
that I thy words forget.

G I M E L. The third Part.

17 Grant to thy servant now such grace
as may my life prolong:

Thy holy Word then will I keep,
both in my heart and tongue.

18 Mine eyes which were dim and shut up
so open and make bright,

That of thy law and marvellous works
I may have the clear sight.

19 I am a stranger in this earth,
wandering now here, now there:

Thy word therefore to me disclose,
my foot-steps for to clear.

20 My soul is ravish'd with desire,
and never is at rest:

But seeks to know thy judgments high,
and what may please thee best.

21 The proud men, and malicious,
thou hast despoild each one:

And curst are such as do not thy hefts attend upon.

22 Lord turn from me rebuke and shame,
which wicked men conspire;

For I have kept thy covenants
with zeal as hot as fire,

23 The Princes great in counsel sate,
and did against me speak:

But then thy servant thought how he thy statutes might not break.

24 For why? thy covenants are my joy,
and my hearts great solace:

They serve instead of counsellors,
my matters for to pass.

D A L E T H. The fourth Part.

25 I am alas as brought to grave,
and almost turn'd to dust:

Restore therefore my life again,
as thy promise is just.

26 My waies when I acknowledged,
with mercy thou didst hear:

Hear now ere-soon, and me instruct thy lawes to love and fear.

27 Teach me once thoroughly for to know
thy precepts and thy love:

Thy works then will I meditate,
and lay them up in store.

28 My soul I feel so sore oppress'd,
that it melteth for grief:

According to thy word therefore,
haste Lord to send relief.

29 From lying and deceitful lips
let thy grace me defend:

And that I may learn thee to love,
thy holy law me send.

30 The way of truth both straight & sure
I have chosen and found.

I set thy judgments me before,
which keep me safe and sound.

31 Since then (O Lord) I forc'd my self
thy covenants to embrace:

Let me therefore have no rebuke,
nor check in any case.

32 Then will I run with joyfull cheer
where thy word doth me call,

When thou hast set my heart at large,
and rid me out of thrall.

H E. The fifth Part.

33 Instruct me Lord in the right trade
of thy statutes divine:

And it to keep even to the end,
my heart will I incline.

34 Grant me the knowledge of thy law,
and I shall it obey:

With her α , and mind, and all my
I will it keep I say. (might,

35 In the right paths of thy precepts
guide me Lord I require:

None other pleasure do I wish,
not greater thing desire.

36 Incline my heart thy lawes to keep,
and covenants so embrace:

And from all filthy avarice,
Lord shield me with thy grace.

37 From vain desires and worldly lusts
turn back mine eyes and sight:

Give me the spirit of life and power,
to walk thy ways aright.

38 Confirm thy gracious promise Lord, which

which thou hast made to me,
Which am thy servant, and do love
and fear nothing but thee.

39 Reproach and shame which I so fear
from me O Lord expell :

For thou dost judge with equity,
and therein dost excell.

40 Behold my hearts desire is bent
thy lawes to keep for aye :

Lord strengthen me so with thy grace
that it perform I may.

V A U The sixth Part.

41 Thy mercies great and manifold
let me obtain O Lord :

Thy saving health let me enjoy
according to thy word.

42 So shall I stop the standrous mouths
of lewd men and unjust :

For in thy faithfull promises
stands my comfort and trust.

43 The word of truth within my mouth
let ever still be prest :

For in thy judgments wonderfull
my hope doth stand and rest.

44 And whilst thar breath within my brest
doth naturall life preserve :

Yea till this world shall be dissolv'd,
thy law will I observe.

45 So walk will I, as far as I can,
and made free from all dread :

Because I sought how for to keep
thy precepts and thy read.

46 Thy noble acts I will describe as things of most great fame :

Even before Kings I will them blaze,
and shrink no whit for shame.

47 I will rejoyce thee to obey
thy worthy befts and will :

Which evermore I have lov'd best,
and so will love them still :

48 My hands I will lift to thy lawes,
which I have dearly sought :

And practise thy commandments
in will, in deed, in thought.

Z A I N. The seventh Part.

49 Thy promise which thou mad'st to me
thy servant, Lord, remember.

For therein do I put my trust,
and confidence for ever.

50 It is my comfort and my joy,
when troubles me assail :

For were my life not by thy word,
my life would soon me fail.

51 The proud and such as God contemn,
still made of me a scorn :

Yet would I not thy law forsake,
as he that were forlorn :

52 But cal'd to mind, Lord, thy great work
shew'd to our fathers old :

Whereby I felt the joy surmount
my grief an hundred fold.

53 But yet alas for fear I quake,

seeing how wicked men

Thy law forsook, and did procure thy judgments upon them.

54 And as for me, I tram'd my songs
thy statutes to exalt :

When I among the strangers dwell,
and thoughts gan me assault.

55 I thought upon thy Name, O Lord,
by night, when others sleep :

As for thy law, also I kept,
and ever will it keep.

56 This grace I did obtain, because thy covenants sweet and dear

I did embrace, and also keep with reverence and with fear.

H E T H. The eighth Part.

57 O God which art my part and lot,
my comfort and my stay :

I have decreed and promised,
thy law to keep alway,

58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sue
in presence of thy face :

As thou therefore hast promised
Lord, grant me of thy grace.

59 My life I have examined,
and try'd my secret heart,

Which to thy statutes caus'd me
my feet strait to convert.

60 I did not stay nor linger long,
as they that slothfull are :

But hastily thy lawes to keep,
I did my self prepare.

61 The cruel bands of wicked men
have made of me their prey :

Yet would I not thy law forger,
nor from thee go astray.

62 Thy righteous judgments towards me
so great are and so hie :

That even at midnight will I rise,
thy Name to magnifie.

63 Companion am I to all them
which fear thee in their heart :

And never will for love nor dread
from thy commandments start.

64 Thy mercies Lord most plentifully
do all the world fulfill :

O teach me how I may obey,
thy statutes and thy will.

T E T H. The ninth Part.

65 According to thy promise Lord,
so hast thou with me dealt :

For of thy grace in sundry sorts have I thy servant felt.

66 Teach me to judge alwayes aright,
and give me knowledge sure :

For certainly believe I do that thy precepts are pure.

67 Ere thou didst touch me with thy rod
I err'd and went astray :

But now I keep thy holy Word,
and make it all my stay.

68 Thou art both good and gracious.

and

and giv'st most liberally Thine ordinances how to keep,
therefore O Lord teach me.

69 The proud & wicked men have forg'd
against me many a lie:

Yet thy commandments still observe
with all my heart will I.

70 Their hearts are swollen with worldly
as greafe so are they fat. (wealth)
But in thy law do I delight
and nothing seek but that.

71 O happy time may I well say,
when thou didst me correct:
For as a guide to learn thy laws
thy rod did me direct.

72 So that to me thy word and law
is dearer manifold:
Then thousands great of silver and gold,
or ought that can be told.

I O D. The tenth Part.

73 Seeing thy hands have made me, Lord,
to be thy creature:
Grant knowledge likewise how to learn
to put thy lawes in ure.

74 So they that fear thee shall rejoyce,
when ever they me see:
Because I have learn'd by thy Word,
to put my trust in thee.

75 When with thy rods the world is
I know the cause is just: (plagu'd)

So when thou dost correct me Lord,
the cause just needs be must.

76 Now of thy goodnesse I thee pray,
some comfort to me send:
As thou to me hast promised,
so from all ill me shend.

77 Thy tender mercie pour on me,
and I shall surely live:
For joy and consolation both
thy law to me doth give. (rence)

78 Confound the proud whose false pre-
is me for to destroy:
But as for me thy hefts to know
I will my self employ.

79 Whoso with reverence do thee fear,
to me let them retire:
And such as do thy covenants know,
and them alone desire.

80 My heart without all wavering
let on thy lawes be bent:
That no confusion come to me,
whereby I should be shent.

C A P H. The eleventh Part.

81 My soul doth faint and ceaseles now
thy saving health to crave:
And for thy words sake still I trust,
my hearts desire to have.

82 Mine eyes do fail with looking for thy word, and thus I say:

83 When wilt thou me comfort, Lord,
why dost thou thus delay?

83 As a skin-bottle in the smoke

so am I parcht and dri'd,
Yet will I not o: t of my heart
let thy commandments slide.

84 Alas how long shall I yet live,
before I see the hour,

That on my foes which me torment,
thy vengeance thou wilt pour?

85 Presumptuous men have digg'd pit
thinking to make me sure.

Thus contrary against thy law
my hurt they do procure.

86 But thy commandments are all true,
and causeles they me grieve:
To thee therefore I do complain,
that thou mightst me relieve.

87 Almost they had me clean destruid,
and brought me quire to ground:
Yet by thy statutes I abode,
and therein succour found.

88 Restore me Lord again to life,
for thy mercies excell:
And so shall I thy covenants keep,
till death my life expell.

L A M E D. The twelfth Part.

89 In heaven Lord where thou dost dwell
thy word is stablisht sure:
And shall for all eterny
fast given there endure.

90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth witness:
Whose ground-work thou hast laid so fast
as no tongue can expresse.

91 Even to this day we may well see how all things persevere
According to thine Ordinance,
for all things thee do fear.

92 Had it not been that in thy law
my soul had comfort sought:
Long time ere now in my distresse
I had been brought to nought.

93 Therefore I will thy precepts aye
in memory keep fast:
By them thou hast my life restor'd
when I was at last cast.

94 No wight to me can rille make,
for I am onely thine:
Save me therefore, for to thy lawes
mine ears and heart incline.

95 The wicked men do seek my bane,
and thereto lie in wait,
But I the while considered
thy noble works and great.

96 I see nothing in this wide world,
at length which hath no end:
But thy commandments and thy word
beyond all bounds extend.

M E M. The thirteenth Part.

97 What great desire and fervent love,
do I bear to thy law?

All the day long I meditate
on it with reverent awe.

98 Thy word hath taught me far so

my foes in policie :
 For still I hold it as a thing
 of most excellencie .

99 My teachers which did me instruct,
 in knowledge I excel :
 Because I do thy covenants keep,
 and them to others tell.

100 In wisdom I do pass alſo
 the ancient men indeed :
 And all because to keep thy laws,
 I held it aye best reed.

101 My feet I have restrained eke
 from every evil way :
 Because that I continually
 thy word might keep, I say. (ments,

102 I have not ſwerv'd from thy judge-
 nor yet thruſt any dell :
 For why? thou haſt me taught thereby,
 to live godly and well.

103 O Lord how ſweet unto my taſte
 find I thy words alway !
 Doubtless no honey in my mouth feel ought ſo ſweet I may.

104 Thy laws have me ſuch wiſdom
 that utterly I have (learn'd
 All wicked and ungodly wayes,
 in every kind or rate.

N N N. — The ſixteenth part.

105 Even as a lantern to my feet,
 ſo doth thy Word thine bright:
 And to my paths where ever I go,
 it is a naming light.

106 I have both ſworn and will perform
 my promiſes doubtleſs,
 That I will keep thy judgements juſt,
 and them in life expreſs.

107 Affliction haſt me ſore oppreſt,
 and brought me to death's door :
 O Lord, as thou haſt promiſed,
 ſo me to life reſtore.

108 The offerings which with heart and moſt frankly I thee give, (voice Accept, and teach me how I may after thy judgements live.

109 My ſoul is aye ſo in my hand,
 that dangers me aſſail :
 Yet do I not thy law forget,
 nor it to keep will fail.

110 Although the wicked laid their nets,
 to catch me at a bay :
 Yet did I not from thy precepts
 once ſwerve or go aſtray.

111 Thy law I have ſo claim'd alway,
 as mine own heritage :
 And why? for therein I delight,
 and let my who'e courage.

112 For evermore I have been bent
 thy ſtatutes to fulfil :
 Even ſo likewiſe unto the end
 I will continue ſtill.

S A M U E L. The ſeventeenth part.

113 The crafty thoughts & doubleheartu

I do alwaies deſert :
 But as for thy law and precepts,
 I love them ever beſt.

114 Thou art my hid and ſecret place,
 my ſhield of ſtrong defence :
 Therefore have I thy promiſes
 look'd for with patience.

115 Go to therefore ye wicked men,
 depart from me anon :
 For the Commandments will I keep
 of God my Lord alone.

116 As thou haſt promiſ'd, ſo perform,
 that death me nor aſſail :
 Nor let my hope abuſe me ſo,
 that through diſtruit I quail.

117 Uphold me and I ſhall be ſafe,
 for ought they do or ſay :
 And in thy ſtatutes pleaſure take
 will I both night and day.

118 Thou haſt trod ſuch under thy feet,
 as do thy ſtatutes break :
 For nought avails their ſubtilty,
 their counſel is but weak.

119 Like doſt thou caſt't the wicked out
 where ere they go or dwell :
 Therefore can I as thy ſtatutes
 love nothing half ſo well.

120 My fleſh alas is taken with fear,
 as though it were beſum'd :
 For when I ſee thy judgements, ſtraight
 I am as one aſton'd.

A I N. The ſixteenth part.

121 I do the thing that lawfull is,
 and give to all men right :
 Reſign me not to them that would oppreſs me with their might.

122 But for thy ſervant ſurely be,
 in that thing that is good :
 That proud men give me not the ſoil,
 which rage as they were wood.

123 Mine evs with waiting are now blind
 thy health ſo much I crave :
 And eke thy righteous promiſe, Lord,
 whereby thou wilt me ſave.

124 Intreat thy ſervant lovingly,
 and favour to him ſhow :
 Thy ſtatutes of moſt excellency,
 teach me alſo to know.

25 Thy humble ſervant (Lord) I am,
 grant me to underſtand,
 How by thy ſtatutes I may know
 beſt what to take in hand.

126 It is now time (Lord) to begin,
 for truth is quite decay'd :
 Thy law likewiſe they have tranſgreſt,
 and none againſt them aid.

127 This is the cauſe wherefore I love
 thy laws better than gold,
 Or jewels fine which are esteem'd
 moſt coſtly to be ſold.

128 I thought thy precepts all moſt juſt,
 and ſo them laid in ſtore :
 All crafty and malicious wits
 I do abhor therefore.

P. E. The seventeenth Part.

129 Thy covenants are most wonderful and full of things profound :
My soul therefore doth keep them sure,
when they are try'd and found.

130 When men first enter into thy word,
they find a light most clear :
And very idiots understand,
when they it read or hear.

131 For joy I have both gap'd & breath'd
to know thy commandment :
That I might guide my self thereby,
I sought what thing it meant.

132 With mercy and compassion, Lord,
behold me from above :
As thou art wont to behold such,
as thy name fear and love.

133 Direct my foot-steps by thy Word,
that I thy will may know :
And never let iniquity
thy servant overthrow. (harm)

134 From slanderous tongues & deadly preserve and keep me sure :
Thy precepts then will I observe,
and put them eke in ure.

135 Thy countenance which doth surround the Sun in his bright hue, (mount, Let shine on me, and by thy law
reach me what to eke new.

136 Out of mine eyes great floods gush
of dreary tears that fall : (out When I behold how wicked men
thy laws keep not at all.

T. Z. A. D. L. The eighteenth Part.

137 In every point, Lord, thou art just,
the wicked though they grudge:
And when thou dost sentence pronounce thou art a righteous Judge.

138 To render right and free from guile,
are two chief points most high :
And such as thou hast in thy law
commanded us straightly.

139 With zeal and wrath I am consum'd
and even pin'd away :
To see my foes thy word forget,
for ought that I do may.

140 So pure and perfect is thy Word,
as any heart can deem :
As thy servant nothing more
do love or yet esteem.

141 And though I be nothing set by,
as one of base degree :
Yet do I not thy laws forget,
nor shrink away from thee.

142 Thy righteousness (Lord) is most for ever to endure : (just,
Also thy Law is truth it self,
most constant and most pure.

143 Trouble and grief have seiz'd on me
and brought me wondrous low :
Yet do I still of thy precepts
desire to hear and know.

144 The righteousness of thy judgement
doth last for evermore :
Then teach them me, for even in them
my life lies up in store.

K. O. P. H. The nineteenth Part.

145 With fervent heart I call'd & cri'd,
now answer me, O Lord :
That thy commandments to observe,
I may fully accord.

146 To thee my God I make my suit
with most humble requests :
Save me therefore, and I will keep thy precepts and thy beists.

147 To thee I cry even in the morn,
before the day wax light :
Because that I have in thy word
my confidence whole plight.

148 Mine eyes prevent the watch by night
and ere they call I wake :
That by devising on thy Word,
I might some comfort take.

149 Incline thine ears to hear my voice
and pitié on me take :
As thou wast wont, so judge me Lord,
lest life should me forsake.

150 My foes draw near, and do procure
my death maliciously,
Which from thy law are far gone back,
and straid from it lowly.

151 Therefore, O Lord, approach thou for need doth so require, (need For all thy precepts true they are,
then help I thee desire.

152 But thy commandments have I heard
not now, but long ago :
That they remain for evermore,
thou hast them grounded so.

R. E. S. H. The twentieth part.

153 My trouble and affliction,
consider and behold :
Deliver me, for of thy law,
I ever take fast hold.

154 Defend my good and righteous cause
with speed some succour send :
From death (as thou hast promised)
Lord keep me and defend.

155 As for the wicked, far they are
from having health and grace :
Whereby they might thy statutes know
they enter not the trace.

156 Great are thy mercies Lord I praise,
what tongue can them attain :
And as thou hast me judg'd ere now,
so let me life obtain.

157 Though many men did trouble
and persecute me sore :
Yet from thy laws I never shrunk,
nor went awry therefore.

158 And truth it is, for grief I die,
when I these traitors see :
Because they keep no whit thy word,
nor yet seek to know thee.

159 Behold, for I do love thy law

with heart most glad and gain :
As thou art good and gracious Lord,
restore my life again.
160 What thy word doth decree, must be
and so it hath been ever :
Thy righteous judgements are also most true and decay never.

SC HIN. The cxi. part.

161 Princes have sought by cruelty,
causeless to make me crouch :
But all in vain, for of thy word
the fear did my heart touch.
162 And certainly even of thy word
I was more merry and glad,
Than he that of rich spoils and prey,
great store and plenty had.
163 As for all lies and falsities,
I hate most and detest :
For why thy holy law do I above all things love best.
164 Seven times a day I praise the Lord
singing with heart and voice :
Thy righteous acts and wonderful
do cause me to rejoyce.

165 Great peace & rest shall all such have
as do thy statutes love.
No danger shall their quiet state impair or once remove.
166 My only health and comfort Lord,
I look for at thy hand :
And therefore have I done those things,
which thou didst me command.
167 Thy laws have been mine exercise
which my soul most desir'd :
So much to them my love was bent,
that nought else I requir'd :
168 Thy statutes and commandments,
I kept (thou know'st) aright :
For all the things that I have done,
are present in thy sight.

T A L. The cxi. part.

169 O Lord, let my complaint and cry
before thy face appear :
And as thou hast me promise made,
so teach me thee to fear.
170 Mine humble supplication,
row'd thee let find access :
And grant me Lord deliverance,
for so is thy promise.
171 Then shall my lips thy praises speak,
after most ample sort :
When thou thy statutes hast me taught,
wherein stands my comfort.
172 My tongue shall sing and preach thy and on this wife say thou : (word, Gods firm acts and noble laws
are just and perfect all.
173 Stretch out thy hand I thee beseech,
and speedily me save :
For thy commandments to observe chosen O Lord I have.
174 Of thee alone Lord I crave health,
for other I know none,

And in thy law and nothing else
I do delight alone.

175 Grant me therefore long daies to thy name to magnifie : (hye)

And of thy judgments merciful
let me the favour try.

176 For I was lost and went astray,
much like a wandering sheep :
O seek me, for I have not fail'd thy commandments to keep.

PSALM Cxx. T. 5.

IN trouble and in thrall unto the Lord I call
And he doth me comfort.
2 Deliver me, I say,
From liars lips alway,
And from tongues of false report.

3 What vanrage or what thing
Get'st thou thus for to sing,
Thou false and flattering liar?
4 Thy tongue doth hurt I ween,
No less then arrows keen,
Or hot consuming fire.

5 Alas too long I slack
within these tents so black,
Which Kedar's are by name
By whom the flock elect,
And all of Isaac's sect
Are put to open shame.

6 With them that peace did hate,
I came a peace to make
And set a quiet life.
7 But when my tale was told,
Causeless I was controld
By them that would have strife.

PSALM Cxxi. W. W.

ILift mine eyes to Sion hill,
From whence I do attend
That succour God me send.

2 The mighty God me succour wil,
Which heaven and earth framed,
And all things therein named.

3 Thy foot from slip he will preserve
And will thee safely keep,
For he will never sleep :
4 Lo he that doth Israel conserve,
No sleep at all can him catch,
But his eyes shall ever watch.

5 The Lord is thy warrant alway,
The Lord eke doth thee cover,
As at thy right hand ever.

6 The Sun shall not thee parch by day,
Nor the Moon not half so bright,
Shall with cold thee hurt by night.

7 The Lord will keep thee from distress,
And will thy life sure save,
And thou shalt also have

In all thy business go and success:
5 where ever thou shalt be in or out
God will thy things bring about.

D. 2

PSALM

PSALM Cxxii. W. K.

I Did in heart rejoyce,
To heare the people's voice,
In offering so willinglie:
For let us up, say they,
And in the Lords house pray,
Thus spake the folk full lovinglie.

2 Our feet that wandred wide,
shal in thy gates abide,
O thou Ierusalem ful fair:
3 Which art so seemlie set Much like a City near,
The like whereof is not elsewhere.

4 The Tribes with one accord
The Tribes of God the Lord
Are thither bent their way to take,
So God before did tell
That there his Israel
Their prayers should together make.

5 For there are thrones erect,
And that for this respect,
To set forth justice orderlie:
Which thrones right to maintain
To Davids house pertain,
his folk to judge accordinglie.

6 To pray let us not cease
For Ierusalem's peace,
Thy friends God prosper mightilie:
7 Peace be thy walls about,
And prosper thee throughout
Thy palaces continuallie.

8 I wish thy prosperous state,
For my poor brethrens sake,
That comfort have by means of thee:
9 Gods house dorth me allare,
Thy wealth for to procure,
so much alwaies as lies in me.

PSALM Cxxiii. T. S.

O Lord that heaven doest possess,
I lift mine eyes to thee:
Even as the servant lifteth his,
his master's hands to see,

As handmaids watch their mistris hands
some grace for to archieve:

8 we behold the Lord our God,
till he do us forgive.

3 Lord grant us thy compassion,
and mercie in thy sight:

For we are fill'd and overcome
with barred and desight.

4 Our minds be stuff with great rebuke,
the rich and worldly-wise
Do make of us their mocking Rocks,
the proud do us despise.

PSALM Cxxiv. W. W.

Now Israel
may say, and that truly:
If that the Lord
had not our cause maintain'd:
2 If that the Lord
had not our right sustain'd:
When all the world
exist as unquiesly

Made their uprores,
and said we should all die.

3 Now long ago
they had devour'd us all:
And swallowed quick,
for ought that we could deem,
Such was their rage,
as we might well esteem.

4 And as the floods
with mighty force do fall:
So had they now
our lives even brought to thrall.

5 The raging streams
most proud and roaring noise,
Had long ago
o're-whelm'd us in the deep.

6 But lov'd be God,
which doth us safeleie keep
From bloudie teeth,
and their most cruel voice,
Which as a prey,
to eat us would rejoyce.

7 Even as a bird
out of the Fowler's gin Escapes away,
right so it fares with us:
Broke are their nets,
and we have scaped thus.

8 God that made heaven
and earth is our help then:
His name hath sav'd
us from these wicked men.

PSALM Cxxv. W. K.

Such as in God the Lord do trust,
As mount Sion shall surely stand,
And be removed at no hand,
The Lord will count them right & just
So that they shal be sure,
For ever to endure.

3 As mightie mountains, huge and great
Ierusalem about do close:
So will the Lord do unto those,
Who on his godly will do wait:
Such are to him so dear,
They never need to fear.

3 For though the righteous try doth he
By making wicked men his rod:
Left they through grief forsake their
It shall not as their lot still be. (God,

4 Give, Lord, to us thy light,
Whose hearts are true and right.

5 But as for such as turn aside,
By crooked waies which they out-sought
The Lord will surely bring to nought;
With workers vile they shall abide:
But peace with Israel
For evermore shall dwell.

Another of the same by R. W.

Those that do put their confidence
Upon the Lord our God coeily,
And tie to him for their defence,
In all their need and misery:

Their faith is sure still to endure,
Grounded on Christ the corner-stone,
Mov'd with none ill, but standeth still,
Stedfast like to the mount Sion :

And as about Jerusalem,
The mighty hills do it compass,
So that no enemies come to them,
To hurt that town in any case :
So God indeed in every need
His faithfull people doth defend,
Stranding them by assuredly,
From this time forth world without end.

Right wife and good is our Lord God,
And will not suffer certaintie,
The sinners and ungodlies rod,
To carrie upon his familie.
Left they also from God should go,
Falling to sin and wickedness :
O Lord defend world without end
Thy Christian flock through thy goodness.

O Lord do good to Christians all,
That stedfast in thy Word abide :
Such as willinglie from God fall,
And to false doctrine dallie slide,
Such will the Lord scatter abroad,
With hypocrites thrown down to hell,
God will them send pains without end :
But Lord grant peace to Israel.

Glorie to God the Father of might,
And to the Son our Saviour,
And to the Holy Ghost, whose light
Shine in our hearts and us succour,
That the right way from day to day
We may walk, and him glorifie :
With hearts desire all that are here
Worship the Lord, and say Amen.

PSALM Cxxvi. W. W.

When that the Lord
again his Sion had forth brought From bondage great
and also servitude extreme ;
His work was such as did surmount mans heart and
so that we were (thought,
much like to them that use to dream,
Our mouths they were
with laughter filled then,
And eke our tongues
did shew us joyfull men.

The heathen folk
were forced then this to confess :
How that the Lord
for them also great things had done.
But much more we,
and therefore can confess no less :
Wherefore to joy
we have good cause as we begun.
O Lord go forth,
thou canst our bondage end :
As to deserts
the flowing rivers send.

Full true it is,
that they which sow in tears indeed,

A time will come,
when they shall reap in mirth and joy:
6 They went and wept
in bearing of their precious seed :
For that their foes
full oftentimes did them annoy :
But their return
with joy they shall sure see :
Their sheaves home bring,
and not impaired be.

PSALM Cxxvii. W. W.

Except the Lord the house doth make,
And thereunto doth set his hand,
What men do build it cannot stand.
Likewise in vain men undertake,
Cities and holds to warch and ward,
Except the Lord be their safeguard.

2 Though ye rise earlie in the morn,
And so at night go late to bed,
Feeding full hardly with brown bread,
Yet were your labour lost and wonn :
But they whom God doth love and keepe,
Receive all things with quiet sleepe.

3 Therefore mark wel when ever ye see,
That men have heirs to enjoy their land :
It is the gift of Gods own hand.

For God himselfe doth multiplie,
Of his great liberality,
The blessing of posterity.

4 And when the children come to age,
They grow in strength and activeness,
In person and in comeliness :
So that a shaft nor with courage,
Of one that hath a most strong arm,
Flies not so swift, nor doth like harm.

5 O wel is he that hath his quiver
Furnish'd with such artillerie :
For when in peril he shall be,
Such one shall never shrike nor shiver,
When that he pleads before the Judge,
Against his foes that bear him grudge.

PSALM Cxxviii. T. S.

Blessed art thou that fearest God,
and walkest in his way :

2 For of thy labour thou shalt ear
happie art thou I say.
3 Like fruitful vines on thy house side,
so doth thy wise spring our :

Thy children stand like olive plants,
thy table round about.

4 Thus art thou blest that fearest God,
and he shall let thee see

5 The promised Jerusalem,
and her felicity.
6 Thou shalt thy childrens children see
to thy great ioyes increase :
And likewise grace on Israel,
prosperitie and peace.

PSALM Cxxix. N.

O't they (now Israel may say)
me from my youth assail'd :
2 O't they assail'd me from my youth,

yet never they prevail'd.
 3 Upon my back the plowmen plow'd,
 and furrows long did cast :
 4 The righteous Lord hath cut the cords
 of wicked foes at last.
 5 They that hate me shall be asham'd,
 and turned back also :
 6 And made as grass upon the house,
 which with'reth ere it grow.
 7 Whereof the mower cannot find enough to fill his hand :
 Nor can he fill his lap that go'th
 to glean upon the land:
 8 Nor passers by pray God on them
 to let his blessing fall:
 Nor say: We bless you in the Name
 of God the Lord at all.

P S A L M Cxxx. W. W.

Lord to thee I make my mone,
 when dangers me oppress :
 I call, I sigh, plain and groan,
 trusting to find release.
 2 Hear now O Lord my request,
 for it is full due time :
 And let thine ears aye be prest,
 unto this prayer mine.
 3 O Lord our God if thou weigh
 our sins and them peruse:
 Who shall then escape and say,
 Can I can my self excuse?
 4 But, Lord thou art merciful,
 and turn'st to us thy grace :
 That we with hearts most careful
 should fear before thy face.
 5 In God I put my whole trust,
 my soul waits on his will :
 For his promise is most just,
 and I hope therein still.
 6 My soul to God hath regard-
 wishing for him alway,
 More then they that watch and ward
 to see the dawning day.
 7 Let Israel then boldly,
 in the Lord put his trust:
 He is that God of mercy,
 that his deliver must.
 8 For he it is that must save
 Israel from his sin :
 And all such as surely have their confidence in him.

P S A L M Cxxx. M.

O Lord I am not puffed in mind,
 I have no scornful eye :
 I do not exercise my self
 in things that be too high.
 2 But as the child that wained is,
 even from his mothers breast :
 So have I Lord behav'd my self
 in silence and in rest.
 3 O Israel, trust in the Lord.
 let him be all thy stay :

From this time forth for evermore,
 from age to age, I say.

P S A L M Cxxxii. M.

Remember Davids troubles Lord,
 how to the Lord he swore :
 2 And vow'd a vow to Jacobs God,
 to keep for evermore.
 3 I will not come within my house,
 nor climb up to my bed,
 Nor let my temples take their rest,
 nor the eyes in my head,
 4 Till I have found out for the Lord,
 a place to sit thereon :
 5 An house for Jacobs God to be an habitation.
 6 We heard of it at Ephrata,
 there did we hear this sound :
 And in the fields and forests there,
 these voices first were found.
 7 We will asay, and go in now
 his Tabernacle there :
 Before his foot-stool to fall down,
 and worship him in fear,
 8 Arise, O Lord, arise I say,
 into thy resting place :
 Both thou and the Ark of thy strength,
 the presence of thy grace.
 9 Let all thy priests be clothed, Lord,
 with truth and righteousness :
 Let all thy Saints and holy men
 sing all with joyfulness.
 10 And for thy servant Davids sake
 refuse not, Lord, I say.
 The face of thine anointed, Lord,
 nor turn thy face away.

The second part.

11 The Lord to David swore in truth
 and will not shrink from it :
 Saying, the fruit of thy body
 upon thy seat shall sit.
 12 And if thy sons my covenant keep,
 that I shall learn each one :
 Then shall their sons for ever sit upon thy princely throne.
 13 The Lord himself hath chose Sion,
 and loves therein to dwell :
 Saying, this is my resting place,
 I love and like it well.
 14 And I will bless with great increase her vituals every where :
 And I will satisfy with bread
 the needy that be there.
 15 Yea I will deck and cloth her Priests
 with my salvation :
 And all her Saints shall sing for joy
 of my protection.
 16 There will I surely make the horn
 of David for to bud :
 For there I have ordain'd for mine
 a lantern bright and good.
 17 As for his enemies, I will clothe with

with shame for evermore :
But I will cause his crown to shine
more fresh than heretofore.

PSALM Cxxxiii. W. W.

O How happy a thing it is,
and joyful for to see Brethren together fast to hold the band of amity !
It calls to mind that sweet perfume,
and that costly ointment.
Which on the Sacrificer's head
by Gods precept was spent.
It wer not Aarons head alone
but drencht his beard throughout :
And finally it did run down
his rich attire about.
And as the lower ground doth drink
the dew of Hermon hill :
And Sion with his silver drops
the fields with fruit doth fill.
Even so the Lord doth powre on them
his blessings manifold :
Whose hearts and minds without al guile
this knot do keep and hold.

PSALM Cxxxiv. W. W.

Behold and have regard,
ye servants of the Lord :
Which in his house by night do warch,
praise him with one accord.
Lift up your hands on high,
unto his holy place :
And give the Lord his praises due,
his benefits embrace.
For why? the Lord who did
both earth and heaven frame, Doth Sion bless, and will conserve
for evermore the same.

PSALM Cxxxv. N.

O Praise the Lord, praise him, praise
praise him with one accord : him, O praise him still all ye that be the servants of the Lord.
O praise him ye that stand and be in the house of the Lord :
Ye of his court and of his house,
praise him with one accord.
Praise ye the Lord for he is good,
sing praises to his Name :
It is a comely and good thing,
alwaies to do the same.
For why? the Lord hath chose Jacob,
his very own ye see :
So hath he chosen Israel,
his treasure for to be.
For this I know and am right sure,
the Lord is very great :
He is indeed above all gods,
most easie to intreat.
For whatsoever pleased him,
all that full well he wrought
in heaven, in earth, and in the sea,

which he hath made of nought.

7 He lifts up clouds ev'n from the earth
he makes lightnings and rain :
He bringeth forth the winds also,
he made nothing in vain.
8 He smote the first-born of each thing
in Egypt that took rest :
He spared there no living thing,
the man nor yet the beast.
9 He hath in thee shew'd wonders great
O Egypt void of vaunrs :
On Pharaoh thy cursed King,
and his severe servants.
10 He smote then many nations,
and did great acts and things :
He slew the great, and mightie,
and chiefeit of their Kings.
11 Schon King of the Amorites
and Og King of Baiban :
He slew also the Kingdoms all that were of Caanan.
12 And gave their land to Israel,
an heritage we see,
To Israel his own people
an heritage to be.

The second part.

13 Thy Name (O Lord) shall still endure
and thy memorial,
Throughout all generations
that are or ever shall.
14 The Lord will surely now avenge
his people all indeed :
And to his servants he will shew
favour in time of need.
15 The idols of th' heath'n are made in all the coasts and lands,
Of silver and of gold they be,
the work even of mens hands.
16 They have their mouths and cannot and eyes that have no sight : (speak, 17 They have eke ears and hear nothing,
their mouths be breathless quize.
18 Wherefore all they are like to the m
that so do set them forth :
And likewise those that trust in them,
or think they ought be worth.
19 O all ye house of Israel,
see that ye praise the Lord:
And ye that be of Aarons house,
praise him with one accord.
20 And ye that be of Levi's house,
praise ye likewise the Lord :
And ye that stand in awe of him,
praise him with one accord.
21 And out of Sion sound his praise,
the great praise of the Lord,
Which dwelleth in Jerusalem,
praise him with one accord.
PSALM Cxxxvi. N.
Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
for his mercy endureth for ever.
2 Give praise unto the God of gods,
for his mercy endureth for ever.
Give praise unto the Lord of lords,

- for his mercie endureth for ever.
 4 Which, onlie doth great wondrous
 for his mercie, &c. (works,
 5 Which by his wisdom made the hea-
 for his mercie, &c. (vens, 6 Which on the waters stretch'd the
 for his mercy, &c. (earth,
 7 Which made great lights to shine
 for his mercie, &c. (abroad, 8 As Sun to rule the lightfome day,
 for his mercie, &c.
 9 The Moon and Stars to guide the
 for his mercy, &c. (night 10 Which smote Egypt with their first-
 for his mercie, &c. (born, 11 And Israel brought out from thence,
 for his mercie, &c.
 12 With mightie hand and stersched arm,
 for his mercie, &c.
 13 Which cut the red sea in two parts,
 for his mercie, &c.
 14 And Israel made pass there-through,
 for his mercie, &c.
 15 And drowned Pharaoh and his host,
 for his mercie, &c.
 16 Through wilderness his people led,
 for his mercie, &c.
 17 He which did smite great noble kings,
 for his mercie, &c.
 18 And which hath slain the mightie
 for his mercie, &c. (kings, 19 As Schon King of Amorites,
 for his mercie, &c.
 20 And Og the King of Basan land,
 for his mercie, &c.
 21 And gave their land for heritage,
 for his mercie, &c.
 22 Even to his servant Israel,
 for his mercie, &c.
 23 Remembering us in base estate,
 for his mercie, &c.
 24 And from oppressors rescued us,
 for his mercie, &c.
 25 Which giveth food unto all flesh,
 for his mercie, &c.
 26 Praise ye the Lord of heaven above,
 for his mercie, &c.
 27 Give thanks unto the Lord of lords,
 for his mercie, &c.

Another of the same by T. C.
 O Lord the Lord benigne,
 Whose mercies last for aye,
 Give thanks and praises sing
 To God of gods I say.

For certainly,
 His mercies dure
 Both firm and sure,
 Eternallie.

The Lord of lords praise ye,
 whose mercies aye do dure:
 Great wonders onelle he Doth work by his great power,
 For certainlie, &c.

5 Which God omnipotent,
 By his great wisdom hie
 The heavenlie firmament
 Did frame as we may see.
 For certainlie, &c.

6 Yea, he the heave charge
 Of all the earth did stretch
 And on the waters large
 The same he did out-reach,
 For certainlie, &c.

7 Great lights he made to be,
 For why? his love is aye:
 8 Such as the Sun we see,
 To rule the lightfome day.
 For certainlie, &c.

9 And eke the Moon so clear,
 Which shineth in our sight,
 And Stars that do appear,
 To guide the darkfome night.
 For certainlie, &c.

10 With grievous plagues and sore
 All Egypt smote he than:
 The first-born left and more,
 He slew of beast and man.
 For certainlie, &c.

11 And from amidst their land
 His Israel forth brought:
 12 Which he with mighty hand,
 And stretched arm hath wrought.
 For certainlie, &c.

13 The sea he cut in two,
 Which stood up like a wall:
 14 And made through it to go
 His chosen children all,
 For certainlie, &c.

15 But there he whelmed them
 The proud King Pharaoh,
 With his huge host of men,
 And Chariots eke also.
 For certainlie, &c.

16 Who led through wilderness,
 His people safe and sound:
 And for his love endless,
 17 Great Kings he-brought to ground.
 For certainlie, &c.

18 And slew with puissant hand
 Kings mightie and of fame,
 19 As of Amorites land,
 Schon the King by name.
 For certainlie, &c.

20 And Og (the Giant large)
 Of Bashan King also:

21 Whose land for heritage,
 He gave his people cho.
 For certainlie, &c.

22 Even unto Israel,
 His servant dear, I say,
 He gave the same to dwell,
 And there abide for ay.
 For certainlie, &c.

23 To mind he did us call
In our most base degree,
24 And from oppressions all
In safetie set us free.
For certaintie, &c.

25 All flesh in earth abroad
With food he doth ful fill:
26 Wherefore of heaven the God
To laud be it your wil.
For certaintie,
His mercies dure
Both firm and sure;
Eternally,

PSALM CXXXVII. W.W.

When as we sate in Babylon,
the rivers round about:
And in remembrance of Sion,
the tears for grief burst out.
2 We hang'd our harps and instruments
the willow trees upon:
For in that place men for their use
had planted many a one.

3 Then they to whom we prisoners were said to us rauntingly:
Now let us hear your Hebrew songs
and pleasant melody.
4 Alas, said we, who can once frame
his sorrowful heart to sing
The praises of our loving God
thus under a strange King?

5 But yet if I Jerusalem
out of my heart let slide:
Then let my fingers quite forget
the warbling harp to guide.
6 And let my tongue within my mouth,
be ty'd for ever fast:
If that I joy before I see thy full deliverance past.

7 Therefore (O Lord) remember now
the curst noise and crie
That Edoms sons against us made,
when they raz'd our citie.
Remember Lord their cruel words,
when as with one accord
They cri'd, On sack and raze their walls,
in despite of the Lord.

8 Even so shalt thou O Babylon,
at length to dust be brought:
And happie that man be call'd,
that our revenge hath wrought.
9 Yea blessed that man be call'd,
that takes thy children young:
To dash their bones against hard stones,
that lie the streets among.

PSALM CXXXVIII. N.

Thee will I praise with my whole
my Lord my God alwaies: (heart)
Even in the presence of the gods
I will advance thy praise.
2 Toward thy holie Temple, I will look and worship thee:
And praised in my thankful mouth
thy holie Name shall be.

Even for thy loving kindest sake,
and for thy truth withal:
For thou thy Name hast by thy Word
advanced over all.
3 When I did call, thou heardest me,
and thou hast made also
The power of increased strength
within my soul to grow.

4 Yea all the Kings on earth, they shall give praise to thee O Lord:
For they of thy most holie mouth
have heard the mightie word.
5 They of the waies of God the Lord
in singing shall intreat:
Because the glorie of the Lord
it is exceeding great.

6 The Lord is high and yet he doth behold the lowlie sprite:
But he (contemning) knows a far
the proud and lofty wight.

7 Although in midst of trouble I do walk, yet shall I stand Renewed by thee, O my Lord,
thou wilt stretch out thy hand

Upon the wrath of all my foes,
and saved shall I be
By thy right hand: the Lord God will perform his work to me.

8 Thy mercy Lord indures for aye,
Lord do me not forsake:
For take me not that am the work which thine own hand did make.

PSALM CXXXIX. N.

O Lord thou hast me try'd and knowest
my sitting thou dost know, 2 And rising eke, my thoughts afar
thou understand'st also.
3 My paths, yea and my lying down
thou compass'st alwaies:
And by familiar custom art
acquainted with my waies.

4 No word is in my tongue, O Lord,
but known it is to thee:
5 Thou me behind hold'st and before,
thou hast thine hand on me.

6 Too wonderful above my reach,
Lord is thy running skill:
It is so high, that I the same cannot attain until.

7 From sight of thy all-seeing Spirit,
Lord, whither shall I go?
Or whither shall I flee away,
thy presence to scape fro?

8 To heaven if I mount aloft,
lo thou art present there:
In hell if I lie down below,
even there thou dost appear.

9 Yea let me take the morning wings
and let me go and hide
Even where where are the farthest parts,
where flowing sea doth slide.

10 Yea even thither also shall thy reaching hand me guide:

And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
and make me to abide.

11 Yea, if I say, the darkness shall yet shroud me from thy sight:

Lo ev'n also the darkest night
about me shall be light.

12 Yea darkness hideth not from thee,
but night doth shine as day:

To thee the darkness and the light,
are both alike alway.

The second part.

13 For thou possessedst haft my reins,
and thou hast covered me,

When I within my mothers womb
inclosed was by thee.

14 Thee will I praise, made fearfully,
and wondrously I am:

Thy works are marvellous, right well
my soul doth know the same.

15 My bones they are not hid from thee,
although in secret place

I have been made, and in the earth
beneath I shaped was.

16 When I was formlesse, then thine eye
saw me, for in thy book

Were written all, nought was before,
that after fashion took.

17 The thoughts therefore of thee O God,
how dear are they to me?

And of them all how passing great
the endless number be!

18 If I should count them, so their sum
more than the sand I see:

And whensoever I awake,
yet am I still with thee.

19 The wicked and the bloody men,
O that thou wouldst slay:

Even thou, O God, to whom depart,
depart from me I say.

20 Even those of thee (O Lord my God)
that speak full wickedly:

Those that are lifted up in vain,
being enemies to thee.

21 Hate I not them that hate thee Lord,
and that in earnest wise?

Content I nor against them all,
against thee that arise?

22 I hate them with unfained hate,
even as my utter foes:

23 Trye me, (O God) and know my heart,
my thoughts prove and disclose.

24 Consider Lord if wickedness
in me there any be:

And in thy way (O God my guide)
for ever lead thou me.

PSALM Cxli. N.

Lord save me from the evil man,
and from the cruel wight

And from all those which evil do unagine in their spite.

Which make on me continual war,
their tongues so they have wher

3 Like Serpents, underneath their lips
is Ad ders poyson set.

4 Keep me (O Lord) from wicked hands, preserve me to abide

Free from the cruel man that means
to cause my steps to slide.

5 The proud have laid a snare for me,
and they have spread a net

With cords in my path-way, and grins
for me eke have they set.

6 Therefore I said unto the Lord,
thou art my God alone:

Hear me, O Lord, O hear the voice
wherewith I pray and moone.

7 O Lord my God, thou onely art
the strength that saveth me:

My head in day of battle hath been covered still by thee.

8 Let not (O Lord) the wicked have the end of his desire:

Perform not his ill thoughts, lest he
with pride be set on fire.

9 Of them that compass me about,
the chiefest of them all,

Lord let the mischief of their lips
upon themselves befall:

10 Let coals fall on them. let him cast
them in consuming flame:

And in deep pits, so as they may not rise out of the same.

11 For no backbiter shall on earth
be set in stable plight:

And evil to destruction still shall haunt the cruel wight.

12 I know the Lord that afflicted will revenge, and judge the poor:

13 The just shall praise thy name, just shall dwell with thee evermore.

PSALM Cxli. N.

O Lord upon thee do I call,
Lord haste thee unto me:

And hearken Lord unto my voice,
when I do cry to thee.

2 As incense let my prayers be directed in thine eyes:

And the up-lifting of my hands
as evening sacrifice.

3 My Lord for guiding of my mouth,
set thou a watch before:

And also of my moving lips,
O Lord keep thou the door.

4 That I should wicked works commit,
incline thou not my heart:

With ill men of their delicacies,
Lord let me eat no part.

5 But let the righteous smite me Lord,
for that is good for me:

Let him reprove me, and the same
a precious oy! shall be.

Such smiting shall not break my head,
the time shall shortly fall,

When I shall in their misery
make prayers for them all.

Psalm Cxlii. Cxliii. Cxliiii.

6 Then when in stony places down
their judges shall be cast:
Then shall they hear my words, for then
they have a pleasant taste.

7 Our bones about the graves mouth,
lo scattered are they found:
As he that heweth wood, or he
that digged up the ground.

8 But O my Lord my God, mine eyes
do look up unto thee:
In thee is all my trust, let not
my soul forsake me.

9 Which they have laid to catch me in,
Lord keep me from the snare:
And from the subtil gins of them
that wicked workers are.

10 The wicked into their own nets
together let them fall:
While I do by thy help escape
the danger of them all.

PSALM Cxlii. N.

BEfore the Lord God with my voice
I did send out my cry:
And with my strained voice unto
the Lord God prayed I.

2 My meditation in his sight
to powre I did not spare:
And in the presence of the Lord
my trouble did declare.

3 Although perplexed was my spirit,
my path was known to thee:
In way where I did walk, a snare
they slyly laid for me.

4 I look'd & view'd on my right hand,
but none there would me know:
All refuge failed me, and for
my soul none cared tho.

5 Then cry'd I Lord to thee, and said,
my hope thou onely art:
Thou in the land of living art
my portion and my part.

6 Heark to my cry, for I am brought full low: deliver me
From them that do me persecute,
for me too strong they be.

7 That I may praise thy Name, my soul
from prison, Lord, bring out:
Where thou art good to me, the iust
shall press me round about.

PSALM Cxliiii. N.

Lord hear my prayer, heark the plaint
that I do make to thee:
Lord in thy active truth and in thy justice answer me.

2 In judgement with thy servants Lord,
O enter not at all:
For iustifi'd be in thy sight,
not one that liveth shall.

3 The enemy hath pursu'd my soul,
my life to ground hath thrown:
And laid me in the dark, like them
that dead are long ago.

4 Within me in perplexity
was mine accumbred sprice:
And in me was my troubled heart
amazed and affright.

5 Yet I record time past, in all thy works I meditate:
Yea in thy works I meditate,
that thy hands have create.

6 To thee, O Lord, my God, to I do stretch my craving hands:
My soul do stretch after thee,
as do the thirsty lands.

7 Hear me with speed, my spirit doth fail:
hide not thy face me fro:
Else shall I be like them that down into the pit do go.

8 Let me thy loving kindness in the morning hear and know,
For in thee is my trust, shew me
the way where I shall go.

9 For I lift up my soul to thee,
O Lord deliver me
From all mine enemies, for I have hidden me with thee.

10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou,
thou art my God, I say:
Let thy good spirit into the land
of mercy me convey.

11 For thy names sake with quickening alive do thou me make: (grace
And out of trouble bring my soul,
even for thy justice sake.

12 And for thy mercy slay my foes:
O Lord, destroy them all
That do oppress my soul: for I thy servant am and shall.

PSALM Cxliv. N.

Lest be O Lord my strength, that doth instruct my hands to fight:
The Lord that doth my fingers frame
to battle by his might.

2 He is my goodness, fort and tower,
deliverer and shield:
In him I trust, my people he
subdues to me to yield.

3 O Lord, what thing is man, that him
thou holdest so in prize:
Or son of man, that upon him
thou thinkest in such wise?

4 Man is but like to vanity,
so pass his dayes to end,
As fleeting shade, how down O Lord
the heavens and descend.

5 The mountains touch, and they shall cut forth thy lightning flame:
And scatter them: thine arrows shall consume them with the same.
Send down thine hand even from above
O Lord deliver me:

6 Take me from waters great, from hand
of strangers make me free.

7 Whose subtil mouth of vanity,

and

and fondness doth intreat :

And their right hand is a right hand
of falshood and deceit.

9 A new song will I sing, O God,
and singing will I be On Viol, and on Instrument
ten-stringed unto thee.

10 Even he it is that only gives deliverance to Kings :

Unto his servant David help
from hurtful sword he brings.

11 From strangers hand me save & shield,
whose mouth talks vanitie :
And their right hand is a right hand
of guile and subtiltie.

12 That our sons may be as the plants,
whom growing youth doth rear :
Our daughters as carv'd corner stones,
like to a palace fair.

13 Our garners full, and plentie may with sundrie sorts be found,
Our sheep bring thousands, in our streets
ten thousands may abound.

14 Our oxen be to labour strong,
that none do us invade :

There be no goings out, nor cries
within our streets be made.

15 The people blessed are that with such blessings are so stor'd :
Yea, blessed all the people are,
whose God is God the Lord.

PSALM Cxlv. N.

Thee will I laud my God and King,
and bleis thy Name for aye :

For ever will I praise thy Name,
and bleis thee day by day.

3 Great is the Lord, most worthe praise,
his greatness none can reach :

4 From race to race they shall thy works
praise, and thy power preach,

5 I of thy glorious Majestie
the beaurie will record :

And meditate upon thy works
most wonderfull O Lord.

6 And they shall of thy power and of thy fearful ads declare :

And I to publish all abroad,
thy greatness will not spare.

7 And they into the mention shall break of thy goodness great :

And I aloud thy righteousness
in singing shall repeat.

8 The Lord our God is gracious,
and mercifull also :

Of great abounding mercie, and
to anger he is slow.

9 Yea good to all, and all his works
his mercie doth exceed :

10 Lo all thy works do praise thee, Lord,
and do thy honour spread.

11 Thy Saints do bleis thee, and they do thy kingdom's glorie show :

12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sons
of men thy power to know.

The second part.

13 And of his mighty kingdom eke
to spread the glorious praise :

Thy kingdom Lord a kingdom is that doth endure alwaies :

And thy dominion through each age
endures without decay :

14 The Lord upholdeth them that fall
their sliding he doth stay.

15 The eyes of all do wait on thee,
thou dost them all relieve :

And thou to each sufficing food
in season due dost give.

16 Thou openest thy plenteous hand,
and bounteously dost fill

All things whatsoever do live,
with gifts of thy good will.

17 The Lord is just in all his waies,
his works are hollie all :

18 Near all he is that call on him,
in truth that on him call.

19 He the desires which they require,
that fear him will fulfil :

And he will hear them when they cry,
and save them all he will.

20 The Lord preserves all those to him
that bear a loving heart :

But he them all that wic'd are,
will utterly subvert.

21 My thankful mouth shall gladlie speak
the praises of the Lord :

All sein to praise his holy Name,
for ever shall accord.

PSALM Cxvi. J.H.

MY soul praise thou the Lord alwaies,
my God I will confesse :

2 While breath & life prolong my daies,
my tongue no time shall cease.

3 Trust not in worldlie Princes then,
though they abound in wealth :

Nor in the sons of mortal men,
in whom there is no health.

4 For why? their breath doth soon depart,
to earth anon they fall :

And then the counsels of their heart
decay and perish all.

5 O happy is that man I say,
whom Jacobs God doth aid :

And he whose hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is staid.

6 Which made the earth and waters deep
the heavens high withal :

Which doth his word and promise keep
in truth and ever shall.

7 With right alwaies doth he proceed,
for such as suffer wrong :

The poor and hungry he doth feed,
and loose the fetters strong.

8 The Lord doth send the blind their lame to limbe restore :

The Lord (I say) doth love, the right
and just man evermore.

9 He doth defend the fatherless,
and stranger sad in heart :
And quire the widow from distress,
and ill mens waies subvert.

10 Thy Lord and God eternally
O Sion still shall reign :
In rime of all posterity,
for ever to remain.

PSALM Cxlvii. N.

PRaise ye the Lord, for it is good
unto our God to sing :
For it is pleasant, and to praise,
it is a comely thing.

2 The Lord his own Jerusalem,
he buildeth up alone :
And the dispersit of Israel
doth gather into one.

3 He heals the broken in their hearts,
their sores up doth he bind :

4 He counts the number of the stars,
and names them in their kind.

5 Great is the Lord, great is his power,
his wisdom infinite :

6 The Lord relieves the meek, and throws
to ground the wicked wight.

7 Sing unto God the Lord with praise,
unto the Lord rejoyce :
And to our God upon the Harp,
advance your singing voice.

8 He cevers heaven with clouds, and for the earth prepareth rain :
And on the mountains he doth make
the grafs to grow again.

9 He gives to beasts their food, and to young Ravens when they cry :
10 His pleasure not in strength of horse,
nor in mans legs doth lie.

11 But in all those that fear the Lord,
the Lord hath his delight :
And such as do attend upon his mercies shining light.

The second part.

12 O praise the Lord Jerusalem,
thy God O Sion praise :

13 For he the bars hath forged strong,
wherewith thy gates he staies.

14 Thy children he hath blest in thee,
and in thy borders he Doth settle peace, and with the flour
of wheat he filleth thee.

15 And his commandement upon
the earth he sendeth out :
And eke his word with speedy course
doth swiflie run about.

16 He giveth snow like wool, hoar-frost
like ashes he doth spread :

17 Like morsels casts his ice, thereof
the cold who can abide ?

18 He sendeth forth his mighty word,
and melteth them as in :
His winds he makes to blow, and then
the waters flow again.

19 The doctrine of his holy word
to Jacob he doth shew :
His statutes and his judgements he gives Israel to know.

20 With every Nation hath he not so dealt, nor have they known His secret judgements, ye therefore praise ye the Lord alone.

PSALM Cxlviii. J. H.

Give laud unto the Lord,
From Heaven that is so high Praise him in deed and word,
Above the starrie skie.

2 And also ye,
His Angels all Armies royal,

Praise him with glee.

3 Praise him both Moon and Sun,
Which are so clear and bright :
The same of you be done.

Ye glistering stars of light :

4 And eke no less,

Ye Heavens fair,

5 And clouds of th'air,

His laud express.

6 For at his word they were,
All formed as we see :

At his voice did appear

All things in their degree,

Which he set fast,

To them he made

A law and trade.

for aye to last.

7 Exol and praise Gods Name,

On earth ye Dragons sell :

All deeps do ye the same,

For it becomes you well.

8 Him magnifie,

Fire, hail, ice, snow,

And storms that blow

At his decree.

9 The hills and mountains all

And trees that fruitful are :

The Cedars great and tall,

His worthy praise declare.

10 Beasts and carrel,

Yea birds flying.

And worms creeping,

that on earth dwell.

11 All Kings both more and less,

With all their pompous train :

Princes and all Judges

That in the world remain,

Exalt his Name.

12 Young men and maids,

Old men and babes,

Do ye the same.

13 For his Name shall we prove

To be most excellent,

Whose praise is far above

The earth and firmament,

14 For sure he shall

Exalt with bliss

The

The horn of his,
And help them all.
15 His saints all shall forth tell
His praise and worthiness:
The children of Israel,
Each one both more and less.
16 And also they
That with good will
His words fulfill,
And him obey.

PSALM Cxlix. N.

Sing ye unto the Lord our God,
A new rejoycing song:
And let the praise of him be heard
his holy saints among.
1 Let Israel rejoyce in him,
that made him of nothing:
And let the seed of Sion etc
be joyfull in their King.
2 Let them sound praise with voice of unto his holy Name: (Shouts)
And with the timbrel and the harp
sing praises of the same.
4 For why? the Lord his pleasure all hath in his people set:
And by deliverance he will raise
the meek to glory great.
5 With glory and with honour now
let all his Saints rejoyce:
And now aloud upon their beds
advance their singing voice.
6 And in their mouths let be the acts

of God the mighty Lord:
And in their hands etc let them bear
a double edged sword.

7 To plague the heathen, and correct
the people with their hands:
8 To bind their stately Kings in chains,
their Lords in iron bands.
9 To execute on them the doom
that written is before:
This honour all his Saints shal have;
praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSALM Cl. N.

Yield unto God the mighty Lord
praise in his Sanctuary:
And praise him in the firmament
that shews his power on hie.
2 Advance his Name, and praise him in his mighty acts alwayes:
According to his excellency
of greatness give him praise.
3 His praises with the princely noise
of sounding Trumpets blow:
Praise him upon the Viol, and upon the harp also 4 Praise him with Timbrel and with Flute
Organs and Virginals:
5 With sounding Cymbals praise ye him,
praise him with loud Cymbals.
6 What ever hath the benefit of breathing praise the Lord:
To praise the name of God the Lord
agree with one accord.

The end of the Psalms of DAVID in Meter.

VENI CREATOR.

Come Holy Ghost eternal God
proceeding from above:
Both from the Father and the Son,
the God of peace and love.
Visit our minds, and into us
thy heavenly grace inspire:
That in all truth and godliness
we may have true desire.
Thou art the very Comforter
in all wo and distress:
The heavenly gift of God most high,
which no tongue can express.
The fountain and the living spring
of joy celestiall.
The fire so bright, the love so clear,
and unition spiritual.
Thou in thy gifts art manifold,
whereby Christs Church doth stand,
In faithful hearts writing thy law,
the finger of Gods hand.
According to thy promise made,
thou givest speech of grace:
That through thy help the praise of God
may stand in every place.

O Holy Ghost into our wits
send down thy heavenly light:
Kindle our hearts with fervent love,
to serve God day and night.
Strengthen and stablish all our weakness,
so feeble and so frail:
That neither flesh, the world nor devil
against us do prevail.
Put back our enemies far from us,
and grant us to obtain Peace in our hearts with God and man,
without grudge or disdain.
And grant (O Lord) that thou being
our leader and our guide:
We may eschew the snares of sin,
and from thee never slide.
To us such plenty of thy grace
good Lord grant, we thee pray:
That thou maist be our Comforter,
at the last dreadful day
Of all strife and dissention,
O Lord, dissolve the bands:
And make the knots of peace and love
throughout all Christian lands.

Grant

The humble sute of a sinner

Grant us, O Lord, through thee
the Father most of might :

That of his dear beloved Son
we may attain the sight.

And that with perfect faith also
we may acknowledge thee

The Spirit of them both alway,
one God in persons three.

Laud and praise be to the Father,
and to the Son equal :

And to the Holy Spirit also,
one God eternal.

And pray we that the only Son vouchsafe his Spirit to send

To all that do profess his Name,
unto the Worlds last end.

The humble sute of a sinner. M.

O Lord on whom I do depend,
behold my careful heart :
And when thy will and pleasure is,
release me of my smart.

Thou seest my sorrows what they are,
my grief is known to thee :

And there is none that can remove,
or take the same from me.

But onely thou whose aid I crave
whose mercy still is prest,

To ease all those that come to thee,
for succour and for rest.

And sith thou seest my restless eyes,
my tears and grievous groane :

Attend unto my suit O Lord,
mark well my plaint and moane.

For sin hath so enclosed me,
and compass me about :

That I am now remediless,
if mercy help not out.

For mortal man cannot release,
or mitigate this pain :

But even thy Christ, my Lord and God,
who for my sins was slain.

Whose bloody wounds are yet to see,
though not with mortal eye,

Yet do thy Saints behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.

Though sin doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good,

I shall enjoy the sight of him,
and see his wounds and blood.

And as thine Angels and thy Saints
do now behold the same,

So trust I to possess that place,
with them to praise thy Name.

But whilst I live here in this vale,
where sinners do frequent :

Assist me ever with thy grace,
my sins still to lament.

Lest that I tread the sinners trace,
and give them my consent,

To dwell with them in wickedness,
wherein nature is bent.

Only thy grace must be my stay,
lest that I fall down flat :

Venite exultemus.

And being down, then of my self cannot recover that.

Wherefore this is yet once again
my suit and my request,

To grant me pardon for my sin,
that I in thee may rest.

Then shall my heart and tongue also be instruments of praise :

And in thy Church and house of Saints
sing Psalms to thee alwaies.

Venite exultemus.

O Come and let us now rejoyce;
And sing unto the Lord :

And to our onely Saviour,
Also with one accord.

O let us come before his face,
With inward reverence,

Confessing all our former sins,
And that with diligence.

To thank him for his benefits,
Alwaies distributing :

Wherefore to him right joyfully
In Psalms now let us sing.

And that because that God alone
Is Lord magnificent,

And eke above all other gods,
A King omnipotent.

His people doth not he forsake
At any time or tide :

And in his hands are all the coasts
Of all the world so wide.

And with his loving countenance
He looketh every where :

And doth behold the tops of all
The mountains far and near.

The sea and all that is therein,
Are his, for he them made :

And eke his hand hath fashioned
The earth which doth not fade.

O come therefore and worship him,
And down before him fall :

And let us kneel before the Lord,
The which hath made us all.

He is our God, our Lord and King
And we his people are :

His flock, and sheep of his pasture,
Of whom he taketh care.

This day if ye will hear his voice,
Then harden not your heart :

As in the bitter murmuring,
When ye were in desert.

Which thing was of their negligence
Committed in the time

Of trouble in the wilderness,
A great and grievous crime.

Whereas you fathers tempted me,
And tried me every way :

They proved me, and saw my works,
What I could do or say.

These forty years I have been grived
With this generation :

And evermore I said they er'd

Te Deum.

In their imagination, (brod
Where with their hearts were fore cum-
Long time and many daies :
Wherefore I said assuredly,
They have not known my waies.

To whom I in mine anger swore,
That they should not be blest,
Nor see my joy celestiall,
Nor enter in my rest.

Gloria Patri.

All land and praise be to the Lord,
O that of might art most :
To God the Father and the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost.
As it in the beginning was,
for ever heretofore :
And is now at this present time,
and shall be evermore.

The Song of Saint Ambrose called Te Deum.

WE praise thee God, we knowledge
the only Lord to be : (thee
And as eternal Father all
the earth doth worship thee.
To thee all Angels cry, the heavens,
and all the powers therein :
To thee Cherub and Seraphin,
to cry they do not lin.

O holy, holy, holy Lord,
of Sabbath Lord the God : Through heaven and earth thy praise is
and glory all abroad. (spread,
Th' Apostles glorious company
yeeld praises unto thee :
The Prophets goodly fellowship
praise thee continually.

The noble and victorious host of Martyrs found thy praise :
The holy Church throughout the world
doth knowledge thee alwaies.
Father of endless Majesty
they do acknowledge thee,
Thy Christ thine honourable, true
and onely Son to be.

The Holy Ghost the Comforter,
of glorie thou art King,
O Christ, and of the Father art
the Son everlasting.
When sinful mans decay in hand
thou tookest to restore :
To be inclos'd in Virgins womb,
thou diddest not abhor.

When thou hadst overcome of death
the sharp and cruel might :
Thou heavens kingdom didst set ope
to each believing wight.
In glory of the Father thou
dost sit on Gods right hand :
We trust that thou shalt come our Judge
our cause to understand.

Lord help thy servants, whom thou hast

Benedictus.

bought with thy precious blood :
And in eternal glory set
them with thy Saints so good.
O Lord do thou thy people save,
blest thine inheritance :
Lord govern them, and Lord do thou
for ever them advance.

We magnifie thee day by day,
and world without an end
Adore thy holy Name : O Lord
vouchsafe us to defend
From sin this day : have mercy Lord,
have mercy on us all :
And on us as we trust in thee,
Lord let thy mercy fall.

O Lord I have reposed all
my confidence in thee :
Pur to confounding shame therefore,
Lord let me never be.

The Song of Zacharias called Benedictus.

THe only Lord of Israel
be praised evermore :
For through his visitation,
And mercy kept in store,
His people now he hath redeem'd,
That long have been in thral :
And spread abroad his saving health
Upon his servants all.

In Davids house his servant true,
According to his mind :
And also his anointed King,
As we in Scripture find.
As by his holy Prophets all
oft times he did declare :
The which were since the world began,
His waies for to prepare.

That we might be delivered
From those that make debate:
Our enemies, and from the hands
Of all that do us hate.

The mercy which he promised
Our Fathers to fulfil :
And think upon his covenant made,
According to his will.

And also to perform the oath
Which he before had sworn,
To Abraham our Father dear,
For us that were forlorn.

That he would give himself for us,
And us from bondage bring
Our of the hands of all our foes,
To serve our heavenly King.

And that without all manner fear,
And eke in righteousness :
And also for to lend our lives
In steadfast holiness :
And thou (O Child) which now art born,
And of the Lord elect :
Shalt be the Prophet of the Highest,
His waies for to direct.

For thou shalt go before his face

For

Magnifi at Nunc dimittis.

For to prepare his waies :
And also for to reach his will,
And pleasure all thy daies.
To give them knowledg how that their Salvation is near :
And that remission of their sins
Is through his mercy meet.

Whereby the day-spring from on high
Is come us for to visit :
And those for to illuminate,
Which do in darkness sit.
To lighten those that shadowed be
With death and eke oppress :
And also for to guide our feet
The way to peace and rest.

The Song of the blessed Mary, called Maaght.

MY soul doth magnifie the Lord,
My spirit eke evermore
Rejoiceth in the Lord my God,
Which is my Saviour.

And why ? because he did regard,
And gave respect unto
So base estate of his hand-maid,
And let the mighty go.

For now behold all nations,
And generations all,
From this time forth for evermore
Shall me right blessed call :

Because he hath me magnified,
Which is the Lord of might :
Whose name be ever sanctified,
And praised day and night.

For with his mercy and his grace
All men he doth ename :
Throughout all generations,
To such as fear his Name.

He shewed strength with his great arm,
And made the proud to start,
With all imaginations
That they have in their heart.

He hath put down the mighty ones
From their supernal seat :
And did exalt the meek in heart,
As he hath thought it meet,

The hungry he replenished
With all things that were good :
And through his power he made the rich
Of times to want their food.

And calling to remembrance
His mercy every deal :
Hath holpen up assidantly
His servant Israel.

According to his promise made
To Abraham before :
And to his seed successively,
To stand for evermore.

The Song of Simeon, called Nunc dimittis.

O Lord because my heart desire
Hath wished long to see :

The Lament. of a sinner.

My only Lord and Saviour,
Thy Son before I die.
The joy and health of all mankind,
Desired long before :
Which now is come into the world,
Of mercy bringing store.

Thou sufferest thy servant now
In peace for to depart,
According to thy holy Word,
Which lighteneth my heart.

Because mine eyes which thou hast made
To give my body light,
Have now beheld thy saving health,
Which is the Lord of might,

Whom thou mercifully hast set (Of thine abundant grace)
In open sight and visible,

Before all peoples face,
The Gentiles to illuminate,
And Saran over-quel :
And eke to be the glorie of Thy people Israel.

The Lamentation of a sinner.

O Lord turn not away thy face
From him that lits prostrate :
Lamenting sore his sinful life,
Before thy mercy gate :

Which gate thou openest wide to those
That do lament their sin :
Shut not that gate against me Lord,
But let me enter in.

And cal me not to mine account
How I have lived here :
For then I know right well O Lord,
How vile I shall appear.

I need not to confess my life,
I am sure thou canst tell,
What I have been and what I am,
I know thou know'st it well.

O Lord thou know'st what things be past
And eke the things that be :
Thou know'st also what is to come,
Nothing is hid from thee.

Before the heavens & earth were made
Thou know'st what things were then :
As all things else that have been since,
Among the sons of men.

And can the things that I have done,
Be hiddeu from thee then ?
Nay nay, thou know'st them all O Lord,
Where they were done and when,
Wherefore with tears I come to thee,
To beg and to intreat :
Even as the child that hath done ill,
And feareth to be beat.

So come I to thy mercy gate,
Where mercy doth abound :
Requiring mercy for my sin,
To heal my deadly wound.

O Lord I need not to repeat,
What I do beg and crave:
Thou know'st (O Lord) before I ask.

The

The Lords Prayer.

The thing that I would have.

Mercy good Lord, mercy I ask,
This is the total summe,
For mercy Lord is all my suit,
Lord let thy mercy come.

The Lords Prayer, or Pater Noster.

Our Father which in Heaven art,
Lord hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, even as the same In Heaven is. Give us O Lord, our daily bread this day.
As we forgive our debtors, so forgive our debts we pray.
Into temptation lead us not,
from evil make us free :
For kingdom, power and glory shine
both now and ever be.

The Lords Prayer, D. Cor.

Our Father which in heaven art,
And mak'st usal one brother-hood,
To call upon thee with one heart,
Our heavenly Father and our God.
Grant we pray not with lips alone,
But with our hearts deep sigh & grone,

Thy blessed Name be sanctified,
Thy holy Word might us inflame,
In holy life for to abide,
To magnifie thy holy Name.
From all errors defend and keep
The little flock of thy poor sheep.

Thy kingdom come even at this hour
And henceforth everlastingly :
Thine Holy Ghost into us poure,
With all his gifts most plenteously.
From Satans rage and filthy band,
Defend us with thy mighty hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heaven, in earth also :
In trouble grant us patience,
Thee to obey in wealth and wo.
Let nor flesh, blood, or any ill
Prevail against thy holy will.

Give us this day our daily bread,
And all other good gifts of thine :
Keep us from war and from bloud-shed,
Also from sickness, dearth and pine.
That we may live in quietness,
Without all greedy carefulness.

Forgive us our offences all,
Relieve our careful conscience :
As we forgive both great and smal,
Which unto us have done offence.
Prepare us Lord for to serve thee
In perfect love and unity.

O Lord into temptation,
Lead us not when the fiend doth rage,
To withstand his invasion,
Give power and strength to every age.
Arm and make strong thy feeble host,
With faith and with the Holy Ghost.

The X Commandements.

O Lord from evil deliver us,
The daies and times are dangerous:
From everlasting death save us,
And in our last need comfort us.
A blessed end to us bequeath,
Into thy hands our souls receive.

For thou, O Lord, art King of kings,
And thou hast power over all :
Thy glory shineth in all things,
In the wide world universal.
Amen, let it be done, O Lord,
That we have praid with one accord.

The ten Commandments of God,
Exod. 20. W. W.

Heark Israel, and what I say
give heed to understand :
I am the Lord thy God that brought thee out of Egypt land, Even from the house wherein thou didst
in thraldome live a slave :
None other Gods at all before my presence shalt thou have.
No manner graven image shalt thou make at all to thee :
Nor any figure like by thee
shall counterfeited be,
Of any thing in Heaven above
nor in the earth below :
Nor in the waters beneath the earth,
to them thou shalt not bow, Nor shalt them serve, the Lord thy
a jealous God am I : (God)
That punish parents faults, unto
the third and fourth degree,
Upon their children that me hate,
and mercy do display
To thousands of such as me love,
and my precepts obey.

The Name thou of the Lord thy God
in vain shalt never use :
For him that takes his Name in vain
the Lord will not excuse.
Remember that thou holy keep
the sacred Sabbath day :
Six dayes thou labour shalt, and do thy needfull works alway.

The seventh day the Lord thy God
hath set to rest upon :
No work then shalt thou do in it,
ne thou nor yet thy son,
Thy daughter, servant, nor thy maid,
thine ox, nor yet thine asse,
Nor stranger that within thy gates
hath his abiding place.

For in six dayes, God heaven and earth,
and all therein did make :
And after those his rest he did
upon the seventh day take.
Wherefore he blest the day that he
for resting did ordain :
And sacred to himself alone
appointed to remain.

The X Commandments

Yield honour to thy parents, that prolong'd thy dayes may be Upon the land, the which the Lord
thy God hath given thee.
Thou shalt not murder. Thou shalt not commit adultery.
Thou shalt not steal. Nor witness false against thy neighbour be.
Thou shalt not covet house that to thy neighbour doth belong :
Ne cover shalt in having of his wife to do him wrong.
Nor his man-servant nor his maid,
nor ox nor asse of his :
Nor any other thing that to thy neighbour proper is.

Another of the same by W. W.

Atend my people and give ear,
Of ferly things I will thee tell :
See that my words in mind thou bear,
And to my precepts listen well.

1 I am thy sovereign Lord and God,
Which have thee brought from careful thrall
And thee reclaim'd from Pharaohs rod.
Make thee no gods on them to call.

2 Nor fashioned form of any thing
In heaven or earth : o worship it :
For I thy God by revenging
With grievous plagues this sin will smite.

3 Take not in vain his holy name,
Abuse it not after thy will,
For so thou might'st soe purchase blame
And in his wrath he would thee spill.

(ceast,
4 The Lord from work the seventh day
And brought all things to perfect end :
So thou and thine that day take rest,
That to Gods heits ye may attend.

5 Unto thy parents honour give,
As Gods commandments do intend :
That thou long dayes & good maist live
In earth, where God a place doth lend.

6 Beware of murder and cruel hate.
7 All filthy fornication fear.

8 See thou steal not in any rate.

9 False witness against no man bear.

His field, his ox, his asse, his slave,
Or any thing which is not thine.

A Prayer.

The spirit of grace grant us O Lord
To keep these laws our hearts restore,
And cause us all with one accord,
To magnify thy Name therefore.

For of our selves no strength we have To keep these laws after thy will :
Thy might therefore O Christ we crave,
That we in thee may them fulfil.

Lord for thy Names sake grant us this

The Complaint of a sinner.

Thou art our strength, O Saviour Christ
Of thee to speed how should we miss,
In whom our treasure doth consist ?

To thee for evermore be praise,
With the Father in each respect,
And with the holy Spirit alwayes,
The comforter of thine elect.

The Complaint of a sinner.

Where righteousness doth lay,
Lord for my sinful part,
In wrath thou shouldst me pay Vengeance for my desert.
I can it not deny,
But needs I must confesse,
How that continually
Thy laws I do transgress.

But if it be thy will
With sinners to contend :
Then all thy flock shall spill,
And be lost without end.
For who lives here so right,
That rightly he can say,
He sins not in thy fight,
Full oft and every day?

The Scripture plain tells me,
The righteous man offendeth
Seven times a day 'gainst thee
Whereon thy wrath dependeth:
So that the righteous man
Doth walk in no such path,
But he falls now and than
In danger of thy wrath.

Then sith the case so stands,
That even the man right wise
Falls oft in sinful hands,
Whereby thy wrath may rise,
Lord, I that am unjust,
And righteousness none have Whereto then shall I trust,
My sinful soul to save?

But truly so that post,
Whereto I cleave and shall :
Which is thy mercy most,
Lord let thy mercy fall,
And mitigate thy mood,
Or else we perish all :
The price of this thy blood,
Wherein mercy I call.

The Scripture doth declare,
No drop of blood in thee :
But that thou didst not spare
To shed each drop for me.
Now let those drops most sweet,
So moist my heart to drie,
That I with sin repeat,
May live, and sin may die.

That being mortified,
This sin of mine in me,
I may be sanctified,
By grace of thine in thee:
So that I never fall
Into such mortal sin,
That my foes infernal

which hath brought you into his light:
O praise him all people mortal,
as it is most worthy and right.

For he is full determined

Come praise the Lord every degree,
with such songs as to him are due.

O ye that stand in the Lords house,
even in our own Gods mansion :
Praise ye the Lord so bounteous,
which worketh our salvation.

Lift up your hands in his holy place,
yea and thar in the time of night :
Praise ye the Lord which gives all grace,
for he is a Lord of great might.

Then shall the Lord out of Sion,

The twelve Articles of the Christian Faith.

All my belief and confidence
is in the Lord of might :
The Father which all things hath made
the day and eke the night:
The heavens and the firmaments,
and also many a star,
The earth and all thar is therein,
which pass mans reason far.

And in like manner I believe in Christ our Lord his son :
Coequal with the Deitie,
and man in flesh and bone.
Conceived by the Holy Ghost,
his word doth me assure :

The Creed.

And of his mother Mary born,
yet she a Virgin pure.

Because mankind to Satan was
for sin in bond and thral :
He came and offer'd up himself
to death to save us all.
And suffering most grievous pain,
then Pilate being judge :
Was crucified on the Crosse,
and thereafter did not grudge.

And so he died in the flesh,
but quickned in the spirit :
His body then was buried,
as is our use and rite.
His soul did after this descend
into the lower parts :
A dread unto the wicked spirits,
but joy to faithful hearts.

And in the third day of his death
he rose to life again :
To th' end he might be glorif'd,
out of all grief and pain,
Ascending to the heavens high,
to sit in glory still :
On Gods right hand his Father dear,
according to his will.

Until the day of judgement come,
when he shal come again
With Angels power (yet of that day
we all be uncertain)

To judge all people righteously,
whom he hath dearly bought :
The living and the dead also,
which he hath made of nought.

And in the holy Spirit of God,
(my faith so satisfie)

The third person in Trinity,
believe I stedfastly.

The holy and Catholick Church,
thar Gods Word doth maineain :
And holy Scripture doth allow,
which Satan doth disdain.

And also I do trust to have
by Jesus Christ his death :
Release and pardon of my sins,
and that onely by faith.
What time all flesh shall rise again,
before the Lord of might :
And see him with their bodily eyes,
which now do give them light.

And then shal Christ our Saviour
the sheep and goats divide :
And give life everlastingly,
to those whom he hath rrid.
Within his Realm celestial,
in glory for to rest :
With all his holy companie
of Saints and Angels blest.

Which serve the Lord omnipotent
obediently each hour :
To whom be all dominion,
and praise for evermore.

A Prayer to the holy Ghost, to be sung
before the Sermon.

Come holy Spirit the God of might comforter of us all :

Teach us to know thy Word aright,
that we may never fall.

O Holy Ghost visit our coast,
defend us with thy shield :

Against all sin and wickedness,
Lord help us win the field.

Lord keep our King and his Council,
and give them will and might

To persevere in thy Gospel,
which can put sin to flight.

O Lord that giv'st thy holy Word,
send Preachers plentifully :

That in the same we may accord,
and therein live and die.

O holy Spirit direct aright
the Preachers of thy Word :

That thou by them maist cut down sin,
as it were with a sword.

Depart not from thy Pastors pure,
but aid them at their need.

Which break to us the bread of life,
whereon our souls do feed.

O blessed Spirit of truth keep us
in peace and unity :

Keep us from sects and errors all,
and from all Papistry.

Convert all those that are our foes,
and bring them to thy light,

That they and we may well agree,
and praise thee day and night.

O Lord increase our faith in us,
and love so to abound :

That man and wife be void of strife,
and neighbours about us round.

In our time give thy peace O Lord,
to nations far and nigh :

And teach them all thy holy Word,
that we may sing to thee.

All glory to the Trinity,
that is of mighties most :

The living Father and the Son,
and eke the Holy Ghost.

As it hath been in all the time
that hath been heretofore :

As it is now, and so shall be henceforth for evermore,

A FORME OF PRAYER TO be used in private houses every Morning and Evening.

Morning Prayer.

Almighty God, and most merciful Father, we do not present our selves here before thy Majestie, trusting in our own merits or worthines, but in thy manifold mercies, which hast promised to hear our prayers, & grant our requests which we shal make to thee in the name of thy beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord: who hath also commanded us to assemble our selves together in his name, with full assurance that he will not onely be amongst us, but also be our Mediator and Advocate towards thy Majestie, that we may obtaine all things which itall seem expedient to thy blessed will, for our necessities. Therefore we beseech thee (most merciful Father) to turne thy loving countenance towards us, and impute not unto us our manifold finnes and offences, whereby we justly deserve thy wrath and sharp punishment: but rather receive us to thy mercy, for Jesus Christs sake, accepting his death and passion as a just recompence for all our offences, in whom onely thou art pleased, and through whom thou canst not be offended with us. And seeing that of thy great mercies we have ouerly passed this night, grant (O heavenly Father) that we may bestow this day wholly in thy service, so that all our thoughts, words, and deeds, may redound to the glory of thy Name, & good ensample to all men, who seeing our good works, may glorifie thee our heavenly Father. And so much as of thy meeke favour and love, thou hast not onely created us to thy own similitude and likeness, but also hast chosen us to be heirs with thy dear Son Jesus Christ, of that immortal kingdom, which thou preparedst for us before the beginning of the world: we beseech thee to increase our faith and knowledge, and to lighten our hearts with thy holy Spirit, that we may in the mean time live in godly conversation and integrity of life, knowing that idolaters, adulterers, covetous men, contentious persons, drunkards, gluttons, and such like, shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

And because thou hast commanded us to pray one for another, we do not onely make request (O Lord) for our selves, and them that thou hast already called to the true understanding of thine heavenly will, but for all people and nations of the world, who as they know by thy wonderful works, that thou art God over all, so they may be instructed by thine holy spirit to believe in thee their onely Saviour & Redeemer. But so far as they cannot believe except they hear, nor cannot hear but by preaching, and none can preach except they be sent: therefore (O Lord) raise up faithful distributors of thy mysteries, who setting apart all worldly respects, may both in their life and doctrine onely seek thy glory. Contrarily confound Satan, Antichrist, with all hirelings and Papists, whom thou hast already cast off into a reprobate sense, that they may not by sects, schisms, heresies, and errors, disquiet thy little flock. And because (O Lord) we be fallen into the latter dayes and dangerous times, wherein ignorance hath gotten the upper hand, and Satan by his ministers seeks by all means to quench the light of thy Gospel, we beseech thee to maintain thy cause against those ravening wolves, and strengthen all thy servants whom they keep in prison and bondage. Let not thy long suffering be an occasion either to increase their tyranny, or to discourage thy children, neither yet let our sins and wickednes be an hinderance to thy mercies; but with speed (O Lord) consider their great misery. For thy people Israel many times by their sins provoked thine anger, and thou punishedst them by thy just judgments; yet though their sins were never so grievous, if they once returned from their iniquity, thou receivedst them to mercy. We therefore most wretched sin-

men bewaile our manifold sins, and earnestly repent us for our former wickedness & ungodly behaviour towards thee: and whereas we cannot of our selves purchase thy pardon, yet we humbly beseech thee, for Jesus Christs sake, to shew thy mercies upon us, and receive us again to thy favour. Grant us (dear Father) these our requests, and all other things necessary for us and thy whole Church, according to thy promise in Jesus Christ our Lord. In whose name we beseech thee, as he hath taught us, saying, Our Father which art, &c.

Evening Prayer.

O Lord God, Father everlasting and full of pity, we acknowledge and confess that we be not worthy to lift up our eyes to heaven, much less to present our selves before thy Majesty, with confidence that thou wilt hear our prayers, & grant our requests, if we consider our own deservings. For our consciences do accuse us, and our sins do witness against us, and we know that thou art an upright Judge, which doest not justify the sinners and wicked men, but punishest the faults of all such as transgress thy commandments. Yet most merciful Father, since it hath pleased thee to command us to call on thee in all our troubles and adversities, promising even then to help us when we feel our selves (as it were) swallowed up of death and desperation, we utterly renounce all worldly confidence, and flee to thy sovereign bountie as our onely stay and refuge: beseeching thee not to call to remembrance our manifold sins and wickedness, whereby we continually provoke thy wrath and indignation against us: neither our negligence and unkindness, which have neither worthily esteemed, nor in our lives sufficiently expressed the sweet comfort of thy Gospel revealed unto us but rather to accept the obedience and death of thy Sonne Jesus Christ, who by offering up his body in sacrifice once for all, hath made a sufficient recompence for all our sins. Have mercy therefore upon us, O Lord, and forgive us our offences. Teach us by thine holy Spirit, that we may rightly weigh them, and earnestly repent for the same, and so much the rather, O Lord, because that the reprobate, and such as thou hast forsaken cannot praise thee, nor call upon thy name: but the repenting heart, the sorrowful mind, the conscience oppressed, hungry and thirsting for thy grace, shall ever set forth thy praise and glory.

And alacke we be but worms and dust, yet thou art our Creator, and we be the work of thine hands: yea thou art our

Father, and we thy children: thou art our Shepherd, and we thy flock: thou art our Redeemer, and we the people whom thou hast bought: thou art our God, and we thine inheritance. Correct us not therefore in thine anger, (O Lord) neither according to our deserts punish us, but mercifully chastise us with a fatherly affection, that all the world may know that at what time soever a sinner doth repent him of his sins from the bottom of his heart, thou wilt put away his wickedness out of thy remembrance, as thou hast promised by thine holy Prophets:

Finally, forasmuch as it hath pleased thee to make $\frac{1}{2}$ night for man to rest in, as thou hast ordained him the day to travel in, grant (dear Father) that we may so take our bodily rest, that our souls may continually watch for the time that our Lord Jesus Christ shall appear for our deliverance out of this mortal life: and in the mean season that we, nor overcome by any fantasies, dreams, or other temptations, may fully set our minds upon thee, love thee, fear thee, and rest in thee: furthermore, that our sleep be not excessive or overmuch, after the insatiable desires of our flesh, but only sufficient to content our weak nature, that we may be the better disposed to live in all godly conversation, to the glory of thine holy name & profit of our brethren. So be it.

A godly Prayer to be said at all times.

Honour and praise be given to thee, O Lord God Almighty, most dear Father of heaven, for all thy mercies & loving kindnesses shewed unto us, in that it hath pleased thy gracious goodness, freely and of thine own accord to elect and chuse us to salvation before the beginning of the world. And even like continual thanks be given to thee, for creating us after thine own image, for redeeming us with the precious blood of thy dear Son, when we were utterly lost; for sanctifying us with thy holy Spirit, in the revelation & knowledge of thy holy word: for helping and succouring us in all our needs & necessities: for saving us from all dangers of body & soul: for comforting us so tenderly in all our tribulations & persecutions: for sparing us so long, and giving us so large a time of repentance. These benefits, O most merciful Father, like as we acknowledge to have received them of thy only goodness, even so we beseech thee for thy dear Son Jesus Christs sake, to grant us alwayes thy holy Spirit, whereby we may continually grow in thankfulness towards thee, to be led into all truth, and comforted comforted in all adversities. O Lord strengthen our faith, kindle it more in ferventness & love towards thee, and our neighbours for thy sake. Suffer us not, most dear Father, to receive thy word any more in vain: but grant us alwaies the assistance of thy grace and holy Spirit, that in heart, word and deed, we may sanctifie and do worship to thy Name; help to amplify & increase thy kingdom, and whatsoever thou sendest, we may be heartily well content with thy good pleasure and will. Let us not lack the thing (O Father) without the which we cannot serve thee: but bless thou so all the works of our hands, that we may have sufficient, and not be chargeable, but rather helpful unto others. Be merciful, O Lord to our offences: and seeing our debt is great, which thou hast forgiven us in Jesus Christ, make us to love thee and our neighbours so much the more. Be thou our Father, captain and defender in all temptations: hold thou us by thy merciful hand, that we may be delivered from all inconveniencies, and end our lives in the sanctifying and honouring of thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord and onely Saviour.

Let thy mightie hand and out-stretched arm (O Lord) be still our defence: thy mercie and loving kindnes in Jesus Christ thy dear Son our salvation, thy true and holy word our instruction, thy grace and holy Spirit our comfort and consolation, unto the end, and in the end. So be it.
Lord increase our faith.

A Prayer to be said before a man begin his work.

O Lord God, most merciful Father and Saviour, seeing it hath pleased thee to command us to travel that we may relieve our need, we beseech thee of thy grace so to bless our labour, that thy blessing may extend unto us, without the which we are not able to continue; and that this great favour may be a witness unto us of thy bountifullness & assistance, so that thereby we may know the fatherly care that thou hast over us.

Moreover, O Lord, we beseech thee that thou wouldst strengthen us with thy holy Spirit, that we may faithfully travel in our state and vocation without fraud or deceit, & that we may endeavour our selves to follow thine holy ordinance, rather then seek to satisfy our greedy affections, or desire to gain. And if it please thee (O Lord) to prosper our labour, give us a mind also to help them that have need, according to that ability that thou of thy mercy shall give us: and knowing that a good things come of thee, grant that we may humble our selves to our neighbours & not by any means lift our selves above them which have not received so large a portion of thy mercies as thou hast given us. And if it please thee (O Lord) to trie & exercise us by greater poverty and necessity then our flesh would desire, that thou wouldst yet (O Lord) grant us grace to know that thou wilt nourish us continually through thy bountifull liberality, that we be not so tempted, that we fall into distrust, but that we may patiently wait till thou fill us, not onely with corporal graces and benefits, but chiefly with thine heavenly and spiritual treasures; to the intent that we may alwaies have more ample occasion to give thee thanks, and wholly to rest upon thy mercies. Hear us (O Lord) of mercy, through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, Amen.

A Confession for all estates and times.

O Eternal God and most mercifull Father, we confess and acknowledge here before thy divine Majestie, that we are miserable sinners, conceived and born in sin and iniquitie, so that in us there is no goodness: For the flesh evermore rebelleth against thy Spirit, whereby we continually transgress thy holy precepts and commandments, and so purchase to our selves through thy just judgement, death and damnation. Notwithstanding (O heavenly Father) inasmuch as we are distressed with our selves, for the sins we have committed against thee, and do unfeignedly repent us of the same, we most humbly beseech thee for Jesus Christs sake, to shew thy mercie upon us, to forgive all our sins, and increase thy holy Spirit in us, that we acknowledging from the bottom of our hearts our own unrighteousness, may from henceforth not onely mortifie our sinful lusts and affections, but also bring forth such fruits as may be agreeable to thy most blessed will: not for the worthiness thereof, but for the merits of thy dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our onely Saviour, whom thou hast already given an oblation and offering for our sins, and for whose sake we are certainly persuaded, that thou wilt denie us nothing that we shall ask in his name, according to thy will. For thy Spirit doth assure our consciences, that thou art our mercifull Father, and so lovest us, thy children through him, that nothing is able to remove thy heavenly grace and favour from us. To thee therefore (O Father with thy Son and the holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.
